To the Patrons of the "American Plag.

In disposing of the "FLAG" Office last fall, I secured, as I thought, the continuance of the publication of the vi FLAG, by binding the purchaser, in the agreement, to continue its publication. and furnish the subscribers who had paid in advance with the paper until such subscription should have expired ; but unfortunately, the new Editor turned out to be an irresponsible man, which fact he made evident by selling out the office without making any arrangement for the foliilment of his contract, pocketing the change, and leaving the agreement unfolfilledtherefore, for the purpose of securing from imposition those who paid their subscription to the FLAG in advance, I have made arrangements with the Editors and Proprietors of the "Lew-IFBURG CHRONICLE," to furnish said subscribers of the FLAG, who had paid in advance, with the Curoxicue, until such time for which they had subscrihed shall expire. The CHRONICLE is a sound Anti-Nebraska, Anti-Pierce organ, and is favorable to Americanism; and as it is the leading Paper of the County, I would recommend it to the former readers of the Flac

To the "Flag" Patrons.

As announced above the Publishers of the CHRONICLE offer to supply you with their sheet, long enough to fill up the balance due from the FLAG to you, as stated in a list furnished with the foregoing. That paper was-like ours-a Miscellaneous and Family News journal, independent and free; a lover of American honor, and of everything American that is RIGHT : but not blind to merit and worth in any person or nation, and not inclined to the extreme and unjust measures which have unnecessarily prejudiced the cause with some. The location of the CHRONICLE at the county seat, is a decided advantage as a news and business medium : while the superior

The Legislature has at length settled the license question. The bill reported by the Committee of Conference was adopted on Saturday, by both houses. This bill is on Saturday, by both houses. This bill is a very stringent one, and requires that the applicant for a license in cities and county towns must have four rooms and eight beds for the use of travellers. None but tavernkeepers can sell less than a gallent of spirituous liquors. Not more than one hotel to every one hundred taxables may be licensed in the cities, nor more than beds for the use of travellers. None but one to every hundred and fifty taxables in the county, to be apportioned among the wards of the cities, and districts of the counties, as the convenience and necessities of the public may require. All hotels, inus and taverns are to be classified and rated according to the estimated yearly rental of the house and property. The first class, when the valuation is $10,000, shall pay $1000; where the valuation is $8,000, the rate shall be $500, and so on down, in the same proportion, to $25, except in Philadelphia, where the lowest rate of hotel license is fixed at $75; in county towns and boroughs of over two hundred taxables, $50; in the country, $25.
