Lewisburg Female Seminary Building.

This edifice is so far completed that we can with safety say it will be ready for use at the next Session of the Seminary, in September. It is the most tasty in architecture, and well i adapted to its purpose, of any with which we are acquainted, in the State. Located near native forest trees retained for use and for Mowers? ornament, its situation is in itself everything desirable, and it is at a proper distance from Town and College to ensure privacy and quiet. tractions will be hereafter arranged.

The building is of brick, three storeys in height above the basement. The covering of the roof is a composition povel for this region.
