The Eloquence of Honest Principle.

[Caleb Cushing, formerly a Whig Member of Congress from Massachusetts, but now President Pierce's Attorney General, delivered a withering reply to Henry A. Wise, then also a Whig Member of Congress from Virginia, but now Democratic Governor of the Old Dominion, who threatened that the "South would yet introduce Slavery into the heart of the North." We ex a t the following paragraph from that reply as a specimen of true eloquence :]

"It is not possible for me to judge whether the gentlemen from Virginia, and any of his friends or fellow-citizens at the South, deliberately and soberly cherish the extraordinary purpose which his lanlanguage implied. I trust it was but a hasty thought, struck out in the ardor of delate Ta introduce slavery into the LEWISBURG, Pa [Jan 17, 1856-11w heart of the North ? Vain idea ! Invasion, postilence, civil war, may conspire to exterminate the eight millions of free spirits who now dwell there. This, in the to happen. You may raze to the earth the shall apply to said Company for a new Certithronged cities, the industrious villages, the peaceful hamlets of the North.
