After Election.

Well, the election is over, and we are glad of it, aint you? Hang politics! True, we like the sharp contest, the cutting thrust and the keen retort; but we dislike the jealousy, bitterness, and hate which political contests evoke. We hate the low cunning, the sly trick, the watching for an advantage, the thousand performances of more than doubtful morality, which grow out of political strife. The fact is, about election time a man is'nt much of a man—he's nothing but a politician, the littlest end of humanity whittled down to the smallest possible point.

But, after election, party feeling lets up. Everybody looks glad. The successful man is glad of his success. The unsuccessful man is glad that the worst is known at last, he is no longer in suspense. Former foes meet good naturedly, and laugh over the incidents of the campaign. This one tells how he should have come out ahead, if this town had pulled true; that one is equally confident he should not have taken the dimensions of the horn's little end if that town or that county hadn't gigged from last year's figures. Another tells how he should have swept the board if it hadn't been a good buckwheat day, or if they had only polled a full vote. In fact all can demonstrate to you, clear as mud, that they should have won if they had only got—votes enough! Every one sees the force of that, laughs and says, sure enough. The story of this one's getting drunk, or voting on the wrong side, or going against that man or that measure last year, is quite forgotten till some other demand for the same kind of political capital.

But political contests have their uses. They give you a capital chance to study human nature. Election day is worth a dozen other days for that. If there is anything really mean in a man, politics will draw it out. Nominate a man for an office, and see if he don't find the hard spots in his opponent's history in a twinkling. And see, too, if he don't paint them with the skill of a master. He can see, at a glance, what nobody ever saw before. He knows it's so; he can prove it; he will swear to it; finally, to clinch the matter, he will bet on it! And see how like a thief in a hen roost he bangs around the polls on election day. Every knot of talkers must be operating against him, and he steps up slyly to listen. Every whisper startles him. All men appear dishonest. All are combined to defeat him. He slips his vote into every green horn's hand and likely as not puts it in place of the one the fellow really thought he voted. Where it will do, he tries bluffing; where coaxing will do, he tries that; where promises go best, he promises; where flattery takes, he flatters; where deception can work, he deceives; where bribery goes, he bribes; and where nothing but lying will tell, he lies egregiously, infamously, and often under a fatal mistake. Sometimes he is bluffed in return, sometimes he is met with a waggish leer as much as to say "you can't fool me with chaff, old fellow," but more commonly he is despised ever after for such a base prostitution of his manhood to selfishness and wrong.

Getting election returns is jolly business, isn't it? How every mother's anxious son stands on tiptoe, erectis auribus. "Have they counted anything in there? Why don't they let us know the result? What do they play the hog for?"—will be heard in five minutes after the polls close. "Have you heard from Glade yet? Is Youngsville up? How's Brokenstraw? Thunder, how like a jug that comes. Guess Sam is wide awake there. In comes the mail. A crowd collects. Somebody gets a letter from Columbus. "Hold your hats. Yates 227 majority!" Jerusalem whats broke? "Stacy 123!" Gulliver, what long strides for short legs. "Jones 212 majority! Berry one vote in Democratic old Columbus!" Put on the brakes, cars must be off the track, sure. Then comes Deerfield, and "what a fall was there my countrymen." But something always goes down when whisky is uppermost. Pinegrove gets in early, for good news always goes quick. "Jones 137, Berry 8!" Don't that beat the—Democracy? Now where's your Borough ticket? The victors throw up their caps and shout; the vanquished grin a ghastly smile, look pale around the mouth, try to talk it easy, but feel like death. And so it goes. When one party sinks, the other rises—when one end of the teater is up, the other is down. The outs go in, and the ins go out. There is just about as much down hill in the world as there is up, after all. Well, there is—who says there isn't?—Warren Mail.

LITTLE LOVE LYRICS.—A gentleman lost his wife, whose maiden name was Little, and addressed the following to Miss Moore, a lady of diminutive stature:

"I've lost the Little once I had;
My heart is sad and sore;
So now I should be very glad
To have a little More."

To which the lady sent the following answer:

"I pity much the loss you've had;
The grief you must endure;
A heart by Little made so sad,
A little More can't cure."

George Sturges,

SOLE Manufacturer of the Improved Spiral Spring Matresses, No. 92 Walnut St. Philadelphia.

FIVE SILVER MEDALS awarded, viz.
Two by the American Institute, New York, Oct. 1851 do Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, Nov. and One at the Maryland Institute, Baltimore, Nov. 1852

The peculiar improvement in the construction of this Matress is, that all the clumsy and heavy wooden frame work is entirely dispensed with, and its place supplied by a lighter and much more durable frame, the springs are all connected by harness-leather hinges, securely riveted, rendering it impossible for a single spring to fall down or get out of place, and making a Bed so elastic that any part may be raised or bent up, and is thus admirably fitted to the wants of the sick or asthmatic who may require a sitting posture, having the luxurious softness of the best Feather Bed with the lightness and facility of handling of the common Hair Mattress.

These improved Spring Beds are invariably made of the best materials, and will last many years without repairs.

Persons having Hair Matresses, can have them altered into Spring Beds.

These Beds are well adapted for Hotels, berths of Ships, Steamboats and Hospitals.

Spring Seats for Chairs, Carriages or Church Pews and Hair and Husk Matresses made to order.—Also an extensive assortment of highly ornamented (in enamel) and plain finished

SALAMANDER SAFES!

Evans & Watson, No. 26 South Fourth St., Philadelphia.

Great Fire at Chestnut & Fifth Sts., Friday morning, Dec. 15th, 1854—EVANS & WATSON'S SALAMANDER SAFES TRIUMPHANT, as they always are when put to the test:

"PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15, 1854.

Messrs. Evans & Watson, No. 29 South Fourth St.

Gentlemen—We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to Merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers &c. from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth streets. The above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The Safe was then removed and opened in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who witnessed the good condition of its contents. Will you please have the Safe and Locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire-proof qualities.

Yours, respectfully,
LACEY & PHILLIPS."

Evans & Watson take pleasure in referring to the following, among the many hundreds who have their Safes in use: U. S. Mint, Philada.; Farmers' & Mechanics' Bank, Philada.; Samuel Allen, Esq., High Sheriff, Philada.; John N. Henderson, City Controller; Caleb Cope & Co., No. 183 Market St.,; Richard Norris & Son, Locomotive builders, Philada.; Bancroft & Sellers, Machinists, corner 16th and James Sts.; Franklin Fire Insurance Co., Philada.; Pennsylvania Railroad Co., Philada.; Lacey & Phillips, corner 5th and Minor Sts.; Sharpless & Bro., No. 32 South Second St.; James, Kent & Santee, No. 147 North Third St.; W. H. Horstman & Sons, No. 51 North Third St.; Smith, Williams & Co., No. 87 Market St.; I. & B. Orne, No. 185 Chestnut St.

☞ A large assortment of the above Safes always on hand (warranted to stand at least 10 per cent. more fire than any Herring's Safe now in use). EVANS & WATSON also manufacture and keep for sale, Iron Shutters, Iron Doors and Iron Sash, for making fire-proof Vaults for Banks, stores, public and private buildings; Seal and Letter Copying Presses; Patent Slate Lined Refrigerators, &c. HERRING'S

Patent Champion Fire-Proof SAFES, with HALL'S Patent Powder-Proof Locks, which were awarded separate Medals at the World's Fair, London, 1851, and also at the World's Fair, New York, 1853 and 1854. The subscribers are the sole manufacturers and proprietors in this State of the above unequalled Safes and Locks. The reputation of the genuine "Herring's Safe" is world wide, and for the last thirteen years the mercantile community have witnessed and borne testimony to their NEVER FAILING fire proof qualities. More than 12,000 of these Safes have been actually sold, and over TWO HUNDRED have passed triumphantly through accidental fires. The public are assured that all Safes manufactured by the subscribers are not only guaranteed to be fully equal, but in many respects even superior to those which have been so severely tried by fire. Few will forget their services in the burning of the "Tribune establishment," New York, and at the Great Fire in Strawberry street, at the large fire last July, opposite the Girard House; and still more recently in the Fire at Fifth and Chesnut Sts., in this city, in which these Safes came forth the acknowledged CHAMPION, when many other securities failed. Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

HELMBOLD'S Highly Concentrated Compound Fluid Extract of BUCHU, for Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Secret Diseases, Strictures, Weakness, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sipping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust your-self in the hands of Quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with glaring falsehoods too well calculated to deceive the young and those not acquainted with their tricks. You can not be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

The Fluid Extract of Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the Greatest Remedy ever known. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and, unlike other remedies, it does not dry up the disease in the blood. Constitutional debility, brought on by self-abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious ambition of many a noble youth, can be cured by this infallible Remedy. And as a medicine which must benefit every body, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, acting both as a Cure and Preventive.

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished Physicians in the country, and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary Syphilis, Mercurial and Scrofulous diseases have entirely recovered in the incurable wards of our Public Institutions which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be derived. These cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases, after the glands were destroyed and the bones already affected.

NOTICE.—Letters from responsible Physicians of several Medical Colleges, and certificates of cures from patients will be found accompanying both Preparations.

PRICES.—Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5. Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla, $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5, equal in strength to one gallon Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

Prepared and Sold by H. T. HELMBOLD, Chemist, 263 Chestnut St., near the Girard House, Philadelphia.

To be had of CHRIST & CALDWELL, Lewisburg, and of Druggists and Dealers everywhere.
