No attempt was made by the modern Democracy to remove the Slavery Provisos imposed by Congress under Democratic Presidents upon Oregon and Minnesota. If it was right to remove the Prohibition of Slavery from Kansas, why not remove it from Oregon and Minnesota? Why don't Douglas, Cass, &c. apply the Kansas doctrine to these as well as that? Ah! ha! the Republican party-the vote for Fremont-stares them in the face, and they dare not do it! They eat their own words, and violate there own principles of "non-intervention," "state rights," &c. &c. Well, so be it. If Freemen will but manfully oppose Slavery, they can conquer it. Hurra for the Free States of Minnesota and Oregon, saved from Slavery by Provisos of Congress !
