A Good Anecdote.

During the inauguration of General Taylor at Washington, D. C., March 4th, 1849, the police regulators, as usual, required that after the speech of the new . President had commenced, the gates of the Capital Grounds should be closed, and confusion.

The Minister of all the Russias, M. Bodisco, was very late, and after the speech had begun, drove up to the gate in great haste, the horses covered with foam, when the coachman shouted to the guard, "Open to gutes, iv you please." The guard shook will be justished at regular intervals of two his head and stood still. The footman his head and stood still. The footman " next called out,

"Will you open ze gate for ze Russian Minister?" The guard again shook his head without answering a word. Next the grand Minister put his head out of the window and called to the guard . "Open ze gate to ze gran Minister of all ze Russians. Minister Plentpotentiary, M. Bodisco; I am ze Minister."

There was a great crowd around the gates within and without, and all this fass created quite a stir. The guard drew himself up, and in a firm and pleasant manner replied, "If you were a free horn eitien of " these United States of America, you could strain the not pass these gates in a carriage."

cheers for the guard, but better manners prevailed, and M. Bodisco stepped out of his elegant equipage and entered the side gate with the sovereign people, his carringe remaining outside until all the ceremonica were over.

I have this day carefully impacted a conductor or hightning Red, with vane and makes, storted by Mr. Thomas Armitage, on hellevine Heure dismoster, and have no besitation in saying that it is not only the least 1 have ever even, but that it is not only one 1 have yet examined that is constructed on strictly schemistic principles. It is with much pleasure that I resummend his conductor to the attention of owners of buildings.
