CAPTAIN JAMES THOMPSON Was an early settler in Buffaloe Valley, and, during a predatory incursion of savages, was taken and carried into captivity. Sever al incorrect publications of his sufferings have been made, but the following is believed to be correct, as it was taken down from his own lips, in 1832, by James F. Linn, Esq., of Lewisburg, and entered in his journal.

Some time previous to his capture he had removed his wife and children to Penns Creek, for greater security against the Indians. In March 1781, he was going from Lewisburg (then Derrstown) to farmers—the best error officed.
