FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 14, 1856

ADVERTISERS—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers in Ohio and Kentucky, Publishers, &c., will find it to their advantage to send their advertisements to the Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation, and is read by a large and influential class of readers, and is published at the lowest rate for the kind.

See New Advertisements.

On our first page, will be found an extended notice of the proposed Teachers'

Institute. Occupying nearly two weeks, it will doubtless be of more advantage than a dozen hurried sessions of two or three days each.

Prof. Sweet's lecture, on Monday, was attended by a crowded audience, among them two gentlemen who came from Lau-reton for the sole purpose of hearing.

The Lecture was interesting and instructive —but too long. Prof. Walker followed with a few pertinent remarks; when, on motion, the citizens present expressed a unanimous approval of the proposed Institute, and concurrence with the action of the Lewisburg Committee.

So they go.—It seems but a few days since we heard TOM GALBRAITH, then a pupil of Lewisburg University, declaim in grand style a speech of Tom Corwin's. A St. Paul's Daily Times before us, shows that in the Minnesota Legislature—

Pennsylvania Legislature.

Mr. Zimmerman read in place a bill to provide for the completion of the Sugar

Valley & White Deer Turnpike.

Mr. Strouse read in place a bill for a change in the place of holding elections for West Buffalo Township.

The Senate amendments to the House bill repealing the Restraining Liquor Law, were amended in the House by allowing more facilities for the sale of liquors, and then sent back to the Senate. The Senate appointed Messrs. Browne, Jordan and Wherry, and the House appointed Wright of Luz, Geiz, and Huneecker, Committee of Conference.

The bill to incorporate the Bank of Stroudsburg (in Monroe—the strongest Democratic county in the State) passed in Senate.

The bill for the erection of piers in Buffalo creek, passed Senate finally.

The Democratic Platform.

We notice that a number of our Democratic contemporaries do not spread before their readers the resolutions of the recent State Convention at Harrisburg. They are very long, it is true; but they surely could find room for the two following, as they express the Democratic (so-called) doctrine on the Great Question of the day:

Resolved, That in the repeal of the act known as the Masses compromise act, and the passage of the act organizing the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska, free from unconstitutional restrictions, the last Congress

PERFORMED A WORK OF PATRIOTIC SACRIFICE IN the discharge of its solemn and sacred duty, and that the people of the United States should ever cherish its memory as one of the noblest in the history of the Republic.

Resolved, That we fully endorse the administration of President Pierce as NATIONAL, FAITHFUL, AND RE-PUBLICAN—fully equal to all the important emergencies which the country has had to encounter, and that he has worthily maintained his integrity and honor at home and abroad.

Resolved, That we have been laboring in the discharge of our duty, and we are well acquainted with the circumstances of the case, and we are confident that the members of the church and congregation, who are united in their views, will render it necessary to enlarge and improve their house of worship, which has left them with a heavy debt. And as the coal business has been unusually full, and the means of living as high as of higher than in Philadelphia, the laboring classes have been obliged to tax to the utmost all their resources to obtain a subsistence for themselves and families. If under these circumstances our good people are disposed to extend a helping hand to their brethren, and to contribute to the support of a work which will be acceptable to God and useful to man, and which will not soon be forgotten. It is true twenty five cents is a small amount, but a good many twenty-fives will assist materially to liquidate the debt now resting upon the church, and besides you may rest assured the music will far more than compensate you for your walk and money.

TRUTH.—The Evangelical Messenger is the organ of the Albright Methodists, and edited by JOHN DREIBACH, formerly a Democratic Member of the Legislature from Union Co., Pa. Speaking of Pres.

Pierce's proclamation respecting Kansas, the Messenger says:

"If there shall prove to be no one-sidedness in the contemplated action, it will all be very well; but if the power of the United States is to be invoked to keep in countenance Atchison and his gang of depraved, a storm will be raised beyond the ability of any administration to control."

Rev. B. F. HALL will preach in the Methodist chapel, Lewisburg, Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock. Prof. WALKER will preach in the Christian Chapel at the same hour.

Messrs. ESTONS.—In common with myself and other inhabitants of our favored borough, you notice with pleasure our educational privileges. In attending the examination of Mr.

Thompson's scholars, last week, the parents and friends who met in her private schoolroom had gratifying evidence of the competency of the Teacher, and of the perseverance and success with which she had discharged her duties. The accuracy with which in the general young ladies answered the numerous questions proposed, evinced their diligent and continued study of the higher as well as the lower branches of science pursued in this Institution. I notice that the daughters of a number of our most respectable families receive their academic training under the tuition of Mrs. Thompson. The Bible is a text-book in her school, and the voice of the Holy Spirit with the opening of each day's exercises. May this Seminary be conducted with the wisdom which cometh from above—and may it be prospered to subvert the good of all who partake of its advantages. A PARENT.

isburg and vicinity will not forget the Concert evening of the 18th, for the benefit of the Sha-mkokin church. As we have been laboring in
