Middleburg Public Buildings.

We this week for the first time saw the buildings for public purposes erected in and for Snyder county, by private subscriptions; and we must in justice say that the style and appearance of them both, surpassed our anticipations. The numerous disparaging allusions that have been made to them, we certainly think unjust. They are superior to the buildings so long used by both counties at New Berlin; and although not as expensive as those at Lewisburg, yet they will probably answer the necessities of that county for a long time to come. When we reflect that Middleburg has not one third or perhaps one fourth the pecuniary ability of Lewisburg, it is apparent that Middleburg has shown quite as liberal a spirit as Lewisburg has in the matter. No one could expect that the people of that town could advance means for as elegant and costly public buildings, as those of our own. And when they have fully discharged their present indebtedness, no doubt they will all feel better inclined to adorn their town with pavements, shade trees, and other accommodations and attractions suited to and demanded by residents and visitors.

The Court Room is easy to hear in, very light, has a superior ventilator, in the centre of the ceiling overhead, and will accommodate sufficient spectators. The offices, underneath, would have been better if a foot higher and more commodious, yet still sufficient. The safe means for the admission of air, which we fear may be dangerous to records by causing them to dampen. The Jail is an elegant and stylish looking apparent brick residence (two full storeys in front, and a basement) as there is in the town. The back part of the building is of stone, with ironed windows and doors, containing two ironed rooms above, and two below; and a small walled yard in the rear. The rooms for prisoners will answer, ordinarily; but in case of a large number they could not be confined separately in strict accordance with law.—Happily the Jail of Snyder county, like that of Union county, has no inmates; and the very clever Sheriff are not at present prices, compelled to take boarders at 21 cts. per day.

The Snyder County Court appointed J. L. Shindel, Foreman of the Grand Jury. Monday and Tuesday were consumed in a case of alleged road obstruction at Port Trevorton. Another case, taken up Wednesday, it was supposed would consume most of the week. There will be a Court next week also.

The meeting at Middleburg on Tuesday last, was (considering the very disagreeable weather) much the most spirited and cheering we have seen this year. Veterans in the cause were there, as well as young recruits, who listened with the most intense interest to the speakers; and the allusions of Messrs. Middleburgh and Miller to the cause of Kansas and to the name of Wilmot, elicited strong applause. Mingling considerably, for two days, with old and tried friends of the good old cause from almost every section of the county, we were surprised and gratified with the union and harmony manifested, and the apparent strong determination to elect their men and give their candidates all an old-fashioned majority. The Democracy are, as they were last year, putting forth every exertion to effect an overturn in Snyder county: But a manly, systematic rally, and a thorough canvass, with a few spirited meetings, is all that is required to give all the Union nominees from 500 to 500 majority. Friends in Snyder! profiting by the errors past, press on to victory!

A brief trip through parts of Union and Snyder counties this week, was almost as pleasant as if undertaken in June—so green were the pastures and meadows, and so fresh and unchanged were the leaves on trees and shrubs. Corn and buckwheat appeared everywhere abundant, and much of it already harvested. Wheat produces even less than was anticipated, but millers are buying wheat (from abroad) to grind, while farmers have sown new varieties of wheat from various localities. (We must this season learn to cook—and to relish—that cheap and wholesome article of subsistence, Indian Corn. This with a careful sowing and use of vegetables, may carry many families safely through the winter, without wheat, and retain what money we have in the country.) Potatoes are also somewhat injured. In short, we found not the first Merchant who had mustered sufficient courage and cash to go to the City for New Goods.

—Rather behind the times was that fine man with a big farm who some years ago wrongly supposed himself unable to take the newspaper. He was lugging a bag of wheat over his field and sowing by hand the miserable poor stuff raised from the same soil. Seed with a better origin, put in with a drill, would have ensured a better crop with less toil.

FREEDBORN exhibits the most signs of progress of any town we visited. There are a number of brick and wooden houses, offices and shops put up this year. (Dr. Houtz has taken the Walter mercantile establishment at Centerville, and will move there.) The Freedburg Academy has been rebuilt, and looks even better than its predecessor—a superior monument to the enterprise, sagacity, and love of virtue of the independent citizens of Washington township. The School is well officered, and we are glad to learn in a flourishing condition. Prof. Burchfield, Superintendent of Juniata county, delivered an interesting address in the Academy, Tuesday evening.

SELINGROVE never displayed its fair proportions to better advantage than we approached it (in the light of an afternoon sun) from the west. We had not time to call, but marked many evidences of prosperity particularly in the upper or north part of the borough. That vane of the new brick church house, bent down to the wood work of the steeple, and pointing pertinaciously and horizontally east, still maintains an orthodox protestation against "raving with every wind of doctrine."

Some of the more enterprising and far-sighted citizens of Selingrove are endeavoring to secure the NORMAL SCHOOL for this District, in that Borough as a central location. A preliminary meeting has been held, and a General Convention of those friendly to the effort, is called at Selingrove for Wednesday, 7th Oct. at 10 A.M. This, or the Bridge, or both, is far better business than that of the small politicians who attempt to quarrel with the citizens of the county because they preferred by a large majority another competitor for the privilege of paying a grinding tax for the honor (and profits) of a county court.

—But, to cut our cogitations short, after all "there's no place like HOME."

UNION COUNTY COURT.—In the case of Com'th vs John Sholl, verdict was rendered of Not Guilty, but Deft to pay the costs.
Com'th vs Charles Stees, for cutting timber. Verdict, Guilty.
David Herr for Dr. White vs Dr. Thornton, claim for services. Verdict for Deft.
Quinn, convicted as a prize term of three on Miss Polk, was sentenced to pay $50 fine and costs.

Wm. Sizer plead guilty to the indictment against him.
James Wall, Edward O'Shaughnessy, and M. Gagen, were naturalized.
A petition was presented for the incorporation of the Lewisburg Literary Association—a very desirable project, which we hope to notice more fully hereafter.

Our Legislative Candidates.
THOMAS HAYES, Esq., the nominee of Union county, is a man whose qualifications are undoubted, and whose character stands without spot or blemish. Possessing rare business talents, proverbially honest, industrious, and enterprising, and having a thorough knowledge of the wants of the people of the district, no better selection could be desired. Mr. Hayes is known throughout Union and Snyder as a man of the finest social qualities, and beloved in all the relations of life. Twice have his fellow-citizens presented him for the Legislature, thus attesting the deep hold he has in their confidence and affections; and we have every guarantee from his past life that he will bring no discredit upon it. We predict his election by a very large majority.

Hon. DANIEL WITMER is at present one of the Associate Judges of Snyder county. His election is a most excellent one, eminently worthy the honest yeomanry of his county, and it was only after the most urgent solicitations that he consented to allow the use of his name for the honorable position of a legislator. For honesty, integrity, industry, and capability, he has no superior in the District. He is a good man, a strong man, a worthy and deserving man, and as such we confidently look for his triumphant election.

We take great pleasure in recommending them to the suffrages of the people of Juniata county. That our opponents have no chance of success against so good men, may be judged from the character of their nominations. Instead of placing in nomination prominent and influential Democrats, they have sought out a couple of young gentils, and set them up to be knocked down. But if the Leocoeos choose to make a farce of the Legislative contest, let them; we'll make it a solemn reality, by electing men of excellent character and fitness. Let us go to work manfully.—Juniata Sentinel.

The Democracy of the Luzerne District, after a five days' session at Wilkes-Barre, on the 57th ballot nominated Paul Leidy, Esq., of Danville for Congress.

The Democratic Senatorial Conference for Northumberland &c. met at Danville on Saturday, made no nominations and adjourned to meet in Milton, next Saturday. The opposition Conferees meet at Milton on Monday next.
