THE MISSING SHIP.

"No news from the missing ship."
With her precious freight of lives,
Though on the watch for tidings
Are husbands, lovers, wives!
The nation's mind is troubled
To learn the vessel's fate:
Safe haven may she find at last
With her thrice precious freight!

The sea is a mighty mistress
In this dread world of ours,
Roaring in polar regions,
Or building coral bowers,
Within her grand, old chambers,
What treasurers lie concealed!
The conquering fleets of Carthage,
And hosts with spear and shield.

"No news from the missing ship!"
Has she struck on frozen shores?
Or, by an iceberg shattered,
Sought port in the far Azores?
Or anchorage, for ever,
In ocean has she found—
Vast tomb, where hope lies buried,
And royalty discrowned!

The winds we have questioned, often,
That lands and wilds blow;
They only moan and whistle,
But say not yes, nor no!
When will the missing steamer
Approach our coast again?
Give answer, blast of midnight—
Give answer, roaring main!

Prayers, for her safety, nightly,
Rose from a million lips;
A gleamer of hope remains
That should not know eclipse.
Yet may the signal gun give token
That she is under way,
With her precious freight of human lives,
And moving up the Bay.

The K. N. Elephant.

[The Albany State Register—the leading American paper in New York—continues its slashing at the Silver Grays and their candidate. In its Saturday's issue we find the following:]

"Everybody remembers the story of the man who bought an elephant at auction because it was going cheap. After the animal was "knocked down" to him, and he had paid the price, and taken him home, he began to be troubled as to what he would do with him. He could not carry him around as a show; he could not get him boarded; he had no place to keep him; he could find nobody who wanted to purchase him, and, at last, he could not even give him away. It is in this position that the Silver Gray gentleman find themselves, who procured the nomination of their leader at Philadelphia. They have got their elephant on hand, and they got him cheap enough. It was only necessary to league with Slavery: that was all the price necessary to be paid for him, and that, to them, was a small sacrifice, a mere nominal thing. But the question is, what are they to do with their elephant? They first offered him to Massachusetts, but she will have nothing to do with him. They offered him to Rhode Island, but she declines taking him. Not a New England State will buy, hire, or board him—Pennsylvania or Ohio will not take him; no Western State will have him, and there they are with their animal, crying him in the market—Who wants the elephant? Will some State answer? Who will buy him? Who hire him? Who board him? Who take him as a gift?"

One good result of the constitutional amendment requiring all electors to read the Constitution and the statutes, has manifested itself in a town not far from New Haven, where the Democrats have opened a school to teach a number of Irishmen to read—not from any conviction of the intrinsic value of an education, but so that they may be able to vote the Democratic ticket. We are thankful that even bad intentions may work out useful purposes. —New Haven Journal.

The Princeton Press says that two gentlemen, while crossing the fields near Rocky Hill, N. J., last week, came in contact with an animal which at first they supposed to be a calf. When they approached it closely it set up a growl, that convinced them of danger, and they beat a very hasty retreat. One of the gentlemen, who had seen "baars" in California, is certain that this is "one of 'em."

DANGEROUS CUT.—We find in a Southern Anti-American paper, a wood engraving, representing Sam as walking off with a brandy bottle in his hand. The Anti-Americans are very imprudent, says the Louisville Journal, to represent him thus. They will have all their own fellows running after him.

HARD TO SWALLOW.—Major Donelson is called "the greasy Tennessean," by his friend, Parson Brownlow. Greasy as he is, (says the New Albany Ledger,) a good many know-nothings find it very hard to swallow him.

☞A man who don't take a newspaper, is not only poor, but will always remain so. The less men know the less they earn. Folks who labor for fifty cents a day, always sign their name with an X.

Some impudent bolting American says that Donelson is a capital exemplification of the doctrine that "Americans must rule America," as he rules at least 100 native American working men on his plantation.

The deepest waters are the most silent; empty vessels make the greatest sound, and tinkling symbals the worst music. They who think least, commonly speak most.

The boy that is whipped too much, and the boy that is whipped too little, are both equally bad. The one is spoiled with raw hides—the other with lollypops.

A quack medicine vender advertises a poultice to draw out men's virtues. Their vices need nothing to bring them forth—they come in the "natural way."

Self-love is the safest of all love—for the most people can indulge in it without fear of a rival.

M. H. Dersham, M. D.,

HAVING permanently located in Lewisburg, Pa., respectfully tenders his Professional Services to the citizens of this town and vicinity, hoping by prompt attention to the duties of his profession to merit a share of their patronage. Attention will also be paid to Chronic Diseases of every name, and treated with unparalleled success.

DR. DERSHAM graduated at the renowned American Electic Medical College Cincinnati, having first studied the Old or Allopathic system of medicine, and attended Lectures in one of the Old School Medical Colleges of Philadelphia; but becoming convinced of the superiority of the New or American Eclectic system, he commenced its study, and attended two courses of Lectures in the Reformed or American Eclectic Medical College of the Queen City of the West. This Institution, although yet in its infancy, has no superior in the Great West, and has already annually more Students than the four other Medical Colleges of Cincinnati combined. It is sending graduates to all parts of our globe, and in Ohio, Indiana, &c., they will soon be more numerous than any other class of physicians.

The principal difference between the Reformed (new or Eclectic, and the old Allopathic system of medicine, is this: the New School uses no medicinal agent that is in any way injurious to the human system, such as Calomel, Arsenic, Antimony, &c.; for superior and harmless agents have of late years been discovered, (by the more liberal and progressive physicians of the New school,) that are capable substitutes for those deleterious medicines (Calomel, &c.) therefore we have no need for them. With these valuable new agents, and all those of the old or Allopathic school except the few poisons mentioned above, and all the improvements of every other sect, in of medicine, (as the Homœopathic, Hydropathic, Thomsonian, &c.) many diseases are now curable that were once considered incurable, and that too without breaking down the constitution, and creating other diseases, as debility, rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Ulcerated Sore Throat, Diseased Bones, premature Loss of Teeth, &c.

The New School certainly claims a great superiority in the treatment of all diseases. It has been proved by Clinical reports that the mortalities—taking all diseases together—is less than 2 per cent: that of Asiatic Cholera is only 5 per cent.

This is an age of progress and improvements, and the New School is always progressing, not being bound down by despotic creeds and antiquated theories.

FIVE SILVER MEDALS awarded, viz. Two by the American Institute, New York, one by the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, one by the Maryland Institute, Baltimore. Nov. 1, 1855

SALAMANDER SAFES!

EVANS & WATSON, No. 246 South Fourth St., Philadelphia.

Great Fire at Chesnut & Fifth Sts., Friday morning, Dec. 16th, 1854—EVANS & WATSON'S SALAMANDER SAFES TRIUMPHANT, as they always are when put to the test:

"PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15, 1854.

Messrs. Evans & Watson No. 246 South Fourth St.

Gentlemen—We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to Merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers &c. from fire, as the one we purchased from you about seven months since has preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings corner of Chesnut and Fifth streets. The above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The Safe was then removed and opened in the presence of at least 1000 persons, who witnessed the good condition of its contents. Will you please have the Safe and Locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire-proof qualities.

Yours, respectfully,

LACEY & PHILLIPS."

Evans & Watson take pleasure in referring to the following, among the many hundreds who have their Safes to use: U. S. Mint, Philada.; Farmers' & Mechanics' Bank, Philada.; Samuel Allen, Esq., High Sheriff, Philada.; John N. Henderson, City Controller; Caleb Cope & Co., No. 183 Market St.; Richard Norris & Son, Locomotive builders, Philada.; Bancroft & Sellers, Machinists, corner 16th and James Sts.; Franklin Fire Insurance Co., Philada.; Pennsylvania Railroad Co., Philada.; Lacey & Phillips, corner 5th and Minor Sts.; Sharpless & Bro., No. 32 South Second St.; James, Kent & Santee, No. 147 North Third St.; W. Patent Champion Fire-Proof SAFES, with Hall's Patent Powder-Proof Locks, which were awarded separate Medals at the World's Fair, London, 1851, and also at the World's Fair, New York, 1853 and 1854. The subscribers are the sole manufacturers and proprietors in this State of the above unequalled Safes and Locks. The reputation of the genuine "Herring's Safe" is world wide, and for the last thirteen years the mercantile community have witnessed and borne testimony to their NEVER FAILING fire proof qualities. More than 12,000 of these Safes have been actually sold and over two hundred have passed triumphantly through accidental fires. The public are assured that all Safes manufactured by the subscribers are not only guaranteed to be fully equal, but in many respects even superior to those which have been so severely tried by fire. Few will forget their severe ordeal in the burning of the "Tribune establishment," New York, and at the Great Fire in Strawberry street, at the large fire last July, opposite the Girard House; and still more recently in the Fire at Fifth and Chesnut Sts., in this city, in which these Safes came forth the acknowledged CHAMPIONS, when many other securities failed.
