

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, AUG. 22, 1856.

BY O. N. WORDEN & J. R. CORNELIUS. AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY AND NEWS JOURNAL.

Our Flag is There. Our flag is there—the starry flag Our stout for-fathers gave. Our yreedom's home, Free Soll, Free Men, In triumph long to wave! Yet all its bright and shining folds Foul Slavery seeks to statu, Till Freedom's bost is called to fight er battle o'er arain? And fight we will, from vale to hill The battle cry is heard The battle cry is heard. Till with Farmer's and Decros's name The nation's heart is stirred.

The nation's near is surrow. O blessed Freedom' periess boun! Worth all the world bedde; For thes, how many here surls Have guids biet and died! And 'its for thes, dear Liberty, We guids in this fight, To sure the fig from stain and shame, And Shaver's a while inght. Free Speech, Free Labor, and Free Sol-Free men. Framovr. unredied. Are motionistic to for Freedom's host, On every shining fold !

On every shinter total Our Fing is there? Oh, bright and fair, it leads the millions on. Till Slavery's surging waves be stayed. And Freedom's battle won? And Valor's arm and Beanty's smille Shall bid it providly wave. Till not a rood of Freedom's sell Lecursed by chain or slave? Free Storek. Free Kansas-far and wide Be these the battle cry. Till Freedom's day in Freedom's cause Is crowned with victory? New Tark, July 3, 1556.

The Chronicle. FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1856.

Fremont in Danville.

DANVILLE, PA., Aug. 13, 1856. The cause of Fremont and Freedom is rapidly gaining ground in this region. Last night we had a meeting to organize a Fremont Club in this place. Eighty-one voters entered their names on the roll. The President, H. P. Baldy, Esq., with some twenty or thirty members are from the Democratic ranks. We are confident that we will soon number hundreds, and be able to neutralize the six hundred majority for the Democrats in this county. The Fillim re men are coming in, and the antiadministration vote will be united on Fre-MONTOUR. ment. Yours, &c., formed in Danville, and 50 names are enrolled. The American says:

great principles of human freedom, are raised, Mr. Brown will try it again. fully awake to the deep importance of the present contest. As a people they have, heretofore, mingled but little in the political affairs of the country, but when of my window. After breakfast I strolled the question is freedom or slavery for down to the Penitentiary, to see the Kansas, and the free territories of the striped representatives of the great Pork growing sense of duty to the country of their sense of duty to the country of their an important looking gentleman, who about a mile from Akron, and is a sort of lake breeze, wasted gently shoreward home of their children from the sin and handed me over to another man of the curse of Slavery. With full sincerity of same stripe, and we took up our line of heart, and for the accomplishment of this march through an awfully bolted iron ings are generally frame, and, almost expanding the lungs as with draughts of glorious end, they 'strike hands with all door, which I would be slow about passothers who are honestly devoted to the same cause. Americans and Foreigners, ing in some countries. We went through Whigs, Democrats and Republicans are an immense number of cells, which had united on this one great issue, against the more the appearance of cages for wild onward march of the slave power, nor lions and elephants, than domicils for hu- mont is far ahead of all the rest of the progress of Freedom's host, until their million toned voice shall say to the dark tide of Slavery, "thus far and no farther, and here thy dark waves shall be stayed." uninitiated, and reminded me much of a large flock of zebras at work. Here the

Editorial Correspondence of Lewisburg Chronicle. enough to listen to them, look at their from the maddened waves. The Lake MIDDLEBURY, O, Aug. 8, 1856. wares, and exchange some "wampum" Shore railroad runs castwardly for more I started for Columbus in a four horse for beaded moceasins, reticules, money than a mile, on piles, inside a palisade of coach, containing as many passengers as purses, and such like trumpery. By good logs driven into the lake as a breakwater, could be packed inside, and just eight on luck I succeeded in finding the train I when it gradually ascends the decreasing the outside, including yours very truly, wanted, which was to leave for Akron in bluff, and keeps at a respectful distance who formed the apex to the load. Got a few minutes, and would have left a con- from the shore. The bluff tends slightly to Columbus about 9 o'clock in the even- siderable length of time sooner, had it northward, in that direction, in an irreging, and having arranged matters to suit not been for an accident which had taken ular outline, until its last projection is me at the American House, took a stroll place somewhere up the road-some said dimly seen in the distance. through the beautiful city, to see how it it was a smash up, while others main- The left is the harbor, formed princiappeared by gas light. Came across an tained that it was a break down, and I pally of the river, with a fair show of old gentleman standing by a lamp post didu't ascertain what it was, but jumped brigs and schooners, and other medium addressing a very respectable crowd in re- aboard and was soon out of the confusion, craft. Times are dull in their line just gard to the wrongs of the Free State men and sliding along at a rapid rate down now, as the new harvest has not yet furin Kansas. He had been a participant in the margin of the magnificent Lake Erie. nished their heaviest supply of bulky the struggle for freedom in that territory, This beautiful sheet was quite calm, and freight. The city is accessible by streets and was well posted up in the matter. only dimpled by gentle breezes which only from the river, and not from the He told harder stories about the doings flitted over it at intervals. Ah ! how lake side. Beyond the lower light house, of the Border Ruffians than anything I tempting it looked to us sweating, dusty and the buildings in Ohio City, the bluff ever heard, and I have not the least doubt railroaders. No wonder so many are puts out into the lake near half a mile, that they were all true. He was arguing tempted to venture upon it at the risk then recedes and projects again, and again, the cause of no political party, and did not they incur, but how enanged it must have until a far off wooded point terminates mention the name of any of them : how- appeared to the passengers of the late ill- the view in that direction. Thence, from ever, one or two of the faithful thought fated Northern Indiana; when they weight the west far around to the east, the disthat the shoe appeared to fit them, and ed auchor, no doubt, the lake appeared to tant northern horizon is a blending of sky good that can be said for monarchies. (and they boned him for abusing the Democrat- them as beautiful as it did to us; but and water, except when its outline is reic party and the administration in general, a "change came o'er the spirit of their lieved by a passing sail or summer cloud. but he soon shut them up by telling them dreams" when the awful cry of "fire" Taking possession of a bewn log, near that he was minding his own business and reached their ears. The calm waters a nearly whitewashed stone lighthouse, To pass through and mingle with societies, letting parties alone, and hinted to them appeared then but a mockery, instead of I sat for more than an hour, watching where there be lords many and gods many, that he would be glad if they would do a vast expanse of beauty. Passed through the changing color of the lake under the created and inherited royalties, circles so too; thereupon, I observed that these Macedonia and several other small places, lights and shadows from the flitting, flee- and grades of humanities, an Olympus some exceedingly strong and un-writeable language, which appeared as if intended for the old gentleman aforesaid. His business there was to raise funds for reestablishing the Free State paper that was so barbarously demolished by the Border Ruffians, while under the control of Mr. Brown, who removed from Crawford Co. Pa., and had the boldness and manliness A WELSH FREMONT CLUB has been to start the paper under all sorts of discouragements, and had issued it a considerable length of time before the ruffians "Our Weish citizens, ever true to the destroyed it. If funds sufficient can be Iil., with gas pipes, for $17,000, and also for fuel, then backing slowly out and a heavy contract for Cincinnati.

In the morning found myself pretty high up in the world when I peeped out Mexico. West, they are impelled by a State. Bought a ticket for a quarter of railroad,) thence by Cuyahoga Falls to streaks, under nature's fitful touches. then their groves assigned to inferior roy-Akron. At the latter are extensive man- Mingled with this was the hurry and din alties, O it is refreshing to emerge out ufactories of different descriptions. Earth- of business and travel below us. Omni- such a sultry sectional atmosphere into en ware, of a very superior quality, is nibusses and carriages rattling to and fro; this little brave heroic Switzerland, where made here, which is used in the place for long passenger trains sweeping in and gas and water pipes, pumps, and in many rushing out with headlong speed, as if the other ways. For the purposes mentioned, last day was at hand, and the world must much cheaper. I learn that one manu- steam tugs moving leisurely about ; and facturer has a contract to supply Chicago, one bulky steamer taking in tons of coal heading to the west, churning its way Summit Lake, a couple of miles distant, steadily and swiftly onward, leaving in its is the highest point in Ohio. From it the rear a white track of foam below, and waters flow north and South-part into dense volumes of the blackest bituminous Lake Erie, and part into the Gulf of smoke above.

But the crowning element of enjoyment The village I date from, is situated in all this scene, was the cool, delicious suburban sattelite to that place. Its loca- " with healing in its wings "-fanning the tion is exceedingly pleasant. The build- wan cheek like a ministering angel, and without exception, painted white, built in immortality. Ah, how unstrung nerves ing in some countries. We went through the midst of lots, and surrounded by revive, and languid pulses leap to its electarge vards and well cultivated gardens. tric influence ; adding new hopes to life, Politics run pretty high here, and Fre- fresh energy to weary footsteps.

Turning away at last, we reentered the can all the schemes of the opposition man beings, and at length came to the candidates, individually and collectively, busy, bustling city, past long blocks of break that bend of union, or stay the workshops. Here, on being ushered in, and I am convinced that it is the same all wholesale stores at the west end, with my eyes met a spectacle rather odd to the through the State, as I have a good op- 'splendid hotels,' and an endless quantity of private banks and broker's offices-J***. which flourish finely at this transition

Campaign Song. by R. W. LOCKE. Am.-Old Don Tucker. Rome ye, freemen, from your alumbers; Seize your arms and count your numbers; New's the time for deeds of bravery, Freedom grappies now with Slavery, Coorat. – Down with Blavery and Buchanas? Freedows truitors – sing their dirges, Long and lond as ocean surges.

In the halls of Congress pleating, On the fields of Kansas bleeting.

towns, whose walks are

"Pavements forg'd with murderous stones."

Mark the flag of Slavery's minions-"Rule or rule!" "Comparts broken." "Choke Free Words bei re they re spoken Choke Free Words bei re they re spoken Choras.-Down with Dougan, Pieree, 40 Are we cowards now to failer? Have we nooght for Freedom's al Shall our forces, by division, Reap detest and hold devision? up denot and ton or or any off very netry, all are resuly! very column marching steady: us as were our sizes before us, arching steady to this chorus? Chorus-Down with Douglas, Pierce, d.c.

European Correspondence.

[Correspondence of the Lewisburg Chronicie.] NO. II.

ZURICH, July 26, 1856. Berne rather a bearish looking city. It is pleasant once again to breathe in Republican atmosphere. With all the under the circumstances they have their good qualities,)they have much that is rehave helped to train national heroes. Mounpugnant to one with a republican training.

"Even the peasant boasts his rights to scan And learns to venerate himself a mail."

fore an experiment, here is an example to circumstances. The Swiss Republic has to eat their bread in the sweat of their existed for nearly nine centuries, has pass- brow. Whenever their is a little patch from without, and endured civil wars in to make it available by some means or the sin of religious or political duplicity. its own bosom, but has always emerged other. Narrow strips along fearful pre- They have not yet learned to compromise nace, purer and more durable.

Switzerland originally seems to have low with a meagre crop. Thus they been inhabited by the Rhetians. After "Force a churitch soil for scanty bread." these came the Heivetians, a people from Gaul, who took possession of the fertile must be but few. Mary an Alpine village few traitors. She can point to her Arnold valleys and left the mountains to their has never had plough, barrow, or wagon with greater pride than America to hers. predecessors. The latter were conquered in its fields. In pastoral districts, they Her annals show that their difficulties have by the Romans in 58, the former 15 B.C. have large kegs hang on their backs in been more frequently settled by the sword During the migration of nations A D 400, which they carry their butter and cheese than diplomacy. Her history would be Switzerland fell into the possession of dif. down into the valleys to market. In the more pleasant if less cruel and bloody. ferent tribes, all of which were afterwards more accessible districts, their flocks are The Swiss have fought for principles until conquered by the Franks. Thus it passed composed of larger cattle, but many can their religion became bigotry, and their through a checkered diversity of fortunes. only be reached by goats. It is a novel zeal a lack of charity. A little more nauntil the end of the thirteenth and begin- sight to see large flocks of these, black, tional forbearance would have made their ing of the fourteenth century, when the white and speckled, each with its jingling history less heroic but more humane. They German Emperors, especially Rudolph of little bell, clambering along these cloudy are bold and rugged, like their native Alps. Hapsburg and his son ostensibly endeavor. heights. Some of the shepherds remind Incapable of perfidy they will not submit ed to make the proud, patriotic Swiss, their one of the ancient shepherds in the East- to wrong. Their anuals, like their scenery, vassais. It was then that Stauffacher, old men with hoary locks and long grey are full of romance. A set of unscrupa-Furst, Arnold, and William Tell stepped beards, sitting musingly on the cliffs of lous men are appointed their oppressors by forth in all the fearless majesty of freemen these mountain solitudes, while their flocks a mighty Empire. Three men with 30 in defence of their rights. Supported by carefully grane around them, as if con- followers assemble after night on a little the ramparts of their native Alps, and the scious of their dependence upon their propraying hearts and strong arms of their tection. This mountain society secus to where they take a solemn oath that they native brethren, their numerous focs fell be almost entirely free from the distine- would deliver their country from these which the place is remarkable-lifting before them as though some unscen angel tions of rank. Each has his acres hanging tyrants ; and in less than two months not were battling in their behalf. In 1499, along some inconvenient hill, and a few one can be found in Switzerland. Tell their Independence was recognized by the cows or goats, according to the latitude of German Empire. Since then, however, the village. Their dwellings have a uni- Gessler, one of their number, sought every Switzerland has had to pass through her form appearance, unpainted, weather-boardseverest trials. In the religious wars of ed frame buildings, which look more comthe Reformation, her prowess was employ- fortable for summer than winter. Here shout an apple from the head of his child, ed in the destruction of her own blood, and there is a social equality rarely met with. he takes him prisoner. But while on the her loveliest mountains were made the No upper and lower classes, no stately lake, a storm arose, which frightened altars of self-immolation. Liberty and palaces to provoke envy, nor eringing ser- Gessler, who was glud to get his prisoner Religion dropped the mingled tear of pity vitude contempt. Religion dropped the mingled tear of pity and bereavement on their graves. One would suppose that greedy despots would To shaw the mean set of all, See no continuous place rest is beed To shaw the mean set of a built be set. have eagerly seized these unhappy frag- I was surprised to find so many eripples and waves. He hurried over the mountains, ments of dissention as their prey. But, on other species of deformity in these moun- and within a short distance from the eastly questions of Freedom, Switzerland has al- tain regions. The severity of the climate in which he was to be imprisoned, he hurled rays been one. The ery of Oppression especially during the winter, the frequency his deadly arrow into the heart of his opwould always be the watchword for Union. of accidents resulting from the nature of pressor. So there are many instances, Hence, in spite of her internal and exter- the country, and the heavy crushing labor where from motives of conviction they pernal wars, she has gloriously survived her which they must perform, doubtless con- form adventures which border on the midarkest periods, and remains a free and In- tribute much to this. Here children and raculous, and storm wildly along in the dependent Republic to this day. The 22 cantons of Switzerland have a ded for strong men. Still they have been There is but one Switzerland in the world population of nearly 2,400,000. Each joured to it, and seem contented. Some nationally and geographically. Her mouncanton is a small Republic, with power to would not give their barren mountains for tains have their agricultural disudvantages, legislate and govern its own affairs. All the best farms in America. The Swiss are but other qualities which all the world the cantons constitute the Swiss Confeder- proverbially given to home-sickness ; many must admire and praise. Her children ation, corresponding to the government of weep and pine away after Switzerland in have their psychological cliffs and torrents, the United States. They hold their Gen- countries where they could live much bet- but under this stern exterior are the uneral Assembly, or Congress, in Berne, the ter than here. Here they cling with tena- corruptible virtues of a moral heroism Washington of Switzerland. This body cious fondness to mountain heights upon which always points the soul towards the was in session while I was at Berne. I which an American farmer could scarcely high and the noble. can assure you it was a gratifying privilege venture, where they breathe the keen air to hear and witness the discussions of a and carol their pastoral melodies as they about noon, two brothers, sons of David Republican Congress on this side of the clamber after their wook, eat their scanty Davis, E-q., of Limestone towhship, in Atlantic representing a confederation whose meals with a grateful heart, and seem to this township, were out on a gunning exorigin dates back near to the discovery of be the happiest beings on carth. Their cursion, when the older of them, named America. The Assembly was mostly com- wants must be kept within narrow limits Albert, handed a gun to the younger posed of men from middle life and upwards, to supply them with their income. Their across a race. The latter taking the gun persons of a mature experience and digni- flocks and flax-patches supply them with by the stock, accidentally touched the fied deportment, whose discussions were clothing. The spinning jenny and factory trigger and discharging the contents of models of Congressional speeches. loom have not yet supplanted the buzzing the gun into the side of the former, causthe upper stories project, forming pleasant assured, by persons of reliable veracity, areades where a person can walk with safe- that a railroad is about being constructed ty, unmolested by sun, rain, or wagons. across the Alps, by the aid of tunnels. To And above all presenting a smooth and tunnel the Alps, would certainly be the agreeable surface, unlike most European eighth wonder of the world.

YEAR XIII ..... WHOLE NUMBER, 645. AT $1.50 PER YEAR, ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

In the Northern cantons, the country exhibits signs of unusual prosperity. Many The Bear, the "speaking weapon" of farmers have acquired princely fortance, Berne, receives a marked prominence in and in their larger towns there is a great this Republican city, to which they seem deal of wealth. Here the social equality to impute a symbolical significance. Two ceases. A powerful monied aristocracy is large bears stand guard on the pillars of constantly struggling for the ascendency the city gate. In the Cathedral-terrace, is in the Government, which has frequently a large statue erected to the memory of come into serious collision with the rights some Swiss patriot and by his side a large of the poorer classes. In 1831, it happenbear in the act of putting his head into a ed that the Legislature of the canton ef bonnet. Two minutes before the town Berne had become predominantly aristoclock stikes the hour, a gaug of fierce lookcratic, and presumed to act contrary to the ing bruins, dressed in regimentals, march interests of the laboring classes. The lataround an old figure that holds the sceptre ter called a mass meeting of the canton at of Time. And to crown the whole, the a village in the neighborhood of Berne. city must have a garden, containing a numelected a new Legislature, and drove the ber of live bears. This odd feature makes aristocrats on mass from their seats. This popular decision was reversed in 1850. Mountains are the nurseries of the Sons Both parties assembled near the same of Freedom. Switzerland may thank her place, separated only by a narrow foot-path, Alps for her Liberty and Independence. where, after they had been admonished by These, like the Highlands of Scotland, fiery speeches amid a terrible snow storm, the election again resulted in favor of the tain air, mountain difficulties, mountain Aristocrats. The Government of some of the cantons barriers, develope powers to overcome mountains. Patriotism does not always is purely democratic. The canton of Uri, confer comfort, nor can the temporal hap- the smallest of the confederation, holds a piness of the Swiss be compared to that of popular assembly every first Sunday (!) in their republican brethren in America. May, in a large meadow, where every male Mountains are more fertile and convenient citizen of 20 years and upwards is entitled for purposes of patriotism, than agriculture. to vote. A herald announces from a tem-In the North of Switzerland, farmers live porary stand the subjects which claim their in the good old republican fashion, each attention. Individual speakers expound one on his own lands, and a goodly portion and discuss their merits, after which tho of it, which they generally cultivate in a assembly votes by raising hands. Thus thrifty and tasteful manner. But in the the laws of Uri are made. And what is mountains it is far otherwise. With a most singular is, there are but 12 Protesure, and ours is still in its youth and there- glutted population, where no man can have tants in this Democracy, numbering a popmuch to farm, and that little perhaps along ulation of 14,500. For it is thought by prove that a Republican form of Govern- a mountain unaccessible by wagon or plough many that the polity and ritual of the Pament is practicable, at least under certain they are obliged, in a most literal sense, pacy are poorly calculated to train its members in democratic habits. Whatever may be the national faults of ed through cruel and formidable assaults where their can safely labor, they will seek the Swiss, no one can charge them with from them like gold from the heated fur- cipices, which one would suppose only the principles. Their impetuous patriotism, bold eagle could visit in his flight, are yel- like their mountain torrents, once started will go ahead regardless of consequences.

and sometimes with a savage ferecity. If In these districts, farming implements I remember correctly, Switzerland has had meadow on the banks of one of their lakes resisted their abase of power for which possible means to punish him. After he had amused himself by compelling him to # patriots were receding, and muttering (the names of which I cannot now recall,) cy clouds and warm, bright sunshine-pea where not even demigods, but only those changed cars at Hudson, (which, by the green or dark emerald, then deep blue, who have the pure ichor coursing through way, makes a nice appearance from the shuff brown or inky black, in patches and their veins, are permitted to enter, and

While the Roman Republic proved a fail-

Northumberland.

SUNBURY, Aug. 18 .- The Democratic Convention of Northumberland County hames, hammers, handles, spades, shovels, met to-day-tull attendance. The fol lowing nominations were unanimously shoes, chairs, chains, churns, chisels, made :- Congress, John B. Packer ; As. planes, ploughs, axes, adzes, wood type, sembly, Samuel D. Jordan ; District At- and an endless variety of almost all sorts torney, Michael Kieffer : Auditor, Samuel Gilger ; Isane Cake, John Eck and William ees; Joseph Nicely and Henry B. Mas. there was no lack of provisions, but a very dianapolis to Crestline, oppressed with ser elected Delegates to the 4th of March slim variety, and an entire absence of any the heat, choked with dust, which springs Convention.

the second Democratic Convention, the water; took a bunk of the bread, but was spect-and tired of the monotonous route; first having been controlled by the Dew- soon satisfied with the mastication thereof except the ten miles of narrowing and art or "Codfish" Democracy. Of the -concluded to live on something more expanding prairie, with its island groves, nominees of the " Dewart faction," two palatable, if I could get it, even at my broad fields and leafy promontories-a were Whigs, one of whom declines the own expense. This institution contains perfect elvsium of rural beauty. From bonor of "training" in the Buchanan 616 inmates; of this number, about 150 Crestline, a better road through a more party-] the unanimity and zeal which have over large corps at work on it for probably ten tractiveness and convenience. marked the opposition, to unite in main- years. It is built of white stone through- The first thing after breakfast this Cess."

Mormon women who was in the company of the party which passed thro' our town for Salt Lake, we learn had no less than four husbands. She is said to have been an intelligent looking individual. She contended that women have as good a right to have a number of husbands, as a man had to have as many wives as he wished, provided the men were all members of the Mormon Church. There is nothing like making circumstances suit occasions, and these Mormons appear to have a peculiar faculty for such transactions.-Rock Islander.

since on his way to Bedford, where the course, due north)-whistles howling, wharves, clustered together in one extenannual gathering of "Kane" letter writers bells ringing, people swarming and swear- sive projection into the lake, on piles, ten Fremont -Lewistown Gazette prisoners were hammering and sawing, and boring, and grinding, and turning, and rasping, and sewing ; making hoes, had to hasten to the depot zen of the State of Ohio. The conductor tered avenues. led me through the dining room, where

[The above, it will be understood, is palatable brown bread, and no scarcity of clean Pennsylvania Central in this reare under 21 years of age, aud, if I mis- inviting country, brought us to the end and vicinity held a meeting on Monday, life. Left this place, and up to High moonlight through a wide gorge in the who, while professing that it "may not street, to see the new State Capitol ; the high, sandy bluff, to the water's edge become a minister of the Gospel to enter first thing that met my view in the Capi. with Cleveland on the east, and Ohio any political arena, nor to bring its party tol yard was another herd of zebras, about City on the west side-landed us about strifes within walls consecrated to peace fifty in number, working away with re- 9 o'clock in the ample depot, which, with and personal godliness," passed resolutions markable industry, assisting the workmen the steamboat wharves, is built on piles, declaring elavery to be a "great evil," and engaged in erecting the building. This, on the edge of the lake. An omnibus calling upon all parties and sections "to when finished, will be one of the most wound slowly up the hill, and set us subordinate all mere political preferences magnificent edifices in the States, I pre- down at quarters in the public square; to the paramount claim of freedom against sume, but it cannot be ready for use for which, by the way, is divided into four further encroachments of slavery, and with several years, although there has been a by the crossing streets, increasing its attaining it by uniting in such measures and out, and of course is entirely fire proof. morning was to seek the lake shore, and men as will be most likely to ensure suc- It is worth a pretty long trip to see this make the acquaintance of this tempestubuilding-concluded that it would be a ous fresh water basin. Followed the di-MORMON HUSBANDS -Oue of the fine residence for a retired printer, but rections indicated by mine host for a hunthe price did not suit me exactly. As the dred yards or so, when the smooth outline train I wished to take was about to leave, of a blue mountain ridge across the end I had no more time to see the sights, but of the street, in the dim distance, made pretty large train, and well crowded. Af. town; but pushed on, under an assurance ter getting under way we came through from a citizen to the contrary, and pres-Delaware, Cardington, Crestline, Shelby, ently discovered that the fancied " moun-&c., at a rate which would most assuredly tain" was simply the blue lake itselfsurprise nervous people. Got to the For- weltering in the sunlight as playfully and est City about 1 P. M. Here a person is placid as if no storms had ever swept its under the necessity of having his wits surface, or buried lives and fortunes in its about him to start out in any certain train. depths. So much for physical geography, and do not seem inclined to surrender to some outlandish lingo to whoever is dunce most patching and tumultuous assaults | to decamp.

New Western Correspondence. [Correspondence of the Lewisburg Chronicle.]

CLEVELAND, O. July 15, 1856. What a relief for feeble invalids, to escape from the sultry South to this delightful " Forest City," with its cool, re-M. L. Shindel ; Commissioner, of tools and furniture used by every citi. freshing atmosphere, and breezy, tree-shel-

> Retraced our way, yesterday, from Indessert-consisting of a huge pile of un. from the track in clouds, so unlike the

SIXTY BAPTIST MINISTERS of Boston take not, 15 or 20 are incarcerated for of the 300 miles, and descending by me think we were going towards the in-

in such pleasant places.

Left Columbus at 10 A. M. Had a land, instead of the water side of the point between the wild cat money west, and the sounder currency of the east-pausing a little at the main street, 120 feet wide, paved between the curb stones with plank, smoothly laid and securely fastened, to get clear of the sand and dust, lined for squares, with showy retail establishments. Thence wandered at will, by numerous costly churches for their fretted spires so high into mid heavon that the eye falters in reaching the topmost pinnacle-and through the quieter streets, Lake and Euclid especially, that stretch castwardly for miles along the bloff, unpaved and unshaded, and lined with the sumptuous dwellings of merchant princes and other prospering citizens, from the modest frame to the pretentious palace, but all set back from the street, and with fresh air and clbow room all around them. From appearances and the reputation of the people for high social qualities, this must be, of all spots, one of the most delightful for a permanent residence. One could almost envy the happy dogs, whose lucky star guided them hither, and cast their lines

The public Schools are closed for the summer vacation, but found the city Superintendent and a committee burrowing in rolls and manuscripts, to determine the promotions and rewards of merit. The Schools are in a prosperous condition, as was to be expected in such a wide-awake community; the school buildings goodespecially the High School, a massive cut stone building, of a light color, costing $20,000. In the State at large, out of the independent cities, the system is less flourishing, some of its essential functions having been ground to powder in the struggles of contending political factions-ending last winter in abolishing the office of State Superintendent, "Commissioner," as they call him, and let the system develope by its own spontancous energies. The Teachers maintain their esprit du corps, have their State and local associations, and educational journals; away. But the evening twilight is darkening my sheet, and as we leave for Buffalo in is held. Look out for letters to prove that ing, and sweating, and fussing, copper fect above the surface; and when gales the night boat-the only line running-Buchanan is a botter free soil man than colored Indians dodging about, muttering are on hand doubtless subjected to the I must stop scribbling and make ready ave a peculiar faculty for such transac-ions.—Rock Islander. Mr. Buchanan passed here a few days has a population of 27,550, very few of tude. A talegraphic wire flashes news parents in their loss. The deceased was whom seem to be in needy circumstances. | across their highest mountains, and small | Its streets have a fresh business-like ap- steamers ply on their larger lakes, but ber of society. Let this be another warpearance. Its broad pavements run thro' the puff of the locomotive has never defiled ing to those who handle fre-arms the first stories of the dwellings, over which ; their pure air. I have been repeatedly will Demourat.

to save his life. Pretending to row to the shore, Tell leaped on a rock and in the effort pushed the boat back into the stormy females perform labor which is only inten- path of duty in the face of certain death. NATHAN.

> FATAL ACCIDENT .- On last Saturday, bout 16 years of age, and gave promise of becoming a valuable and useful mem-