More Liquor Bills. The Democratic majority in the House—incited by the demands of the Liquor League—pushed through that body, by a majority, two bills—one to release the sureties of the licensed from paying any more of the $1000 bond than to cover fine, penalty and costs. The other to require the licensing of beer houses, without limit, in Philadelphia, Allegheny, Berks, Lancaster, Northampton, Pike, Montgomery, Carbon, and Monroe. Richard Vaux, Dem. candidate for Mayor of Philad., spent two or three days in engineering the latter through the House. When it came to the Senate, Hon. Wm. M. Pratt, the Speaker, indignantly denounced this last demand of the Liquor League, in the following terms: "I supposed, Mr. Chairman, that when we passed the bill, to which this is a supplement, and that too, by an almost unanimous vote, there should be an end of the irritating and exciting subject of it, at least for the present session. But it seems not. For the last three years, the question of the sale of intoxicating liquors has been agitated all over the State—from one end of this Commonwealth to the other, at this late period of the session—when we are on the verge of final adjournment—this bill has been pressed upon our attention, on the plea that it is absolutely necessary these counties should be relieved from the operation of the bill passed by us a few days since. Sir, it is agreed on all sides that it is imperiously necessary that some relief should be afforded to some sections of this Commonwealth. And for what? It has been asserted, that unless this measure shall be carried, certain Senators who voted for the bill, that it becomes necessary to sustain the Democratic party. Sir, it has been asserted—I repeat—that certain Senators are to be proscribed; that, upon this issue they are to be read out of the Democratic party, because they have thought proper to exercise their judgment and act in conformity to their conscientious convictions of right! Why, have I not a right to record my vote in favor of this measure, or rather, the bill upon which we all recorded a few days since, when the people of my part of the State gave a majority of 5000 in favor of it? Sir, I will not back down one foot, any, not even one inch, on this question. And if the Democratic party is to be trampled under foot, it has no basis but that of rum and liquor, sir. Sir, it is agreed on all sides, that it is a stain upon the name of a man, if he is above this miserable rum question, the advocates of which are endeavoring to control the people of this Commonwealth; and if you, sir, or any other Senator, chooses to record his vote against this shameful bill, he has a right to do so. And if it should be necessary, I will go outside of the Democratic party to let my voice against the traffic in rum. Sir, I repeat, it is a slander upon the Democratic party to intimate, or to say, it does not indicate the desires of a majority, decency, and respectability. If the Democratic party, on one or sustained outside of these rum shops, or filthy holes, I will, for one stand outside of it. But sir, I again asseverate, that the Democratic party is not to be sustained in that way. It is a stain upon its name, whether it comes from York, or from Philadelphia, or any other part of the Commonwealth; and the party had better, a thousand times, go down, than the glorious cause Temperance should be defeated."

The larger beer bill was defeated (in Senate) by the following vote: Yeas—Cresswell, Evans, Izraam, Lanbach, M. Clinck, Straub, Walton, Welsh, Wilkins & all Democrats. Nays—Browne, Crabb, Ferguson, Fincken, Gregg, Howe, Jamison, Jordan, Knox, Lewis, Mellinger, Pratt, Price, Sellers, Shuman, South, Taggart, Wherry, Pratt—19. The bill to reduce the $1000 bond was lost by the same vote, except that Beckley voted with the 9 in the affirmative. —This question has aroused a violent discussion in the Democratic ranks. The Liquor League allege that they bought the Democratic party last fall, conditioned that they should have Free Liquor—and with that bargain they gave them both branches of the Legislature, which has refused to grant their demands. The consequence was, the party could not agree upon a candidate for Speaker to hold over until next year, but the Temperance men "fused" and elected to that honorable station, Mr. Browne, the Champion of Temperance in that body, by the following vote: For Nathaniel B. Browne—Crabb, Ferguson, Fincken, Gregg, Howe, Jamison, Jordan, Knox, Lewis, Pratt, Price, Sellers, Shuman, South, Taggart, Wherry, Wilkins—11 Opp. 9 Dem. For Wm. Wilkins—Browne, Beckley, Cresswell, Evans, Izraam, Lanbach, M. Clinck, Straub, Walton, Welsh—9 Dem. For David Taggart—Fouey, Mellinger and Pratt—3 Opp. For Francis Jordan—Frazier, Opp. —And for the defeat of the Lager Bill, and the election of Mr. Browne, the Liquor League and Lager folk denounce the "traitorous" Democracy as strong as they did the Know Nothings last fall!

OSGEO is taking measures to be admitted into the Union. It is stated that the population now amounts to fifty thousand, "with more wealth than any other community with fifty thousand people on the globe. The Barstow party in Wisconsin—the same who got up false election returns to defeat Basford, and failed at last—have declared for Buchanan. The Missouri and Wisconsin false voters will go hand in hand. James C. Hand, the American nominee for Mayor of Philadelphia, having declined the nomination on account of private business, Hon. H. D. Moore, late M. C., is nominated in his stead. Some of the Republicans, and some of the Whigs have got up tickets, but the Americans will in this issue rally the mass of the opposition. The U. S. Supreme Court decided the Wheeling Bridge Case, adverse to the claim of Pennsylvania. New Haven, April 17.—The trial of the Walkemites, charged with murder, has resulted in a verdict of acquittal, on the ground of insanity. CINCINNATI, April 17.—A fire occurred at Nashville, on Sunday morning, destroying the Court House, Nashville Inn, and a number of stores, by which a loss of $185,000 has been sustained. Hugh Brawley, Esq. (father of J. Porter Brawley, Surveyor General) died last week in Crawford county, aged 70 years. BRADFORD, April 23.—The steamer Cambria for Liverpool, via Halifax, sailed at noon, with $500,000 in specie.

Michigan testifies for Kansas. WASHINGTON, April 8. HENRY WALDRON, of Michigan, is one of the youngest Members of the House of Representatives, small in person, not a lawyer, (I believe he is a miller), retiring in manner, now for the first time in public life, and has never attempted to address the House till today. The whole House listened in rapt attention. I will not attempt to follow his line of argument throughout, but confine myself to the precedent case of the admission of Michigan, as set forth by him to-day in behalf of Free Kansas. In 1835-'6, Michigan had outgrown her Territorial swaddling clothes, and was ripe for transformation into a State. But she had an unsettled Boundary dispute with Ohio, involving a strip of land on which the City of Toledo has since grown up; there had been serious collisions of jurisdiction, threatening others still more serious; and Congress resolved not to admit Michigan unless she would consent to quitclaim this disputed territory. On this condition being made known, a new but those who perpetrate such acts were to be affected by this war, we might look upon it with indifference, but happily this is not the case."

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Anti-Nebraska caucus met again to-night at the Capitol, Mr. Pennington in the Chair. Messrs. Hale, Pennington, and Harlan, appointed heretofore to nominate an Executive Committee, reported the following names, which were confirmed by the caucus: Messrs. Collamer and Wilson, of the Senate, and Messrs. Mass, Mott, Cayode, Dodd, and Norton, of the House. Mr. Galloway gave a favorable account of the state of public opinion in Ohio, whence he had recently returned. Consultations ensued as to passing thro' the House the bill admitting Kansas with the Topeka Constitution. The vote, it is supposed, will be close, if the House is full when the question is presented.

Collamer and Wilson, of the Senate, and Messrs. Mass, Mott, Cayode, Dodd, and Norton, of the House. Mr. Galloway gave a favorable account of the state of public opinion in Ohio, whence he had recently returned. Consultations ensued as to passing thro' the House the bill admitting Kansas with the Topeka Constitution. The vote, it is supposed, will be close, if the House is full when the question is presented.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Anti-Nebraska caucus met again to-night at the Capitol, Mr. Pennington in the Chair. Messrs. Hale, Pennington, and Harlan, appointed heretofore to nominate an Executive Committee, reported the following names, which were confirmed by the caucus: Messrs. Collamer and Wilson, of the Senate, and Messrs. Mass, Mott, Cayode, Dodd, and Norton, of the House. The Indian War in Oregon. WASHINGTON, April 17.—Among the official documents received from Oregon, is a letter from Joel Palmer, superintendent of Indian Affairs, who, confirming the statements of Gen. Curry, says the present difficulty in Southern Oregon is wholly attributable to the acts of the whites, adding, "I cannot but feel it to be our duty to adopt such measures as will tend to secure the lives of those Indians, and maintain the guarantees secured by treaty stipulations. The future will prove that this war has been forced upon these Indians against their will, and that too, by a set of reckless vagabonds for pecuniary and political objects, sanctioned by a numerous population, who regard the Treasury of the United States as a legitimate object of plunder. The Indians of that district have been driven to desperation by acts of cruelty against their people. Treaties have been violated, and acts of barbarity committed by those claiming to be citizens, that would disgrace the most barbarous nations of the earth. If none but those who perpetrate such acts were to be affected by this war, we might look upon it with indifference, but happily this is not the case."
