Autumn and Eternity.

How, O Autumn! shall I dare
To paint thy glorious hues?
The softness of the morning air,
Thine evening's pearl dew!
The solemn grandeur of thy night,
Whose starry crown is set
With gems more radiantly bright
Than earthly coronet?
The glory of thy sunset hour,
When all is calm and still,
Brings full conviction of the Power
That heaven and earth dies fill;
Oh! who can gaze upon the skies,
As twilight shades them o'er,
And from earthly dreams arise,
Their Maker to adore?
The wreath of fading summer flowers
Is yet upon thy bough,
But all the mirth of Summer hours
Is changed to sadness now;
And yet, upon that dying head,
A solemn beauty lies,
More glorious than the riches spread
'Neath Summer's glowing skies.
Ever, O Autumn! shall that be
To us an emblem meet
Of spirits sinking peacefully
To slumber calm and sweet;
Though thy delights may long last,
Yet ours shall still increase;
They reign so soon for ever past,
But ours shall never cease.
Ah! not like them shall pass away
The Christian's hope and joy;
We look for an eternal day,
And bliss without alloy—
For glories hid from mortal sight,
Revealed in realms above—
For fated crowns of heavenly light,
And perfectness of love.

ADDRESS to the Members of the Lewisburg Republican Association, and to all interested in its designs.

FELLOW CITIZENS. The object of our Association is not yet accomplished. It has pleased Providence that a majority of the voters—through our circuitous method of choosing the President—should entrust the Government for another term to men who inherit the policy, and are bound to walk in the footsteps of an Administration which was lately loaded with almost unanimous execration. But, though not in all things successful, we are not beaten, or, if beaten, we are not disengaged. It was not for a selfish or a transient purpose that we banded together. Permanent and vital interests are at stake, and while a word may yet be spoken for the Right, against the Wrong, we ought not to be found wanting.

With these views, we have judged it best to continue our organization, with slight modifications, and we call upon you to co-operate with us. By so doing, we may cultivate the germs of political truth which have recently been scattered among us, (more profusely and more effectually than was ever done before on a single occasion,) and bring them to a glorious harvest hereafter. We propose to continue this good work, and add to our former methods the advantages of a Reading Room, where the community may have access to the leading organs of public sentiment both North and South, and learn for themselves what are the facts and tendencies of political movements.

It is our desire also that like Associations should be formed in every borough and township, or in adjacent Boroughs and Townships, throughout this and other Counties and States. If then these can be connected with County organizations in all the counties, and these again with Central Associations for the States, we shall have a ready channel for the circulation of intelligence, and an instrumentality for future action, the want of which—in a few of the Free States—was the principal occasion of our recent disappointment.

Meanwhile, there is much for us to do. It is to be feared, indeed, that nothing now, short of a general uprising of the North in its physical might, can deliver Kansas from that doom to which ruffians and tyrants have destined her—a doom darker and more bloody than that of Poland, Hungary, or Rome—but about, too, by a more flagrant violation of every civil and political right, than entered into the brain of a Cataline or a Benedict Arnold. But we can, at least, help to load Congress with petitions for her admission as a Free State, and watch that her enemies gain no advantage over her which diligence on our part could avert.

Other great questions pertaining to Slavery, must engage the attention of this and the next Congress. The Annexation of Nicaragua as a Slave State—the Acquisition of Cuba—the Re-opening of the African Slave-Trade with its inseparable and for ever accursed horrors, are all openly and earnestly demanded by those who have been chiefly instrumental in the election of Mr. Buchanan; while it is plainly implied in the tenets which have been ratified by a majority of the Electoral (not, thank God! of the popular) votes, that all barriers to the transfer of Slaves into our yet Free States, are unconstitutional, and must be got out of the way! Here, surely, is matter grave enough to require our frequent and united consideration.

And while the occasion for our watchfulness and energy is urgent, the encouragement is great. Our desire for the immediate elevation of Fremont to that post which he would have honored, is thwarted, but when we reflect how nearly we succeeded, and under

Republican Association....Constitution.

ART. I. This shall be called the "Republican Association," the objects of which are the admission of Kansas into the National Union as a Free State, and generally to prevent the spread of human Slavery in all Territory under the care of Congress and into the States now Free; also to prevent the importation into our country of paupers and criminals from other Nations, to secure the strict observance of our Naturalization Laws, and frustrate the undue Political influence of Roman Catholicism. At the same time, we disclaim all intention of interfering with Slavery in the States where it now exists, or with the religious privileges of any portion of our countrymen.

ART. II. The means to accomplish these aims, shall be by public addresses, and by the dissemination of truthful and patriotic reading matter.

ART. III. Any citizen of the age of sixteen years or upwards, may become a Member of this Association by signing his name to the Constitution.

ART. IV. The Officers of this Association shall be a President, four Vice Presidents, a Corresponding Secretary, a Recording Secretary, and a Treasurer, who shall be elected annually by ballot, a majority of the Members present being necessary to constitute a choice. The Association may also appoint other Officers as from time to time may seem expedient.

ART. V. The duties of the Officers shall be to call and provide for special meetings, to procure documents, and generally to conduct the affairs of the Association.

ART. VI. Funds shall be raised by voluntary contributions, and paid out by the Treasurer only on the written order of the President attested by the Recording Secretary; but the Secretary shall issue no order, unless for necessary incidental expenses, without the concurrence of at least two Vice Presidents.

ART. VII. Regular quarterly meetings of the Association shall be held on evening of the months of ART. VIII. This Constitution may be amended at any quarterly meeting, by the vote of two-thirds of the Members present, provided such amendment shall be proposed at least one month previous.

ART. IX. The Association may adopt such By-Laws as it shall deem proper, provided they do not conflict with this Constitution.

Union, a Star County!

By reference to the full returns of the Presidential Election, it will be seen that the little county of UNION is the only one in Pennsylvania—except on the Northern and Western tiers—which gave a clear majority for FREMONT! Buchanan carried every other county in the Central, Southern, and Eastern portions of the State. Fillmore did not carry a county in our State. LEBANON's vote for Fremont was only 97 behind that for Buchanan—and SNYDER lacks but 241 votes to have a majority for Fillmore.

The territory comprising the present county of Union (exclusive of Jackson and Union townships, which, being divided townships, we can not compare,) gave 470 maj. against Pierces in '52, and 520 against Bigler in '54; now, 523 against Buchanan. Looking at the adverse turn in all our neighboring counties, and the special efforts put forth by the Buchanan State Committee to "crush out Freedom" in our own, we may without boasting say our voters have done remarkably well.—KELLY is the Banner Township—over 4 to 1 for Fremont! WEST BUFFALOE, and LEWISBURG, 2 to 1; HARTLEY, LIME-

STONE, EAST and WEST BUFFALOE, have done nobly, considering their losses from removals. Mifflinburg, Jackson and New Berlin hold their own; and White Deer and Union fall somewhat behind. Only 15 "Straights" in the county!

While we are proud to rank little Union with the Fremont counties of the Keystone State, and with the Republican States of the Union—while we point to our isolated majority for FREMONT! Buchanan—we attribute it to the wise forecast, enlightened judgment and inflexible patriotism of her own people. Almost simultaneously, the majority in every borough and township declared as with one voice for FREMONT and DAYTON as our Standard bearers. And altho' not as active as the friends of Buchanan, yet our friends at an early day held meetings, circulated the Tribune and other Republican papers and documents, and perfected an effective if not complete organization. The result—in our county and elsewhere—demonstrates that if all the opponents of the odious Pierce dynasty had united and labored as we did, Slavery and Popery would not to-day be grinning in triumph nor swearing and joking over the outrages perpetrated, with and without authority, on our brethren in unhappy Kansas!

We also give, in connection with our own, the vote for President, in detail, in our the two counties with which we are most intimately connected—Snyder and Northumberland. In those counties, the leading opponents of Buchanan preferred Fillmore, and Fremont had no organ until too late in the campaign to be of much avail. We are not aware that a distinctive Fremont meeting was held in Snyder county, or in the lower end of Northumberland; while in many districts Fremont was only known to be personally abused and politically misrepresented. The Buchanan party also made far greater efforts than the combined opposition. The result is, we have done our full share in Union, while in those sister counties we have lost.

—We refer to this subject not in any invidious or fault-finding spirit, but as reasons for our opinion that the Republican cause is not only just, but will be popular so fast and so far as it becomes truly known. "Truth is mighty and will prevail." And we command to general attention, the foregoing form of a Republican Association. Let this or a better Platform be adopted, and Associations organized covering such territory as may be deemed expedient. "Take Time by the forelock"—then, in four years, the free citizens of Central Pennsylvania will be found voting with their brethren in the Northern and Western counties, and will sympathize with the Free North, East and West, and not with the Nullifiers, the Repudiators, the Slave-breeders, and the Border Ruffians of the South!
