How pleasant are the dreams of ease When purchased by a pain! To make it up again!

How merry is the streamlet That has a rock to leap! How blessed is the daily toil That brings refreshing sleep! Then pryther, Love, a quarrel, But neither long nor deep.

How dull would be the morning, Had night not gone before! How tame would be the summer days Were't not for winter hoar! And were our life all pleasure, Delight would be no more! After the dark, the dawning-After the cool, the heat-After the rain, the bods of spring-After the sour, the sweet-And after all thy chiding, Behold me at thy feet!

Gov. Reeder on Kansas.

[Ex. Gov. Reeder of Kansas made speech at the Tremont Temple, Boston, concluding as follows:1

" I have thought much on the remedy for this state of things, and have come at last to an opinion. It may be right or it may be wrong, but it is a fixed opinion. And it is, that nothing can save Kansas from being swallowrd up by the Slave Power but an addition to its physical strength. If there was an impassable gulf between Missouri and Kansas, we would take care of the question within the Territory for ourselves. But we can not have. The next thing is to have such a force in the Territory, not of troops, but of settlers with stout hearts and strong arms, and the necessary means to defend themselves. We shall know where to put them, and we can put them where they will be as much as a gulf, which the Missourians, disposed to regulate our affairs, can not pass. Such a force we must have now, or it will be too late. We think about 5,000 such settlers will be enough, but i. Liey are not, we must have 10,000. Give us 5.000 for the next October Election, and the Missouriaus will find that we have a training that day of different kind from what they have appointed for us. These men must be provisioned for one year; for as they can not be expected to raise their provisions the first year, if they are not supplied from without, they Vault bryequire $200 for each man, or $1,000,000 for the whole. Illinois has already resolved to furnish 1,000 men and $200,000. In Detroit, he found two gentlemen who will give $10,000 each, and another $5,000, and Michigan will furnish 1,000 men. In Ohio, he met a lady in the cars who offered $500. Ohio will do her share. Massacousetts will have no difficulty in sending her 1 000 men, or, if she can not find the men, let her give the money, and I will know where to find the men."-Gov. Reeder showed how small the sum in comparison with the object to be gained, and sat down, after which the

A young lawyer in the interior was the hero, a few evenings since, of an amusing mistake, and as it is not worth while to spoil story, especially a good one, "for relathe hero was a staunch Republican. The the witness being absent, the cause was adjourged till morning. The lawyer went | Harrisburg, for Machines. to his client's house near by, to take tea; and in the evening was invited to attend a meeting at the school house. Thither he went, and, being full of politics himself, jumped at the conclusion that it was a political meeting. After sitting a while in silence, the lawyer got upon his feet, and remarking that while the audience were waiting for speakers, it might be as well to improve the time, launched into a tremendous barangue upon Kansas and Sumner. His "few words" spun to au hour and a half, when G-, a bitter old hard shell, got up, his voice trembling with inward rage, and said, "Since our young friend has concluded his remarks. bretbren, let us pray." It was intended for a prayer meeting .- Detroit Tribune.

THE SLAVE TRADE .- The New York Journal of Commerce is informed by United States Deputy Marshals, that at least fifteen slave vessels have sailed from that port within a year, and three within the last three weeks. It is believed that few if any American merchants are connected with this piratical business. The indignation of the Journal at the business is rather singular, in view of its favorite argument that the Africans have been great gainers by being kidnapped and introduced among Christian institutions. Piety of its sorts should culogize the slave trade as a great missionary operation-but the law calls it piracy.

While the agent was paying off the In-"native" presented himself and squaw, and seventeen children. His share at $5 a bead was $95, and as he received his portion he remarked: " Me get hundred dollars next year."

Security against the terrific element:

Philadelphia, April 12, 1856.

Misera. Evans & Watson — dents:—It affords us the highest satisfaction to state to you, that owing to the very protective qualities of two of the Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some few months since, we saved a large portion of our Jewelry, Books, Papers, &c. esposed to the calaminos fire in Banstead Plane, on the morning of the 11th inst.

When we reflect that these Safes were located in the fourth story of the bullding we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a heap of burning runs, where the rast concentration of heat caused the brass plates to melt, we cannot but regard the proservation of the valuable contents as most convicting proof of the great security afforded by your Safes.

We shall take much pleasure in recommending them to men of business as a sure reliance against fire.

PRILADELPHIA, April 12, 1856.

Messes Evans & Warson—I have to offer you my testimony in favor of the great security affixed d to my entire stock of jewelry, books, papers, &c., during the recent dispertions conflagration in Ransbad place, from the fact that the sense were contained in two of the Salamander Safes manufactured by you.

Having fallen from the fifth story of the Artisan Building, where they were previously placed and exposed in a vent heaf for a long time, the preservation of the valuable deposits seemed to every one who witnessed the opening and interior examination, a matter of prefound as tools himsent.

Ta 21 who

ble deposits seemed to every one who witnesses the data ing and interior examination, a matter of prefound as toni-hunent.

To all who may require a perfect protection from the rayades of fire, I shall not hesitate to recommend the use of your Safes, as I consister they have now undergone the most trying test.

PHILEMENTA, April 14, 1856.

MESSES EVANS & WATSON—Gentlemen—No doubt you will be deeply gratified to learn the good condition in which I discovered my book, poley of insurance, certification of stock, and other valuable documents, when on Priday last I opened the safe made by your firm.

With my knowledge of its great exposure, both to the intensity of the hear from so het a fire as that which distroyed the Artisan Building, as also from the force of the fall from its former elevated position in the third story, I could enfortain but alender hopes prior to its interior inspection, that the contents which I once so highly prized would ever he of any service to me, but as those fears are now happily removed. I feel it only due to say to you, that I can herechott recommend the ose of your Safes to all who may wish to feel a confidence in the perfect security which such means provides against the Safeth Safes and Safestalla, Bookbinder.
