A characteristically assumptive lawyer in Baltimore, named DAVIS, has published a book, claiming that the Roman Catholics of Maryland, under Calvert, were the first to introduce Religious Freedom in America: and some thoughtless Protestants echo his claim! Putnam's Magazine for April proves, on the contrary, that Roger Williams, the first Baptist preacher in America, advocated "soul-liberty" before Calvert's colony was formed and in founding Rhode Island practiced the principle fully. But the claim for Calvert is fatile for the man; but the Company comprised Warted. enjoyed perfect religious freedom until af | will begin with ter the Revolution; whereas, Roger Williams, with a company wholly Protestants, before receiving any charter, allowed perfeet "soul-liberty" as a RIGHT of every man. What the true Catholic spirit of that day was, Canada, Louisiana, Mexico, and the other American colonies settled wholly by Catholics, show! What the real Catholies did when they had the poster, let the massacres, inquisitions and other memorials of Catholicism tell! How much Catholicism "tolerates," let the Catholic rovernments of our own day and age, testify !- Catholicism "tolerates" when she CAN NOT PREVENT: but give her the power and she is-just what she is in Spain, in Hopes—what are they? Stars, to guide us O'er life's dark and rugge! road, When the tempest howle around us, Pointing to our father—thed! Flowers to bloom around our dwelling, Shedding fragrance on the air, Never fating, ever teiling Of our heavenly Parent's care.

Hopes—what are they? Gay birds, their bright pathway to the skies, Gaily of the future singing.
Feariess, undismayed, they rise, Raising us above earth's changes, Leading us to endless life, Easing all our cares and sorrows. Soothing anguish, ending strife.
