Thanks to Messrs. Gregg, Struble, and Slifer, for Harrisburg favors.

DEEP SNOW IN WESTERN N.Y.—Buffalo (N. Y.) papers say, that between that city and Tonawanda the drifts are very heavy, and travel much impeded.

Two-penny "Art Unions" are now quite prevalent in some sections where the Lottery Law is not enforced, and a good many fools are robbed and some knaves enriched thereby.

Antoinette L. Brown, the lady preacher, has married a Mr. Blackwell (said to be a brother to Lucy Stone's husband) since Leap Year came.

Some prospects of a thaw at present.

They have, we observe, a bill pending in the Virginia Legislature "to allow one Thomas Jones, a free colored man of Culpeper county, to enslave himself." This is all very well, if Thomas Jones desires it; but we think the Legislature ought, in fairness, to add another section, allowing all colored persons now held in Culpeper county as slaves, and who may desire it, to emancipate themselves. This would be to hold the balance even, and to do the fair thing. Certainly a man's desire for liberty are as much entitled to be gratified as his desire to be made a slave.—Tribune

A COMPROMISE REPEATED.—A resolution asserting that the Missouri compromise ought not to have been submitted to, even to save the Union, has passed the popular branch of the Alabama Legislature, by a vote of 62 to 26. The author of the resolution is the son of a United States Senator, who represented Alabama when the compromise was passed in 1820, and who voted for it.

LEWISTOWN.—The family of Mr. Snyder here was complaining for some time of feeling unwell, and on finally sending for Dr. Vanvalzah, he discovered that some apple butter, procured in one of the counties below, had been poisoned by the crooks into which it had been put. A Son of J. L. McElvaine, Esq., of this place, died very suddenly on Sunday last, an old complaint in his leg, which it had been thought was well, having mortified.—Gaz.

NEWS FROM KANSAS.—We have advices from Kansas stating that no election was held at Leavenworth, or at other points in that Territory, on the day next for the election, the State officers fearing violence from the Missourians. Letters state that another general invasion was apprehended, and that extensive warlike preparations were going on in Lawrence and Topeka.

THE PENNA PRESS.—Those who sneer at the popular price of the cheap papers, should recollect that the first newspaper was issued monthly in MS. form, in the republic of Venice, and was called the Gazzetta, from a farthing coin peculiar to Venice, and which was the common price at which it was sold. Thirty volumes of it are still preserved in a library at Florence.

COLLEGE FRACAS.—One hundred of the students at Dickinson College have rebelled against the Faculty in consequence of the alleged unjust expulsion of four members. Go to your studies again, boys! These things are all nonsense. You think the faculty are foolish, while they know you to be so.

A POWERFUL DOG.—The Chicago (Ill.) Journal of the 28th ult., says: Mr. Price of the firm of Price & Fisher, arrived to-day from Green Bay, in a novel turn out. He drove the entire distance in a light sleigh drawn by a single dog, averaging thirty miles a day.

The new house of worship of the Methodist Church in Newberry, Lycoming Co., will be dedicated Sunday next.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 5.—The Southern mail brings some of the back New Orleans papers, containing Texas dates, which give accounts of the severe cold in Texas. Numbers of cattle have perished from the cold, the thermometer having been below zero for several days. The Brazos river is frozen over, and has been crossed on horseback and by vehicles.

The New York Times and Tribune concur in stating that the use of wine and intoxicating liquors is growing out of use among the fashionable of that city. In the State the Judges are coming out more strongly to enforce the Prohibitory Law, and there is no prospect of its repeal by the Legislature.

The Penn. Supreme Court decided against the City of Erie in the case of the Western Railroad, and in its favor in regard to the other Road. An appeal will be taken to the U. S. Supreme Court.
