Lewisburg Chronicle & West Branch Farmer-November 28, 1856.

Printers and Paradoxes. A printer, says Oliver, is the most curious being living. He may have a brack and coins, and not worth a cent; have small cops, and have neither wife or chil-dren. Others may run fast, but he gets along swifter by setting fast. He may be making impressions, without eloquence; may use the lye without offending, and be telling the truth; while others can not stand while they set, he can set standing, and do both at the same time; have to use furniture, and yet have no dealling, the machine will be taken back and may move the lever that moves the world, and yet be as far from the globe as a hog under a molehill ; he may loy his form on a bed, and yet be obliged to sleep on the floor ; he may use the dagger without shedding blood, and from the carth he may handle stars; he may be of a rolling disposition, and yet never desire to travel ; he may have a sheep's foot, and not be deformed ; never without a case, and know nothing of law or physic; be always correcting his errors, and be growing worse every day; bave em-braces, without ever having the arms of a lass thrown around him ; have his form locked up, and at the same time be free from jail, watch-house or any other confidement ; his office may have a hell in it, and not be a bad piace after all ; he mey be plagued by a devil, and be a Christian of the best kind ; and what is stranger still, honest or dishonest, rich or pour, drunk or sober, industrious or lazy, he always stands up to his business.

A SONG Inscribed to the Fremont Ciubs. Beneath thy skies. November !

Thy skies of cloud and rain, Around our blazing camp-fires We close our ranks again. Then sound again the bugles. Call the battle-roll anew,

If months have well-nigh won the field, What may not four years do !

For, God be praised! New England Takes again her ancient place ; Again the Pilgrims' banner Leads the vanguard of the race.

Then sound again the bugles, &c. Along the lordly Hadson

A shout of triamph breaks, The Empire State is speaking From the Ocean to the Lakes.

The Northern hills are blazing. The Northern skies are bright: And the fair young West is turning Her forehead to the light!

Push every outpost nearer, Press hard the nostile towers Another Balaklava, And the Malakoff is ours!

But keep the same old banner, For none can better be : Pass on the same old watchword-FRENONT AND VICTORY !

FIVE SILVER MEDALS awarded, viz. Two by the American Institute, New York, Oct. | 1851 do Franklin Institute, Philad-lphia, Nov. | and One at the Maryland Institute, Baltimore. Nov. | 1852

The peculiar improvement in the construc-tion of this Matress is, that all the clumsy and heavy wooden frame work is entirely dispensed with, and its place supplied by a lighter and much more durable frame, the springs are all connected by harness-leather hinges, securely riveted, rendering it impossible for a single spring to fall down or get out of place, and making a Bed so elastic that any part may be raised or bent up, and is thus admirably fitted to the wants of the sick or asthmatic who may require a sitting posture, having the inxurious softness of the best Feather Bed with the lightness and facility of handling of the common

These improved Spring Beds are in made of the best materials, and will last many years without repairs. Persons having Hair Matresses, can have them altered into Spring Beds. These Beds are well adapted for Hotels, berths of Ships, Steamboats and Hospitals. Spring Seats for Chairs. Carriages or Church Pews and Hair and Husk Mattesses made to
