To Business Men.—The LEWISBURG CHRONICLE, published on the Cash System, has the largest and best circulation of any Newspaper in Union County.

☞ Union County Court, at Lewisburg, next week. There is not preparation made for occupying the Court Room.

Any of our old patrons who are indebted on old account—or any who are disposed to patronize the Chronicle for the future—will find this a good chance to send or bring in their money.

Tuesday evening, Republican meeting.

☞ On our first page will be found what is acknowledged to be the full letter of Mr. BUCHANAN, in reference to the election of U. S. Senator. The only excuse we have yet seen advanced in reference to this extraordinary production, is, that it was a "private" letter. The question at once arises: How could the President elect so far interfere as to write even a private letter? But Mr. Buchanan gives express liberty to Mr. Mott to communicate his views to all he thought proper, and the letter was—and was intended to be—used so far as it could, in pushing the nomination of John W. Forney.

The letter, it will be seen, is addressed—not to any Member of the Legislature, which must elect—but to the Know Nothing President of the Board of Canal Commissioners, who should have nothing to do with the election of U. S. Senator! Here is "bribery and corruption" with a vengeance! First, the President elect, with all the vast power and emoluments and influence in his hands for four years to come, volunteers a "private letter" to the President of the Canal Commissioners with all the offices and patronage at their disposal, (and to the man who as having received the highest Know Nothing vote of any man in the State may be looked upon as a wire-puller in the "dark-lantern party").....all to compass the nomination and election of Forney! It is not a good proof of the integrity or the wisdom of the President elect; but it is a good sign that the 65 Republicans and Americans and 11 Democrats resisted all these efforts to buy and control them, and hurled defiance against the National Executive and the Canal Commissioners by defeating the man of their choice!

The direct insult to Messrs. Brodhead, Foster, Buckalew, Robins, and Wright—and the equally evident but not expressed distrust of Mr. Bigler—which are exhibited on an attentive perusal of the letter, while they may do honor to the judgment of Mr. Buchanan, as a mere politician, are evidence of a sad want of sagacity on his part. Morally, the gentlemen are all superior to Forney; and any one of them would have conferred more honor upon the State. It is not a good omen, that of all the 200,000 Democrats of Pennsylvania, Buchanan should prefer Forney for his confidential friend and mouth-piece in the U. S. Senate—We trust the rebuke he has received, may prove profitable to him in his after political life.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

HARRISBURG, Feb 5.

Mr. Sellers read in place a bill relative to public roads in Union county.

In the House, Mr. Chase reported against the bill to authorize the Trustees of the German Reformed and Lutheran congregations of Mifflinburg to sell and convey a certain lot of ground.

Mr. Bower read in place a supplement to the act erecting the new county of Snyder and relative to the seat of Justice of Union county.

In Senate, Feb. 6, Mr. Sellers called up Senate bill No. 23, to change the name and increase the privileges of the Lewisburg Savings' Institution. Passed finally—yeas 15, nays 11, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Coffey, Cresswell, Dem., Fienniken, Frazer, Gazzam, Gregg, Harris, Killinger, Lewis, Penrose, Scofield, Sellers, Shuman, Souther and Taggart, Speaker—15.

NAYS—Messrs. Brewer, Browne, Ely, Evans, Fetter, Jordan, Opp., Knox, Steele, Walton, Welsh and Wright—11.

In Senate, Feb. 7, Mr. Crabb submitted a resolution, that the Clerk of the Senate be instructed not to present to the House of Representatives for concurrence, Senate bill to change the name and increase the privileges of the Lewisburg Savings Institution, passed yesterday afternoon until otherwise ordered. A debate ensued, after which, on motion of Mr. Browne, the resolution was modified, providing that the bill should be suspended until certain interrogatories which had the day before been addressed to that Institution and all Banks asking recharters, should be answered. In this shape the resolution was adopted.

The House committee on contested election in Philadelphia city reported that the claim of Gen. Rush Smith was confirmed as to 20 votes too much being credited, in one district, to Mr. Ramsey, the acting member; correcting that error, would elect Mr. Smith by 3 majority. But, in another district, a mistake of 10 votes had been committed in favor of Mr. Smith; correcting both errors, left Mr. Ramsey a majority of 7. The committee was unanimous in their report. Mr. Smith was, however, allowed pay and mileage up to the time the case was decided against him.

Chamb C. Mullin was reappointed Superintendent of Public Buildings, by the committee.

☞ Speaker TAGGART, Senators SELLERS and JORDAN, and Secretary CURTIN, are named for the Governor's chair. If Gen. Packer is the Adm. candidate, give Col. CURTIN the stump against him.

Mifflinburg Correspondence

MIFFLINBURG, Feb. 11, 1857.

The early part of last week, the Ice King reigned supreme. Winter was performing! Clothed in his frosty coat, chattering his teeth, with hoary beard all pearly with his frozen breath, old Saturnus amused and terrified. The scene was grand and gloomy too. Our gladsome groves and lovely meads, our romantic fountains and rural mountains, all lay buried in the deep, cold snow, and the dead vegetable kingdom beneath it also inspired the heart alternately with delight and sadness. Well could we exclaim with the Poet,

"Behold, fond man!
Thy flowering Spring, thy Summer's ardent strength,
Thy sober Autumn fading into age,
And pale concluding Winter, comes at last,
And shuts the scene."

The centre of this scene, our usually quiet town, was merry with bustle and the music of sleigh bells. Bright pictures of social love, fire-side enjoyments, home-born happiness, and, alas! too, dark pictures, where the polar spirit cast a chilling aspect, where sorrow paled care-worn brows, and gloom and desolation hung around in mournful drapery, we might pencil: but who that knows ought of country village life and the distinction, consequent of plenty and poverty, intelligence and ignorance, can not readily fancy the picture before his vision?

On Thursday, a thaw commenced, and on Sabbath morning we needed but the carol of blue birds to delude us into the belief that gentle Spring had come. Dissolving snows in torrents gushed through and deluged our streets, pointing out the want of improvement in our water courses, which I hope our good old boro' Fathers noticed and will act upon.

The balmy breath of infant spring which fanned about us on Sabbath, is gone, and ruffian blasts from the cold north are howling around us again. But Spring is surely on the march, and the next south winds will blow and delight us with her mild breath:

"And soon, reviving plants and flowers,
Anew shall deck the plain:
The woods shall hear the love of Spring
And flourish green again."

And then we will boast of the beauties of our lovely Buffalo Valley. Strangers, and especially Philadelphians, who have never been in these rural districts, can get a good idea of our locality by a glance on the beautiful Map of Union County, published by Messrs. Paschell & Keilley, Dock St. Philad. Ex Commissioner Schoch is soliciting subscriptions in our borough at present, and if true merit is rewarded, we predict this work of art will grace a wall in almost every house in the county.

A solemn, sudden death scene occurred here yesterday evening. Our venerable citizen, Wm. Gumpenyfell, fell down dead on the street; apoplexy was undoubtedly the cause. During the day, he was collecting tax, and on his return home the grim monster thus cut him down in a moment. Alas! how solemn! A gloom hangs on the public mind at this sudden summons. But,

"Why start at death? where is he? death arrived,
Is past! not come or gone, he's never here.
Ere hope, sensation fails; black-footed man
Receives, not suffers death's tremendous blow."

The scarlet fever is prevailing here to some extent. Some loved spirits are hovering between life and death, causing painful tears and anxious watching. R.T.

CONGRESS.

An effort by the House to annul ALL the unjust Acts of the bogus Legislature of Kansas, was opposed by the Buchanan men, who wasted the days in frivolous demands for Yeas and Nays, &c.

Nothing important accomplished.

The new treaty negotiated by Mr. Dallas it is believed will be rejected by Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb 6.—The National Theatre was entirely destroyed by fire this afternoon. Only the bare walls remain.

Mr. Giddings, by the advice of his physician, has left Washington and gone home. He requires rest and perfect exemption from excitement. His many friends in Washington feel much anxiety in regard to the consequences of his late attack.—National Era.

REV. ISAAC S. KALLOCH.—While the Buchanan party has not a word to utter against the Roman Catholic priests or the Mormon elders who preached their flocks en masse into Buchanan's support—while they condemn no man who preaches for Slavery, yet they denounce all who preach against slavery, and will never forgive the free Protestant preachers of the North for siding in the popular condemnation of the Kansas iniquity. And if one of these preachers (as preachers of all sects and times too frequently do) dishonor their calling, some Buchanan editors (Forney's friends!) set up a shout of joy as long and loud as Pandemonium sends out over the downfall of angels!

Mr. Kalloch, preacher for the Tremont church, Boston, bore his testimony against the Kansas wrong, and for it is hated and haunted by the Union savers. Two of this class recently accused Mr. K. of adultery. A committee of his church investigated the charge, and pronounce it false.

A proprietor of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" recently sued a prop. of "Balm of Ten Thousand Flowers" for infringing on his sweet scented name. It came out on trial that neither of the unguents were distilled from flowers (as indicated by the name) but were a compound of hog's lard and other ingredients! Both being cheats the Judge kicked the case out of Court—each party to pay his own costs. Right.

DEAR.—The Pennsylvanian says that Mr. Forney has always been "dear to the Democracy of Pennsylvania." We have no doubt of it—he has cost them the high price of a U. S Senator. He is very dear, we think, to them!

News from other Counties.

LYCOMING.—The W'msport "Gazette" notices a movement of the Ladies to establish a Town Hall——Constable Girard arrested a man named Whipple, and took him from Pine Run to Columbia county, on a charge of horse stealing——George W. Browning of Bradford county was committed to Jail in default of $1000 bail on a charge of passing a counterfeit $5 on the York Co. Bank——Owen M'Cann, a brakeman on the W. & E. Railroad, was thrown from a tender at Ralston last Monday, and instantly killed. Two freight trains passed over his body, cutting it in two parts. The deceased was about 30 years of age, and leaves a family at Elmira——Some young men trying their hands at snowballing, one of them threw a ball over the Court House spire, making an altitude of 110 feet.

The conductors on the Cattawissa, Williamsport and Elmira Rail Road, contemplate opening a Reading Room at Williamsport. Excellent.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, one of the most distressing accidents occurred in this place, that it has ever been our lot to publish. About 4 o'clock, while Mrs. Henry Walter had gone out of the room, her only child, an interesting boy, aged about two years, ignited a candle, and on coming into the room its mother, perceiving that her child was absent, hastened up stairs, where, to her horror, she found it with the candle under a bed all ablaze. The bed was also on fire and the room filled to suffocation with smoke. She grasped the child and extinguished the fire on its clothes as soon as possible; but it was burned so dreadfully that six hours afterwards death put an end to its sufferings.—Selinsgrove Dem. 22d ult.

☞ We learn from the last Snyder Co. Volksfreund, that Middleswarth, Kern & Co. have introduced a steam engine into the Beaver Furnace.

Franklin Wetzel is appointed P. M. at Kremer, Snyder Co., in place of Michael Roush, resigned.

Joseph Seibert, one of the Commissioners of Juniata county, having removed to Snyder county, Saml Dimm of Greenwood Tp has been appointed to the vacancy.

POTTSVILLE.—This thriving village is growing up to be a place of some importance. The Miners' Journal estimates the population of the borough at 10,850, and sums up an aggregate of 28,940 inhabitants living within a radius of four miles from the office of that paper. The towns included are Minersville, 5,420; St. Clair, 5,290; Schuylkill Haven, 3,450; Port Carbon, 2,650; Palo Alto, 1,260. Several of these will doubtless be united with Pottsville in the course of a few years.

The citizens of Schuylkill county, without distinction of party, are holding large meetings to sustain Messrs. Lebo and Wagonseler's vote for Gen. Cameron, and some of their ultra party friends condemn them almost as bad as the Pope condemns "heretics."

An Irishman, named Michael Morgan, in the employ of James Kerns, was burned to death in a lime-kiln, on the premises of Samuel Troutman, in Tulpehocken township, during the night of Friday, the 30th ult. It seems that he was on his way to Klapp's tavern at the time, and stopping at the kiln to warm himself, was overpowered by the gas, fell upon the kiln and was burned to death.

The Montour American says: "A number of the former congregation of Rev. Ira Foster in Danville started to attend his funeral, but were prevented from reaching it by the high water, which had swept away the bridge across the Chillasquaque Creek."

The high water, and general thaw started the ice on the Susquehanna on last Sunday, and seriously injured the bridge at Danville. It is estimated that the cost of the damage will not be less than three thousand dollars.

The Danville American says: "A little girl was bitten by a mad dog on Friday last. A woman also had her dress torn by the same animal. Some 20 or 30 dogs which were bitten last week are still at large. Several Mad Dogs were killed on Welsh hill last week, and there are a few left there yet, that ought to be killed. Another Mad dog was killed a few days ago near Isaac Amerman's grocery store, in the North Ward."

John Grey, better known as "old Gabriel," died last week in Danville. He had been a slave in Virginia, but being liberated by the aid of a gentleman in Centre county, died in the enjoyment of humble but happy freedom.

Col. Jos. Levers, of Montour county, is appointed Revenue Commissioner for Judge Jordan's district.

The people of Center county are urging a law for a County Poor House. Several Railroads also claim attention.

We are assured, says the Lebanon Courier, on the best authority, that there were several other Democrats in the Legislature, besides those who voted for General Cameron, who were ready to give him their support, if it was necessary he should have it to elect him.

The Lancaster Bank has made an assignment to prevent losses by forced proceedings from certain persons.

The Montgomery county Court House, at Norristown, was discovered to be on fire at a late hour on Monday night, of last week, by Sheriff Rudy, who resided opposite. The fire was ignited from the heater, and a quantity of wood work destroyed.

Messrs. Spensler and Chase, of Dauphin, last week captured a Catamount three feet long and sixteen inches high.

Bickok's Patent Portable KEYSTONE CIDER & WINE MILL,

patented Nov. 20, 1855.

☞ This is not the Mill sold in 1852. It excels all mills in the market in the ease and speed with which it grinds, and in the great power of the press.

Manufactured at the Eagle Works, Harrisburg.

PLEASE TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!

THAT this is entirely new mill—no expense has been spared in its manufacture—all the materials are the very best, and are used unsparingly. The Cylinders are almost twice the length of the former ones, and all including the top Cylinder, made of Iron. The screw is two inches in diameter, with a heavy 2½ V thread cut on it. The boxes of the Frame can be used instead of wooden—it makes very easy, and the thread of the screw not fast for dust to lodge through it. The power of the Press is very much increased and cannot be broken by any fair means. The arrangement of the Tub and other parts of the Cider is very perfect. The Press and Hopper are all now made to top thus; the Journals run in long bearings; and Justice to the workmanship that must be exercised by any machine of this kind will not allow. Perfection being the aim, both in the arrangement and the mechanical department.

All persons who have been inclined to use the old fashioned mill, are aware how inconvenient it is, and especially those who have not large quantities of apples. By having the Mill on your plantation or farm, you can, at any time in a few minutes' notice, have ground sweet cider for your use; or you can very expeditiously make up a few barrels. The Machine, well worked, is capable of making 6 to 12 barrels of cider a day, with ease.

The machine is made to run by horse, steam or hand power, and when the apples are ground a small boy of fourteen years of age can press the pomace with all ease. The following may be adduced as the decided advantages of this mill:

First—It will make more Cider than any other Press, with a given quantity of apples in a given time and with much less labor and expense.

Second—It will make clearer and sweeter cider than any other Mill.

Third—You can make the cider as you want it, and when you want it; and in quantities from one gallon to barrels.

Fourth—With it you can press your Currants, Cherries, Berries, Cheese, Butter, Lard and Tallow.

Fifth—With it one can at all times have fresh and sweet cider.

With all the advantages resulting from the possession and use of such a Machine—at a price so low that it is within the reach of all—can it be that any intelligent Farmer would do without it?

RECOMMENDATIONS.

JACKSONVILLE, June 15th, 1854.

W. O. HICKOK: Sir—I have one of your Improved Cider Mills; I used the Mill last October, and tried it ground fifty bushels of apples per hour. I keep the ground apples twelve hours, and I can press out two barrels of cider per hour with two men. I can recommend your improved Cider Mill to all fruit growers, for speed and a saving of labor. I can make thirty-five gallons of cider from nine and one-half bushels common apples. The cider can be pressed from the pomace without using water now. Cider will keep one year when water is not used at the press.

JOHN M'CONNEL.

St. Louis, July 29, 1853.

MR. W. O. HICKOK:—Your Mills go home, and we have sold them and telegraphed for two more. As they are a much better made and better looking Mill than the other kind, we know they will quickly alongside of them at $30—price of the other $25.

We have six of the other kind, but, as we said before, people won't look at them alongside of yours.

Yours, Very Respectfully, WM. M. PLANT & Co.

YORKTOWN, STARK CO., June 16, 1853.

MR. W. O. HICKOK: Dear Sir—It gives me great pleasure to lend my feeble influence in recommendation of your invaluable Patent Cider Mill. Any person who has made cider by the old process will quickly perceive how much they will procure one of your new Mills, the utility and economy of your invention. I regard it as one of the best inventions now in use. Although I have had it but one year, it has amply repaid me for what it cost. Cider expressed through one of your machines is less liable to fermentation, and can be preserved sweet longer than that produced through the old fashioned Mill. From the very fact that it is more free from rommel, which always has a tendency to acidity, and unfits it in many instances for domestic use. Yours, respectfully, W. QUIGLEY.

This is to certify, that I purchased of D. Landreth, in October, 1852, one of Hickok's Patent Cider Mills, and have had it in use ever since. Perfectly satisfied with it myself, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it a very useful and indispensable Machine to the farmer. With it, one man and two boys can make from five to six barrels of good cider per day, easy. Many of my neighbors have purchased similar Machines. The Mill has been greatly improved since I bough mine. W. G. WARD.

May 17, 1854. Ridley, Delaware County, Pa.

I hereby certify that I have used W. O. Hickok's Improved Portable Cider Mill, and consider it a valuable invention in the economy of time. The cider is cleaner and better than that made in the usual way. I am well pleased with it, and should be unwilling to part with it for quite a premium on the advanced cost. JOHN S. HALE.

July 1, 1854. Portland, Ct.

☞ More than one hundred Silver Medals and Diplomas have been given to my Mill within the last four years.

M. H. Dersham, M. D.,

HAVING permanently located in Lewisburg, Pa., respectfully tenders his Professional Services to the citizens of this town and vicinity, hoping by prompt attention to the duties of his profession to merit a share of their patronage. Attention will also be paid to Chronic Diseases of every name, and treated with unparalelled success.

DR. DERSHAM graduated at the renowned American Electic Medical College, Cincinnati, having first studied the Old or Allopathic system of medicine, and attended Lectures in one of the Old School Medical Colleges of Philadelphia; but becoming convinced of the superiority of the New or American Eclectic system, he commenced its study, and attended two courses of Lectures in the Reformed or American Eclectic Medical College of the Queen City of the West. This Institution, although yet in its infancy, has no superior in the Great West, and has already annually more graduates than the four other Medical College of Cincinnati, consisting of the leading physicians in all parts of our land, and in Ohio, Indiana, &c., they will soon be more numerous than any other class of physicians.

The principal difference between the Reformed or Eclectic, and the old Allopathic system of medicine, is that the New School uses no medicinal agent that is in any way injurious to the human system, as is minded. Arsenic, Antimony, &c.; Fever sores and harmless agents have of late years been discovered, by the ever liberal and progressive physicians of the New School; that are equally as valuable for those deleterious medicines, Calomel, &c.; therefore we have no need for them. With these valuable new agents, and all other improvements of every other system of medicine, the Reformed Physician, Dr. Dersham has already, in many diseases as none curable in that were once considered incurable, and that too without breaking down the constitution, and creating other diseases, as Orbling, Liberalism, Dropsies, Liver Diseases, Fever Sore Throat, Pleurisy, Bowel Diseases, Consumption, Loss of Voice, &c., &c.

The New School certainly claims a great superiority in the treatment of all diseases. It has been proved by clinical reports that the mortality in taking all diseases together—is less than 2 per cent.; that of Asiatic Cholera is under 3 per cent.

This is an age of progress and improvement, and the New School is always progressing, not being bound down by dogmatic creeds and undisputed theories.
