pea_Our cotemporaries who a year ago were promising and declaring that the Constitution of Kansas must be submitted to the people, are now dumb-evidently waiting to see how Buchanan goes; and as he goes, they, spaniel-like, will go too!

But the leading Democratic papers in the North (except the Pennsylvanian) are right on that issue, and may now abolish Slavery in Kansas if they will.

-It looks a little odd, to be sure, to see Douglas, Forney, &c., working with the Black Republicans on a Kansas question; some times see stolen property advertised: do the fair thing "and no questions asked!"

The Bogus Constitution of Kansas was not officially published, and there is yet great dispute as to what it really isthe humbug Schedule is published.

The People of Kansas have called a Convention to devise means to resist this attempt of a foreign power to impose upon them an abborrent Slave Government.

Only last Spring, Pres. Buchanan, in his instructions to Gov. Walker, said, "When such a Constitution (of Kansas) shall be submitted to the people of the Territory, they must be protected in their right of going for or against that instru-ment; and the fair expression of the popu-lar will must not be interrupted." Now, to New Berlin. however, it is proclaimed that Mr. Buchanan, his Cabinet, and the South, are deternamed that the Constitution shall be adopted without submission to the People!!

It is well known and admitted by all candid men, that the Canal and other local questions were used to the disadvantage of the Republicans in New York and Obio, and that the leading Fillmore men sold themselves, and all they could take with them, to the Democracy. The remaining Americans are honestly such, and will never go with the so-called Democracy. The Republicans are mostly business men, who for months past have been too deeply involved with their own affairs to labor in politics, and thousands did not vote at all; while the denizens of the Five Points, the Post Masters and trained bands of Locofocoism had nothing to keep them from which we understand was cashed by Navaling. What Good will Accrue from the late Rebellion in India?-If we look at India, and the fearful scenes enacted there, what good can we discover as going to proceed out of this? While lamenting those awful crimes, and the misery produced upon hold of late, and for five or six years has thousands, we believe that the good which will at least appear will be sufficient to outweigh and overtop all the evil.

In the first place, it will do some good to the governments that have ruled over its swarthy millions, grinding and crushing down the poor for the last fifty years, and melting down, as it were, their blood and bones into gold and silver, to fill the treaand less responsible or conscientious than almost any Christian government on earth. In this respect, the East India Company, though better, because more sagacious in the administration of justice, than the Mohammedan rulers around, is one of the greatest disgraces of Christianity. It has ndered to heathenism, and ignored Christianity. It has, for gold, sold again the cause of Him once betrayed by Judas for thirty pieces of silver. It has obstructed the work of Missionaries, ground down the tion of life, perhaps, as those of other des "Were Fernando Wood a Decil incurnate, the fact of his Selection as the standard bearer of pots around; and some, indeed of the highest and most successful officers have be men of carnest piety, but, if so, they have suffered persecution for it. More of them. however, have been of an utterly opposite character, men whose glory has been in their shame; officers who have trained the native troops in wholesale, systematic and open profligacy, to an extent that would hardly be believed, and could not be fully described. All the idea which those Seimportance of the contest, and exerted all poys have obtained of a Christian is that of a man who curses and swears, whose only prayers are oaths, who never goes sober to bed when any one will drink with him, but who gambles all the day and is guilty of every debauchery by night. The Sepoys might even justly say, if brought to trial, that they had only returned, with some extra atrocities and depravities by way of interest, the crimes which Europeans had taught and encouraged them to commit on the natives to a far larger extent. Many whole villages of native British subjects in India have they demoralized. Storms clear the air, and this storm will probably wipe out the most mercenary, and, therefore, deprayed of Christian gov-ernments, the East India Company, and make India a British Province, with all religions on a footing of perfect equality, and where missionaries can operate withtend their labors.
