FIRE .- About 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening last, a fire broke out in the house 25th year, Mrs. Many ANN REIGHENBACH, forof Jonathan F. Yost, 7th St., Lewisburg, next the Cemetery Lodge, and burned it to the ground. The house was of wood, and another wooden building within six his 68th year. feet of it, belonging to Mr. Yost but unfinished, was preserved by active effort with the engine, favored materially by a wind from the direction of the preserved house. The origin of the fire is not ascertained. Mr. Yost saved only a portion of his tools and furniture, but was insured $400 on the building in the Lock Haven company.

-Yesterday, an alarm of fire was created by the burning out of a chimney for Mr. Lenhart, on North Second St.

For good, durable, cheap and beautiful Pictures. Ambrotype Likenesses of a very superior quality on a new and improved plan, far surpassing the Daguerrootype. They are not rest days; they are far more durable than any picture ever made by light, being taken on plate glass to which another plate of the same is hermetically sealed with an indestructible cement, by which the picture retains its bril francy for ages; and it will not corrode by acids, nor be injured by weather or climate. Copies of Dagnerreotypes, Oil Paintings, Engravings, or any other object whatever, are made by this process finer than by any other known. IP Portraits set in elegant frames of morocco, or fancy cases, gold lockels, breast pins, finger rings, &c. &c. at short notice. Also, Daguerreotypes which for true
