TO-MORROW is the ever memor able 4th of July, and should the weather prove favorable we anticipate a large and pleasant celebration in Lewisburg. Judge Kelley expects to be here this evening.

We have been asked for the meaning of the term, "Mechanics' Celebration," and whother it is exclusive? It means in the present case, simply a Celebration got up and controlled by Mechanics, which they invite "all the world and the rest of mankind" to attend and participate in.

Trial of Reapers.

We the undersigned farmers of Montour and adjoining counties, were at the trial of Mowers on the 22d of June, 1857, on the farm of Mr. John Mowber in Mahoning township, Montour county. Three Machines were brought into the fields, namely: Hussey's improved Reaper and Mower, manufactured by Geddes, Marsh, & Co., of Lewisburg, Pa., Manny's Patent, manufactured at Hoosick Palls, N. Y.; and Ketcham's manufactured at Reading by Boas & Spangler. The ma-After seeing the operation of the three ma-chines, we give our preference to the Hussey Reaper and Mower, for the following reasons: I. We think it is the most durable machine.

Resolved by the Sensie and House of Representatives of the monoceolth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, hat the following amendments are proposed to the Con-luttion of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the ovisions of the tenth article thereof. PREST AMENDMENT.

OF PUBLIC DESTS. OF PUBLIC DESTS.

Secrios 1. The state may contract debts, to supply causal deficits or failures in revenue, or to meet expenses not otherwise protited for; but the agregate amount of such debts, direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 2. In addition to the above limited power, the state may contract debts to repel fluxsion, suppress insurwhich it was obtained, or to repay as a secand to no other purpose whatever.

Section 2. In addition to the above limited power, the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtainess of the state; but the money arising from the contraction of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Serrors 3. Except the debts above specified in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by or on behalf of the state.

Serrors 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any siddliftional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first session after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum of hes than two hundred and affry thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of alse of stocks corned by the state, together with other funds or resources that may be designated by Jaw. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government; and unless in case of war, invadion, or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

Secries 3. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to reject invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defaul itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness. Sacriox 7. The legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, townellip, or incorporated district, by writne of a rote of its citizens or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation, or to obtain money for or loan its credit to any corporation, association, institution or party.
