

The Lewisburg Chronicle.

AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY JOURNAL, issued on Friday Mornings at Lewisburg, Union county, Pennsylvania.

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 14, 1855.

ADVERTISERS—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers...

AGENTS WANTED!

We desire to employ five or six Agents to canvass different Districts, and procure subscribers for the CHRONICLE.

Court in New B—no! Lewisburg, next Monday, we shall be happy to see all our old and a thousand new patrons...

Our New Berlin neighbors, in particular, we hope will try to repay Lewisburg some of the many thousand visits made them...

The Miltonian seems apprehensive there are those even in Sunbury who are for a division of North D county...

At 11 o'clock yesterday we asked our telegraphic friends how they were off for snow, and received the following answers...

The Strawberry Bee, which we not long since published as dead, stings us in a manner that satisfies us our informant was mistaken...

A lady in Muscatine, Iowa, sends us a paper containing a glowing account of the entrance into that city, from Chicago, of the first train of cars ever run in the State of Iowa.

Wm T. Linn and party, of Buffalo Tp, killed four Deer last week, and sent some of the carcasses to us, poor printers.

Messrs. Greer & McCrum, of the Juniata Sentinel, have dissolved partnership, Mr. Greer retaining the paper.

Thanks to Mr. R. G. ORWIG of Philad'a, for a lithographic view of the splendid new Lancaster Court House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—No speaker yet. The last vote of today stood: Banks 105, Richardson 75, Fuller 33.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Francis P. Blair has written a letter to the Republican Association, in response to an invitation to reside over that organization...

From appearances, the venerable and talented old Federalist, James Buchanan, will have a large majority of the Nebraska Democracy of Pennsylvania at their next State Convention.

No Speaker Yet. WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—No Speaker elected by to-day's balloting.

Banks, 104—Richardson, 74—Fuller, 33.

ALLOTMENT OF WORK.—The following is the allotment of contracts upon the Northern Central Railway between Bridgeport, opposite Harrisburg, and Millersburg. The bridge at Dauphin and the work between Millersburg and Sunbury are reserved for a future letting.

The Kansas Rebellion. Truth, like Justice, is accustomed to limp a little, and especially since the invention of the telegraph—is often outstripped by falsehood.

On Monday a man named William Miller had a hearing in Williamsport on a charge of larceny of a silver watch and $51, the property of John Riley, of Jersey Shore.

Christmas and New Year's. PRESENTS—a fine assortment of Gift Books, Albums, Portfolios, etc.

"The Good Time Coming." BY T. S. ARTHUR. Those who wish to be hearing of that long-expected day, should read this book.

Lewisburg, Center, and Spruce Creek Railroad Meeting. AT AARONSBURG, Friday, 28th Dec. 1855. LARGE ATTENDANCE along the line—48s expected.

On Monday a man named William Miller had a hearing in Williamsport on a charge of larceny of a silver watch and $51, the property of John Riley, of Jersey Shore. A watch, said to be the stolen one, and $16 were found. Committed in default of bail.

On Tuesday, Jos. Phillips and two other men had a hearing in Williamsport charged with "mauling" Jacob Metzgar. Put in limbo in default of bail.

Morrow, of Williamsport, charged with assault and battery upon John Coffin, is held to answer in $100 bail. A Dutchman and an Irishman in the "Everlasting State" fought about some wood; Myahoeer thrashed Pat, and posted off with the combustible. Prof. Hill, assisted by other musicians, gave a second concert in Williamsport last Saturday evening.

On Wednesday night of last week, ice formed thick enough for the Williamsport boys to skate on. The losses sustained by the Locomotive Insurance Company for quarter ending Dec. 10, amounted to $37,847 52.

NORTHUMBERLAND.—Some 164 share holders of the Centre Turpentine Company, have sums varying from $5 25 to $130 in the hands of John Taggart, Treasurer. An oyster supper at the Old Fellows' Hall, Milton, 24th inst., for the benefit of the Presbyterial Church.

The disturbance, it now appears, was begun by the shooting in cold blood of a young man named Dow by one Coleman at Hickory Point, a place twelve miles south of Lawrence. The young man having got into some altercation with a party of border ruffians at a blacksmith's shop, left them, when the opportunity was taken by Coleman to shoot him in the back. The murderer fled to Leecompton and put himself under the protection of Gov. Shannon, probably with the lie in his mouth.

COLUMBIA.—Court last week, closed on Friday, and Grand Jury discharged on Tuesday. An Agricultural Society was formed. BRADFORD.—The first boat load of coal from Scranton via Elmira reached Towanda last week. It cost twice what it will when the Wyoming fields are accessible.

While raising a frame building at Towanda, a "bent" fell, injuring five men more or less, but it is hoped none fatally. Linwood is a new post office, above Montreat; Samuel C. Nagler, P. M.

BLAIR.—The Lottery chap paid the Standard's bill after his brief complimentary notice. All right now!

The Know Nothings were defeated at the municipal election in Boston, Lowell, Worcester, and Newburyport, this week.

M'Crea has had granted him the benefit of a change of his place of trial to another county.

The population of New York State is ascertained to be 3,465,418. The City, 629,810. Massachusetts has a population of 1,132,259. Boston 169,508.

The Teachers of Buffalo & East Buffalo Townships, are respectfully invited to meet at the Buffalo X Roads for the purpose of organizing a Township Institute, on the 22nd of December ensuing. Lectures, for the evening's entertainment, will be prepared, to which the public are invited to attend. To open at 10 o'clock A. M.

"A FRIEND" requests us to call attention to the wants of Mr. Daniel Arund and family, who have suffered much from sickness and death, and he still unable to work. He suggests Saturday 22d inst as a suitable day for all disposed to advance something for their relief. Residence N. 4th St, above St. Anthony's.

Rev. Thomas Bowman will preach for the Lewisburg Methodist Church, on Sunday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Officers of the Union County Agricultural Society will meet at 1, P. M, Tuesday of Court week, at the Office of J. A. Mertz, Esq, Lewisburg.

REYNOLDS & M'FADDEN. The Hardware Business will be continued at the old Graham stand by the subscriber, who is thankful for past favors, and hopes by strict attention to receive a fair share of public patronage. Give him a call and see for yourselves. JOSEPH M'FADDEN. Lewisburg, Nov. 28, 1855.
