Lewisburg Chronicle & West Branch Farmer-November 21, 1856.

Happy all Around!

Everybody is happy, now that Election is over. Happy that it has been conducted with so much general order, and less per-sonal quarrels than common. The ladies are happy because they can now have more attention to themselves from the gentle-ority of Fanderslice's Tread Power over the or-dinary five horse power now in use in the West Brunch common in use in the with so much general order, and less permen, and Polly-Ticks will not engross so much. The children are delight d to have ladies of both sexes are again able to sloep o' nights, 'cause the "Union" is all "saved" are 'appy 'cause they have licked the Pope unemployed. in the most Catholic State of Maryland, and are not "skunked" as they ought to be. And the Buchaniers are glad for having another pull at the spoils, and all the Black States but one. The Republicans r-joice over their free Eastern, Northern, and Western States. The Americans exult that they carried Maryland, sure. The Democracy rub their hands with give that kind of machine new in use. they have not gobs and gobs of niggers. No-party men rejoice that the foolish excitement is all over. Finally, everybody is 'appy. Ain't we a 'appy beeples ?

Origin of "Getting the Sack."

[A cotemporary gives the following as the origin of a phrase now convenient to the lips-"giving the sack." It may or may not be the true origin of the phrase - of that, our readers will please judge for themselves :]

Two gentlemen, the one a Spaniard and the other a German, who were recommended, by their birth and services, to the nufacture and sell the Emperor Maximillian II, both coveted his daughter, the fair Helena Scharfquinn, in Claremont, N.H., in the following Townships ing them equiliy, and not being able to Berin. All persons are therefore cautioned decide the question. He did not mean, above Hives in the foregoing Townships and boroughs, for sale on reasonable terms. A because the question. We due to the add the interact, however, to risk the life of either, and con-sequently would not permit weapons to be used, but had ordered a long bag to be produced. It was his decree, that which-ever succeeded in putting his rival in this bag, should obtain the hand of his daugh-ter. The context lasted for more than an hour, when the Spaniard yielded, and the German, Eberhard Von Taibert, planting his rival in the bag, very gallantly laid it at the feet of his mistress, whom he espou-sed the next day. Our Republican friend, Joe F., (every-body knows Joe) got off a pretty good however, to risk the life of either, and con-
