The Rowdy's Song of Life.

Shun the dull ways of moral men,
Curse all th se old Commandments Ten
Whose praises oft are sung,
Learn not the use of mind or pen,
But go-it while you're young.

Attend horse races, bet and treat,
Upbraid each honest man you meet,
And though oy conscience stung
Swear that good liquor's hard to beat,
And go-it while you're young.

Heap sorrow on your aged sire,
In whom misfortune's grief most dire
Hath every nerve unstrung,
Go thou a-head and never tire,
Yes, go-it while you're young.

Let mother strive your soul to save,
Make sister unto grief a slave,
Their hearts with anguish wrung,
Then tumble in a drunkard's grave—
Be a gone-er while you're young!

Anecdotes.

Father M'Iver was one of the worthiest of the Presbyterian clergymen in the South, but, like his ancestors, very much set in his own way. He came from the Scotch, and it was one of his forefathers who prayed at the opening of one of their ecclesiastical courts, "O Lord, grant that we may be right, for thou knowest we are very decided." So with Father M'Iver, he was very decided; but it was not of this trait in his character that our correspondent writes, who says of him:

"Sometimes he was remarkably absent minded, and the apostolic benediction which he used in dismissing the congregation, he would pronounce when sitting down to table instead of the customary blessing.

"Once he went into his garden just as the beans were coming up, and was surprised to see the old bean on the top of the young stems. Forgetting for the moment that this was the way in which he had always seen them coming up, he took his hoe, and for two hours worked away most diligently among them. His wife now made her appearance, and astonished, as she well might be at his work, exclaimed:

"'My dear Mr. Mac, what on earth are you doing?'

"'Why, you see, wife,' he replied very innocently, 'the beans have all come up bottom upward, and I was setting them right again!'

"When he was stated clerk of the Fayetteville Presbytery, and he was calling the roll at the opening of the meeting, he came to his own name, and called it out louder and louder three times. Receiving no answer, and not once thinking of himself as the person, he marked his own name, and recorded himself among the absentees."

The same North Carolina correspondent tells a very good story which has been related, however, long before his day, of others besides Uncle Hector; but he tells it so well it must be repeated.

"Uncle Hector was famous for having the largest nose in all Cape Fear region. He could not help that, though, but unfortunately his habits gave it a bright, rosy color, which, with a size, made it a natural and artificial curiosity. One night he retired to rest after indulging pretty freely all the evening, and waking up in the course of the night with a raging thirst, he rose and set off for something to drink. It was pitch dark, and for fear he would pitch against the door of his room, which was usually left standing open, he groped along, took the door directly between his hands, and received the edge of it full tilt against the end of his nose. It knocked him over backward, and he screamed out with an oath and agony:

"'Well, I always knew I had a big nose, but I never thought it was longer than my arm before.'"

SHARP CORRESPONDENCE.—One of the Peter Funk "Gift-Enterprise" firms in a large city, sent a package of tickets to a post master in Maine, the postage upon which was fifteen cents unpaid. They got the following hard rap over the knuckles, from the indignant official:

"I herewith return your tickets. You must be fools as well as knaves, to suppose that I will aid you in swindling my neighbors, and pay all the expense myself."

To which he in a few days received the annexed "settler:"

"SIR—We perhaps owe you an apology for sending the parcel postage unpaid. As we infer from the phraseology of your note, that you are willing to swindle your neighbors if we pay all the expenses, please give us your lowest terms on which you will act as our agent.

"P. S.—All communications shall be strictly confidential."

This note was promptly returned, with the following endorsement across its face, by the post master:

"It seems you are not only fools and knaves, but blackguards also. Ask my neighbors if they think I would 'swindle' them either at my own expense or that of any one else."

To which this answer came back by next mail:

"We have inquired of your neighbors long ago, and that is the reason we applied to you in the first instance."

Here follows the post master's final reply:

"I acknowledge the corn. Send us your street and number, so that I can call upon you when I come to the city, and I may conclude to aid your Enterprise."

But that was the last thing that the "Gift" gentleman could think of doing. In fact, secrecy as to his locality, was quite essential in keeping out of the clutches of the police.

☞The Hartford (Ct.) Courant says that the Hartford Bank, a day or two since, redeemed a two dollar bill that had been in circulation for fifty-two years. Is not that a reasonably good circulation? Who would not issue bills if they could have fifty years to get ready to pay?

GUTTA PERCHA

For Artificial Teeth.... Having purchased the right to use Dr N. B. Slayton's "Colored Gutta Percha" as a base for artificial teeth, I am prepared to insert sets by this process.

Some of the advantages Gutta Percha has over gold or any other metal, are, the certainty of an accurate fit, flexibility without danger of destroying the fit, it is softer and much more congenial to the mouth, therefore less liable to make it sore; it is altogether unaffected by secretions of the mouth, (it has been subjected to the test of powerful acids;) and the natural contour of the gum can be more perfectly imitated than by any other process.

Any one wishing it can have a set inserted, and not liking them can have them exchanged for a set on gold.

Dentists residing in Union and Snyder counties, can receive instruction and Office Rights on reasonable terms.

Great Fire at Chestnut & Fifth Sts., Friday morning, Dec. 15th, 1854—EVANS & WATSON'S SALAMANDER SAFE'S TRIUMPHANT, as they always are when put to the test:

"PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15, 1854.
Messrs. Evans & Watson No. 29 South Fourth St.
Gentlemen—We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to Merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers &c. from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chestnut and Fifth streets. The above safe was in use in our office on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The Safe was then removed and opened in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who witnessed the good condition of its contents. Will you please have the Safe and Locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire-proof qualities.
Yours, respectfully,
LACEY & PHILLIPS."

The subscribers are the sole manufacturers and proprietors in this State of the above unequalled Safes and Locks. The reputation of the genuine "Herring's Safe" is world wide, and for the last thirteen years the mercantile community have witnessed and borne testimony to their NEVER FAILING fire proof qualities. The public are assured that all Safes manufactured by the subscribers are not only guaranteed to be fully equal, but in many respects even superior to those which have been so severely tried by fire. Few will forget their services in the burning of the "Tribune establishment," New York, and at the Great Fire in Strawberry street, at the large fire last July, opposite the Girard House; and still more recently in the Fire at Fifth and Chesnut Sts., in this city, in which these Safes came forth the acknowledged CHAMPION, when many other securities failed. Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

HELMBOLD'S Highly Concentrated Compound Fluid Extract of BUCHU, for Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Secret Diseases, Strictures, Weakness, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of Quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with glaring falsehoods too well calculated to deceive the young and those not acquainted with their tricks. You can not be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

The Fluid Extract of Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the Greatest Remedy ever known. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous secretions of this dreadful disease, and unlike other remedies, it does not dry up the disease in the blood. Constitutional Debility, brought on by self-abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious ambition of many a noble youth, can be cured by this Infallible Remedy. And as a medicine which must benefit every body, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, acting both as a Cure and Preventive.

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from an excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished Physicians in the country, and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary Syphilis, Mercurial and Scrofulous diseases have entirely recovered in the incurable wards of our Public Institutions which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be devised. These cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases, after the glands were destroyed and the bones already affected.

NOTICE—Letters from responsible Physicians of several Medical Colleges, and certificates of cures from patients will be found accompanying both Preparations.

PRICES.—Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5. Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla, $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5, equal in strength to one gallon Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

Prepared and Sold by H. T. HELMBOLD, Chemist, 263 Chestnut St., near the Girard House, Philadelphia.

Sold by all CHRIST & CALDWELL, Lewisburg, and of Druggists and Dealers everywhere.
