The project started some months since of constructing a tannel under the British Channel between Dover and Boulogne, a distance of 181 miles, has been pronounced entirely feasible by M. Favre, a French engineer who a few weeks ago completed the survey. The estimated cost is 2,000-009. The following is a description of the plan of the tunnel:

The distance between the top of the arch of the tunnel and the water will never be less than 271 yards, so that all danger of the ocean breaking through will be avoided by this enormous thickness of what may be called the wall of the tunnel. This tunnel will be lined with a double arch, and the first of granite and of impermeable cement, and the second of thin iron plates, pierced like a collander with small holes. so that the slightest leakage will be instant-

Through this tunnel it is intended that present the first day and secure them. an atmospheric railroad shall be establishwhich the transit from end to end will be performed in twenty-five minutes, and all the terrible sea-sickness so awful to the continent-seeking cockney entirely avoid-

The natural objection that arises to the stone quarried out of the bowels of the subterranean chamber. In the ordinary course of engineering, every barrow load FURNISHING GOODS, also bor as to add enormously to the expenses. which will divide this subterranean gallery into sections of about eleven thousand yards each in length. By these wells, all the encumbering earth will be thrown into the sea, forming islands about the wells themselves, and strengthening them. These wells serve the purpose of ventilating the tunnel.

THE PLAINS.

The idea generally entertained that the immense arid plains laying between the Mississippi and Rocky Mountains must forever remain unsettled and uncultivated on account of the scarcity of water and fuel, is likely to undergo a change. Scientilic men are now exploring these plains or prairies, and, from the little we hear of their researches, the prospect appears good that an abundance of coal and water can be obtained at a small outlay of money and labor. Successful experiments have been made in testing the practicability of boring artesian wells, and the result is most satisfactory. In one instance, near the Pecos river, about the thirty-second parallel, at the depth of six hundred and fifty feet the greatest abundance of perfectly pure water was obtained. Besides this, the operation developed the existence of coal beds, easily accessible, and as far as the experiments have progressed, evidently underlaying the whole of that immense country.

The importance of these discoveries which have been under the direction of the government, can hardly be overrated .-With abundance of water and abundance of fuel easily obtainable, there is no reason why these vast regions may not become the seat of a thriving population. Of the patents for inventions issued by the United States government, down to the beginning of the present year, 21 were for air engines, 148 for steam boilers, 42 for modes of manufacturing India rubber goods, and 60 for sewing machines. Washing machines modestly claim 309 patents; water wheels 327; grain and grass harvesters 111; plows 371; straw cutters 153; meat machines 140; winnowing machines 163; threshing machines 378. For stoves, 682 patents have been issued, exclusive of 478 for designs.

A Complete Cure for Ague!

THE very extensive prevailing condi-I tion of this disease, and the fact that it is not known to the public that the undersigned is able to CURE AGUE, has induced him to make known to the public that he uses a pre-paration in use by no less than 2,000 Ameritive Wine Bitters. This preparation acts on the Liver, Spleen, Stomach, Kidneys, indeed on the whole system, and brings it into a healthy and vigorous condition. Now when the whole system is brought into a perfect state of health, it is impossible for Ague to occur, which generally attacks the feeble, or those whose constitution has been broken by some cause. This can generally be done by our Restorative, and almost every case completely cured. Of course no disease can be cured that a man may not take it again, but we mean cured and brought into the same healthy condition as one that never had this disease, cured for this season if the person observes the faws N. Lightning Rods. A FTER many years' close investigation and numerous experiments, the Patentee takes pleasure in informing the public that he has arrived at the true principle of protecting families, dwellings and property from the destructive influence of LIGHTNING. The calamities that every City, Town, Village and Country falls victim to annually, thro the gross negligence of its inhabitants, is beyond calculation, especially when the remedy is so easy to obtain-this is

Patent Magnetic Lightning Hods, and in this alone. This Rod has been examined by the most scientific gentlemen in the world— Professors M'Murtrie, Johnson, Wallor and many others that have examined them, recommend and speak of them in the highest terms of approbation, and have pronounced them the only safe rods ic use in this or may other country for the protecti of Lives and Property. One advantage is to divide and throwback a part of the electric fluid harmlese to the clouds; in time of a stroke this enables the rod to conduct that portion of fluid that belongs to the earth without the slightest danger of leaving the conductor. This rod has many other advantages over the old one. The only place of manufacturing is in Vine St. 3 doors above 12th, Philadelphia, where all persons are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale Wholesale
