Appointments.

The Commissioners of Union county have made the following appointments for the coming year :

Clerk-Andrew Kennedy. Counsel-John B. Linn, Esq. Mercantile Appraiser-P. Nevius.

NOTICE .- A meeting of the citizens of Lewisburg and vicinity, will be held at Ammons' Hall, on SATUR-the Supreme Court a year or more, and was argued, but not decided last winter. action to provide for the unfinished balance on the County Buildings. A general attendance is desirable.

We hear that numbers of good houses are wanted for rent in Lewisburg, and the inquiry is made, "Why don't some of our keen, rich men, put up a few blocks of well planned tenements, and see if they would not 'pay' to rent or sell?"

HORRID DEATH .- On Wednesday evening of last week, John Katherman, of Hartley Tp, returning from New Berlin, fell down on the road within half a mile of the house of a dian pudding. Jonathan sliced off a genson with whom he resided, and was found dead the next morning. An Inquest was immediately convened by Esq. Lincoln, which found that "the deceased came to his death by exposure to the cold during the night, he being at the same time intoxicated." Mr. S. was about 70 years of age.

An Important Case.

The case of Dred Scott, now being argued before the Supreme Court at Washington, involves the constitutionality of the Missouri Compromise and the power of Congress to prohibit Slavery in a Territo-ry, in the following manner: Scott is the son of a slave woman belonging to an army officer, who moved with his family and slaves into the Territory, where, by the Missouri Compromise, Slavery was prohibited. There Scott was born, but was afterward carried back to Missouri, and is now held therein as a slave. He sues for his freedom, on the ground that he was born free, by virtue of the Missouri Prohibition. The case has been before
