

Lewisburg Chronicle.

W. W. WARDEN & J. R. CORNELIUS. PUBLISHED FOR THE PROPRIETORS BY W. W. WARDEN & J. R. CORNELIUS. No. 100 North Second Street, Lewisburg, Pa.

Freedom, national; Slavery, sectional!

We appear from the free Slaveholding Supreme Court Judge of the PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA

For Governor, DAVID WILMOT, OF BRADFORD COUNTY.

Canal Commissioner, WILLIAM MILLWARD, OF PHILADELPHIA.

For Judges of the Supreme Court, JAMES VEICH, of Fayette Co., JOSEPH J. LEWIS, of Chester Co.

Union County Nominations. Representative--THOMAS HAYES, of Union county.

Register & Recorder--GEORGE MERRILL, of New Berlin.

Commissioner--RICHARD V. B. LINCOLN, of Hartley.

Treasurer--HUGH P. SHELLER, of Lewisburg.

Auditor--JOHN KESSLER, of New Berlin.

County.

The Whig, American and Republican County Convention met at the county seat on Monday last, and nominated SAMUEL WEIRICK, Esq. of Middleburg, for Senator; Hon. DANIEL WITMAN, of Chapman Tp., for Assembly; ROBERT W. KERN, of Middleburg, for Treasurer; HENRY MUSSEY, Esq., of Mussels Valley for Commissioner; and NED MIDDLESWORTH for 3 years, and DANIEL ROHRER for 2 years, for Auditors. These are names well known to the citizens of both counties, as highly respectable and competent men.

Mr. Weirick served with credit two years as a Representative from old Union, and the compliment is merited, although the hope of overcoming the opposition in Northumberland, Montour and Columbia is small. Judge Wimmer is one of the very best men in the district. Mr. Kern is a thriving, deserving merchant. Mr. Musser is a tried, true man, and was nominated with great unanimity. Messrs. Middleworth and Rohrer are nominated for Auditors, and are also trustworthy, reliable men. H. S. Boyer and J. F. Hummel were appointed Senatorial, and Messrs. C. G. Vernon, H. G. J. Herrold and Capt. John Helm, Representative conferrees.

May we not hope this may be the occasion of a more complete union of our friends, that Snyder may roll up one of her old-fashioned majorities? We are aware of the forces at work to distract and divide, but the honest farmers of Middleburg, Philips and the adjacent parts of it will frustrate all the designs alike of untidy opponents and secret foes.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—On last Monday evening Sheriff Miller received a despatch from Mr. Maley of Pittston to arrest two passengers on the Packet—one Mary Maley, his wife, who had eloped with a man named Bryant Yard. This was the man to be arrested. The Sheriff hastened to the Canal, and along with Morris Van Baskirk, found the Runaways on the Packet and arrested them. They had two trunks with them which the Sheriff secured. They had through tickets to Philadelphia, and no doubt think the lightning played them a scurvy trick.—Bloomburg Star.

Judge Wilmot's letter, in favor of true American principles, says the Reading Journal has completely knocked the breath out of the 'side-door' operators. Their occupation is gone. The rank and file are everywhere flocking to the Union standard—and Sanderson & Co. find themselves in the positions of leaders without a party. They had better come out as flat footed Locofocos, and be done with it. The farce is as good as played out.

The Philadelphia Daily News, in noticing the feat of Capt. M. Cromer, of Mercersburg, Pa., who recently cradled ten acres of grain in ten consecutive hours, remarks that the work is equal to the average performance of the best reaping machines of the country.

The people of New Orleans are treating themselves to fresh peaches, figs, pears and grapes. The editor of the Picayune returns thanks for a basket of fine peaches, Bartlett pears, some delicious Chasselas grapes, and a quantity of plump white and purple figs.

NEW HOPE, Aug. 11.—A break in the Delaware division of the Pennsylvania Canal below here is reported. It will require ten days to repair the damage.

The house of Jas. Wallis, on Valley street, Lewisburg, was entered on Sunday morning last, while the members of the family were at church, and a trunk broken open, and $10 or $15 worth of jewelry and about $10 in money taken therefrom. No clue to the person or persons has been obtained.

At a casual meeting of young folks in Danville, a few days ago, the American says a young man was jocularly told he should get a wife. He said he couldn't get any. "I'll have you," said Mary! They were formally introduced, and in an hour they were man and wife.

Mr. Kim, the murderer, has but one week longer to live. He has to expiate his crime on the gallows one week from to-day.

George A. Snyder, the editor of the Independent Press, has received the appointment of Notary Public at Williamsport, in the place of John M. Kinney, resigned.

From Philadelphia.

PHILAD., Aug. 10, 1857. Ed's Chronicle:

As it rains like blizzards and we have an hour to spare, let us debate it to you in return for your kindness manifested by the receipt of your interesting paper once a week; for the Chronicle is by a good way the best county paper we know of, and comes with its good, moral and patriotic sentiments, like a bright gem in the desert of this newspaper literature with which a free press has flooded the land. Ours is a very free press; in fact, a very loose press; and no lover of good morals, and sound sentiments can contemplate without sickening of heart, the enormous amount of more than doubtful trash which the weekly press sends forth, which constitutes the mental pollution of a vast proportion of the population--indeed their sole reading. The late prize fight, and the new Cunnigham affair, have been a small fortune to the Sunday press, and the disgusting details have been read and canvassed until they are worn thread bare.

Every year seems to increase the annual exodus of the city's population, and as travel is made so cheap that all may enjoy it, there are very few who allow the opportunity to pass. I suppose it is well, but as a people we are very expensive.

The man who only earns five hundred a year tries to live like his neighbor who gets a thousand, who lives to the extent of his means to be as grand as his employer; and so among all classes there is the most reckless indifference to the solid comforts of life, and whole fortunes are lavished on that miserable show which brings neither comfort nor contentment and which is the curse of any people.

There has been a perfect stagnation in business for many months, and money is as scarce as "geese in the Highlands," but our merchants are crowding in their stock making ready for fall trade which may disappoint their hopes. If it does, there will be some trouble; for they have suffered through one season already, and another will ruin some. Building is not near so brisk as we saw it a few years ago, but there are some fine improvements going forward. A few very fine stores have been built on the Butler property at Eighth & Chestnut, and the cellar is being dug for a magnificent and extensive Hotel at the corner of 9th St. Several hundred hands have been working for a month past, but the cellar is not more than half dug yet, so you can form some idea of how long it will require to complete the structure.

You made some inquiries about the old State House last week, which if you have not already had answered, I can possibly enlighten you on.

The old Bell with its prophetic inscription, "Proclaim Liberty throughout all the land," cast twenty three years before the Declaration of Independence, is the most interesting relic to my mind in the city. A short sketch of its history may be new to some of your readers.

In 1752 a bell for the State House was imported from England, and on its first arrival after its arrival, it was cracked.

It was recast by Pass & Stone of Philadelphia in 1759 under the direction of Isaac Norris, Esq., then Speaker of the Colonial Assembly.

In 1777 when the British army approached Philadelphia it was taken down and buried in a place of safety, and on the evacuation of the city, the original steely cracked and replaced by a larger bell, and it hung in the present steeple for many years in a dark dirty room, whence it was removed recently, and now occupies a place on the floor of the room in which the Declaration was signed, and where we trust many generations may see it with object of veneration.

Some years ago an attempt was made to restore its tone by sawing the crack which runs from the tip to the crown, wide; but it was useless, and from that experiment has sprung the inexhaustible quantity of relics which grace cane heads and breastpins all over the land, and will outumber the toes of St. Peter, which the church passes, "fall hollow." The widow's "curse of oil" was nothing to that crack.

The most remarkable thing connected with the old bell, is the variety of metals of which it is cast.

There has passed through my hands any number of pieces to be engraved, among which I have seen not less than a dozen different compositions! An interesting subject for antiquarians. There are, however, very many genuine pieces extant, and we have the satisfaction of possessing a signet ring set with one we know to be such. It need not say that we prize it above gold.

Whenever it is broken up--the bell we mean. We'll see that you have a piece. Will you choose a slice of tongue!

Yours, &c. S.H.P.

The Burdell Case.

Mrs. Cunningham, who has figured in the Doctor Burdell murder case, has been arrested in New York city on charge of felony, connected with the fictitious birth of an heir to the Burdell estate. The contemplated fraud was made known to the District Attorney by her medical advisers and measures were adopted to detect and expose her design. Under the counsel of the officer mentioned, and doctor feigned compliance with Mrs. Cunningham's plan, and pretended to have found a "California widow," who, being about to become a mother, desired to dispose of her child. Mrs. Cunningham eagerly seized upon this, and undertook to get it. The doctor borrowed a child from the Bellevue Hospital, and it was sent to the house in Bond street, where the denouement took place on Monday at noon. There Mrs. Cunningham received it with motherly affection, in the presence of a nurse and her former physician, Dr. Catlin. In the midst of the proceedings the police marched in and arrested all the parties. Dr. Catlin and the nurse were taken to the police station house; but Mrs. Cunningham feigning to be ill from her attachment, was allowed to remain in her chamber under the surveillance of the police.

The City Government met on the 7th inst., and are engaged in perfecting ordinances.

The election returns indicate nearly a unanimous vote in favor of the Topleka Constitution.

It is rumored that Robert Sawyer, the notorious Lewisburg defaulter, is not dead, but is hiding near Saratoga Lake.

President Buchanan, Vice President Breckinridge, and Gen. Cass and Howell Cobb, of the Cabinet, are said to be Free Masons.

Thomas McElrath, of the New York Tribune, has met with a reverse of fortune in consequence of lending his credit to western railroad speculations.

The South newspaper is quite confident that Mr. Buchanan will prove "all right" on the filibuster policy. It says: "We have no fear that he will betray the spirit or the policy of the Ostend report. His administration will give us Cuba."

At an American State Convention held at Dayton, Ohio, on the 5th, Col. P. V. B. Trump was nominated as a candidate for Governor; N. T. Ash, for Lieutenant Governor; Jonathan Harshman, for Treasurer; John R. Arthur, for member of the Board of Public Works; John Davenport, for Supreme Judge, and C. C. Allen, for Secretary of State.

YANKEE PENALTY FOR SUICIDE.—A Hartford paper tells a story of a woman finding a man hanging by his neck to a beam in her house. She cut the rope, threw him down stairs, held his head in a pail of water until life was restored, and then lapped him soundly with a strap. Afterwards he went into her room and began to show fight, when she attacked him with a rolling pin, drove him into the room and locked him in.

COMMENDABLE.—Gen. Zolliekofer, of Tennessee, lost his wife a few days ago. He was a candidate for Congress, and in the midst of a canvass. His competitor generously proposed that they should close their appointments to speak, and let the sorcerers do as they pleased. The proposition was, of course, accepted.

THE CROPS OF OHIO.—The crops in Ohio are estimated this season as follows:—Oats, twenty millions bushels; rye, one million; barley, five hundred thousand; potatoes, six million five hundred thousand—making an aggregate of 28,000,000 bushels, and being an average of forty per cent. increase on the crop of 1856.

A flash of lightning lately ran down a stove pipe in a bar room at Oranoco, Miss., and upset a man who was leaning back with his feet on the stove. Being pretty well pickled with rum, he was proof against all merely electrical fluids, and was unhurt. We would not recommend the use of intoxicating liquor as a protection against lightning, however; for electricity is quite apt to follow any kind of a liquid, and is just as likely to split a rum cask as anything else.

THE TONGUE.—A white fur on the tongue attends simple fever and inflammation. Yellowness of the tongue attends a derangement of the liver, and is common to bilious and typhus fevers. A tongue yellowish red on the tip and edge, or down the centre or over the whole surface, attends inflammation of the mucous membrane of the stomach or bowels. A white velvet tongue attends mental diseases. A tongue red at the lips, becoming brown, dry and glazed, attends typhus state. The description of symptoms might be extended infinitely, taking in all the propensities and obliquities of mental and moral condition. The tongue is a most expressive as well as unvarying dial.—Scientific American.

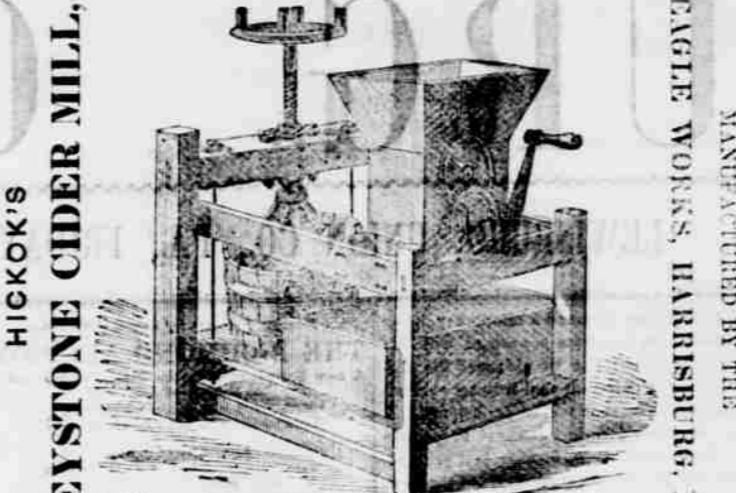

Dr. Staats says that delirium tremens is becoming much more manageable than formerly. He attributes this to the immense amount of strychnine used in the manufacture of whiskey at the present time. By using this poison, distillers get about fifty per cent. more liquor than a bushel of corn than they formerly did. In Ohio, the use of strychnine in the manufacture of whiskey has become so great that the Legislature, a short time since, had to pass a law, making the offence a crime punishable by two years' confinement in the penitentiary.

OLDEST MAN IN AMERICA.—A correspondent of the Cassville, Ga., Standard, says there is now living in Murray County, Ga., on the waters of Holy Creek, a Revolutionary veteran, who has attained the age of one hundred and thirty-four. His name is John Hames. He was born in Mecklenburg County, Va., and was a lad ten years old when Washington was in his cradle. He was thirty two when Braddock met his disastrous defeat on the Monongahela. He, with several of his neighbors, set forth to join the ill fated commander, but after several days' march, were turned back by the news of his overthrow. He migrated to South Carolina nearly a hundred years ago. He was in thirteen considerable conflicts during the War of Independence, and in skirmishes and encounters with the Indians, with Tories and with British, times beyond memory. He was with Gates at Camden, with Morgan at Cowpens, with Green at Hillsboro' and Eutaw, and with Marion in many a bold rush into a tory camp or red coat quarters.

St. Louis, August 11.—Kansas advices to the 8th inst., state that Gen. Walker returned to Lawrence with the U. S. troops, the apprehensions of an attack by the Indians proving groundless.

The City Government met on the 7th inst., and are engaged in perfecting ordinances.

The election returns indicate nearly a unanimous vote in favor of the Topleka Constitution.
