ADVERTISE. NOW !

If merchants would sell their goods at the lowest rates possible, they would draw many a rusty dollar from its hiding place, where it will remain until strong inducements are held out to bring i forth. Human nature is the same the world over, and if people discover that goods are to be bought "dirt cheap," money will at once fly as nimbly as ever. There are thousands of dollars that always become useless in such times as these ; just at the very time when we can not afford to have it remain idle. Let ev. CARDS, Circulars, Bills, &c. The ery dealer in goods, of whatever description, offer them at prices that will com- ess men generally, is more common in mand a sale, and thus the money can be most communities than in ours. A raised upon a stock of goods in a few larger range of operations may be weeks, that would require months to raise by standing out for high prices-and any one would rather have the first cost and freight, than to keep the goods. Money will be made by such an operation, as, the sooner cash becomes plentiful, the sooner can people discharge their debts and the whole community is benefitted.

The Priest and the Irish Milkman. [The following amusing instance of Irish wit on the part of a Roman Catholic milkman, in foiling the attempts of a priest to make him give up reading the Bible, was related by Rev. Dr. DowLING, of New York, in an address, anniversary week :]

On reaching the milkman's humble ca bin, in the county of Kerry, the priest thus addressed him :

"Why, my good fellow, I am informed that you are in the habit of reading the Bible; is my information correct ?"

"Sure, it is true, plase your riverence, and a fine book it is too."

"But you know," said the priest, "that it is very wrong for an ignorant man like you to read the Scriptures ?"

"Ah !" replied Pat, "but you must be afther provin' that same, before I consint to lave off."

"That I will do, from the Book itself. Now turn to 1 Peter, 22 : 'As new born babes, desire the sincere milk of the Word, that ye may grow thereby.' Now you are only a babe, and are therefore wrong to read the Scripture yourself. You are told to 'desire the sincere milk of the Word,' and one who understands what the 'sincere milk' is, must give it you and tend you."

Pat listened attentively to the priest's authoritative address, but, in no way at a loss, replied: "But be aisy, your river-ence, while I tell you. A little time ago, but the priest's where they intend to keep a beavy stock of all kinds of Lumber, and are always prepared to fill all orders they may receive at short no-tice, and all work warranted to give satisfac-tion both in price and workmanship. J. D. DIEFFENDERFER, when I was took ill, I got a man to milk my cows, and what do you think he did ? Why, astead of givin' me the rale milk, he cheated me by putting wather in it ; and if you get my Bible, perhaps you may be A after serving me the same way. No, I'll kape my cow and milk it myself, and then I shall get the sincere milk, and not, as I might from you, mixed with wather."

The priest, thus finding himself defeated, and desirous that the mischief should spread no farther, said, in a conciliatory tone, "Well, Pat, I see you are a little wiser than I thought you ; and, as you are not quite a babe, you may keep your Bible, but don't lend it or read it to your neighbors."

Pat, eyeing his admonitor very cunting ly and seriously, replied : "Sure, while I have a cow, and can give a little milk to
