Of these, Br. Sanford's Integretaries, I alver Remedy, stands first and fore most among the remedies of the day that can be relied on us a medicine that is all it is recommended by its proprietors. It advertises itself on every trial, for there are none who use it but tell their friends todo so, and so it goes from mouth to mouth till all the people of the Union have learned the good of his truly valuable medicine. It is recommended with testimonials to prove its virtue for the cure of liver complaints of every kind, from the worst Dyspepsia to a common Headache, and is particularly adapted to Jaundies. Beranged Stomach, Bowel Complaints and diseases of children.

One or two doses are sail to cure a cold with scarce a findure. It is worth a trial for this alone. It is especially adapted to the use of ladies, particularly those of selectary habits. Some ladies of the highest standing it society have given their certificates of its efficacy, and we say to all who are alling, try one bottle, and you will never be without it.
