

Lewisburg Chronicle.

On Christmas Day, 1847, the first No. of this paper under the writer's charge was issued.

Ten Years in Lewisburg.

On Christmas Day, 1847, the first No. of this paper under the writer's charge was issued.

The downfall of Sebastopol and the results generally of the wars by the coalition of England and France, have developed heroic achievements on the part of the English, French, and Circassians, not exceeded in the history of mankind.

The completed conquest of Mexico by Gen. Scott, his base recall, and all the confused and fruitless events of Central America, we can but refer to.

Some of the Buccaneer expeditions, against Cuba, Sonora, and other parts of Central America, by Walker and others, have met a deserved fate.

Of the triumphs of peace, the discoveries in Africa by Livingston, Bowen, and others—the enlarged geographical knowledge of every quarter of the globe—the Japan Expedition—and the London, Paris and New York Palaces and Exhibitions, leave a joyful impression.

The coup d'état of Napoleon III., the short careers of Lamartine and Cavaignac, and the transformation of a quasi Republic into a Monarchy, is merely a repetition of the career of the "Uncle of the Nephew."

The continuance of the French Empire thus long, is a mystery and a disappointment to the world.

The "Flowery Land" (China) has been "opened" more in ten years, than in all her previous history.

The 10 volumes, of over 100 seven column sheets each issued by us, embrace an amount of reading matter that would equal 500 volumes of 200 pages duodecimo form in ordinary book type.

Commencing an entire stranger to the whole community, with but 150 adhering subscribers, and laboring under previous failures of printers here to properly keep up a paper, the virtue of perseverance was severely exercised in us.

Among the deceased eminent statesmen of our land whose eloquence or wisdom rendered them among our nation's jewels, first and foremost is John Quincy Adams.

Of the warriors of the Old World, Wellington the Conqueror of Napoleon, and Cavaignac the second Lafayette of France, have been called away by the inexorable Conqueror of all.

Among the celebrated literary characters whose "works" have been closed, Mrs. Osgood, Mrs. Judson, ("Fanny Forrester,") Rufus W. Griswold, Douglas Jerrold, Hugh Miller, Berger, Prof. Wilson, and Drs. Bird and Kane, are all with us at the moment recall.

Cholera and other alarming diseases "fish is heir to"—Railroad accidents—Steamboat explosions—sweeping Fires—Defalcations—Blighted Characters—Crime in its multiplied forms—these sad records can be referred to, not described.

Of the delusions which afflict and sadly mar the hopes of interesting wisdom in our race, Mormonism is most conspicuous.

The sudden rise of "Sam" and his irresistible progress until he encountered "old Virginia" and was "divided in his own household" on the Slavery question, will be a phenomenon hard to be accounted for by the historian.

The downfall of Sebastopol and the results generally of the wars by the coalition of England and France, have developed heroic achievements on the part of the English, French, and Circassians, not exceeded in the history of mankind.

The completed conquest of Mexico by Gen. Scott, his base recall, and all the confused and fruitless events of Central America, we can but refer to.

Some of the Buccaneer expeditions, against Cuba, Sonora, and other parts of Central America, by Walker and others, have met a deserved fate.

Of the triumphs of peace, the discoveries in Africa by Livingston, Bowen, and others—the enlarged geographical knowledge of every quarter of the globe—the Japan Expedition—and the London, Paris and New York Palaces and Exhibitions, leave a joyful impression.

The coup d'état of Napoleon III., the short careers of Lamartine and Cavaignac, and the transformation of a quasi Republic into a Monarchy, is merely a repetition of the career of the "Uncle of the Nephew."

The continuance of the French Empire thus long, is a mystery and a disappointment to the world.

The "Flowery Land" (China) has been "opened" more in ten years, than in all her previous history.

The 10 volumes, of over 100 seven column sheets each issued by us, embrace an amount of reading matter that would equal 500 volumes of 200 pages duodecimo form in ordinary book type.

Commencing an entire stranger to the whole community, with but 150 adhering subscribers, and laboring under previous failures of printers here to properly keep up a paper, the virtue of perseverance was severely exercised in us.

Among the deceased eminent statesmen of our land whose eloquence or wisdom rendered them among our nation's jewels, first and foremost is John Quincy Adams.

Of the warriors of the Old World, Wellington the Conqueror of Napoleon, and Cavaignac the second Lafayette of France, have been called away by the inexorable Conqueror of all.

Among the celebrated literary characters whose "works" have been closed, Mrs. Osgood, Mrs. Judson, ("Fanny Forrester,") Rufus W. Griswold, Douglas Jerrold, Hugh Miller, Berger, Prof. Wilson, and Drs. Bird and Kane, are all with us at the moment recall.

Cholera and other alarming diseases "fish is heir to"—Railroad accidents—Steamboat explosions—sweeping Fires—Defalcations—Blighted Characters—Crime in its multiplied forms—these sad records can be referred to, not described.

Of the delusions which afflict and sadly mar the hopes of interesting wisdom in our race, Mormonism is most conspicuous.

The sudden rise of "Sam" and his irresistible progress until he encountered "old Virginia" and was "divided in his own household" on the Slavery question, will be a phenomenon hard to be accounted for by the historian.

The Leecompton Constitution in France—and the Napoleon Election in Kansas—are twin swindles, worthy of each other, perpetrated under the abused names of "Liberty" and "Democracy."

The most remarkable political defuncts which have been experienced, are those of the veteran Cass, the chivalric Fremont, and Proviso Wilmot.

The old Town Hall—remembered for its meetings and the eloquence expended within its dingy walls—has been razed,

Franklin Pierce. (The world's history presents undeserved reverses that our finite wisdom can not account for.)

The principal labor of the Administration of Pierce (aside from the bombardment of Greytown) was his falsehood to all former professions in re-opening the Slave agitation, by repealing the Missouri Compromise, and thus inviting a contest for Slavery on the plains of Kansas.

Among those whose ADVERTISEMENTS appear in the first No's under our charge, but few remain. Changes of fortune have fairly illustrated the mutability of all things earthly.

The Lewisburg Bridge is one of the most permanent institutions among us, having completed forty years of business on the same spot, with not a suspension of specie's receipts, and having now the same President (Wm. Cameron Esq.) Treasurer and Clerk (the elder James Goddes) and Tollkeeper (Alex's Lewis) it has had since we have known it.

The Lewisburg Academy maintains its former good standing, and Mr. Randolph, an Assistant in his morality to Rev. S. Shearer, has continued, first as an Associate with R. C. Ross, but most of the time as sole Principal, until this day.

Recognized by many in Lewisburg and vicinity as those who in good old age have fallen asleep, we recall the names of Messrs. Metzgar, Montgomery, Shafer, Dentler, Gen. Green, Banks, Moores, Deratt, Patterson, Rhoads, Stearns, Watsons, Reber, Sanderson, Dye, Stahls, R.G.H. Hayes, Dieffenbarger, Dale, Conroy, Hummel, Foreman, Troxel, McClure, Wallis, Seebold, Platt, Roush, Johnson, Mason, Sprual, Scott, Rogers, Raser, Funk, McCormick, Young, Miller, Mackey, House, Armstrong, Mages, Foster, Bed, Dr. Vanvalzah (also his son and grandson, both Dr's) &c. &c.

From the ranks of the Gospel Ministry were Thomas Hall, Mensch, Shindel, Eyer, Mathias, the two Brysons, Rittenhouse, Elliott, Worden, Dawson, Foster, &c.

Among those who have represented us in Congress, a Snyder and a Kremer—and of our State Legislators a Yearick, a Reber, a Malten, a Vanvalzah, a Hall, a Fank and an Adams—are no more.

The names and forms of many venerable mothers—fond wives—blooming maidens and passionately beloved children are also often recalled to memory, and the silent tear for their loss, will unbidden start. Although less known beyond the sacred precincts of home, their imperishable "record is on high," and their love is sweetly cherished.

But why recall this dismal record of the triumphs of the grave, in these days of festivity? Dear Reader! each name here given, with ten thousand that might be added, is a special call upon you to be wise in time and prepare for the great change which awaits each one. It should chasten our ambition—moderate our desires for wealth—temper our prejudices and animosities—stimulate us to every good word and work—and make us every day the friends and blessings given us by the All-wise Judge.

Often, also, have marriage alliances been recorded in our columns. Some who are there named, have been since called away by death. Others have moved from our knowledge. Some are suffering from adverse fortune, or from ill-assorted unions with their unspeakable sorrows. Others rejoice in their choice and the smiles of Providence. Some have children who already express more or less of gratification—with an occasional criticism, we presume more reflected than original) on the weekly arrival of the Chronicle.

Turning the thousand broad leaves we have printed, we find many local issues, which extort now a smile and then a sigh. There was the Market house controversy, (half over);—Credit System, (statu quo); Half Century, (postponed); Inflexible, (wilted out); Chamberlin's Journal (concluded, but more wanted); the Railroad and the New Berlin Know Nothing imbrolios, (which came off a good deal "tangled"); the Battle of Gundy's Lane (a drawn battle); the Division question (all right by "45"); the Contesting frolic (decided, by the Judge, "no cause of further action—county for costs"); the County Seat location (O. K. again by about 200); and the Location No. 2, (vide the Court House, page 2.) All these, and a and a large, neat School Building erected in its place. The number of Public Schools has more than doubled, and a grading system established which if properly carried out will advance materially the cause of popular education.

All our Hotels have changed hands. The three Lawyers of 1847 have been diminished one by the elevation of Mr. Hickok to the head of the State School Department, while seven others fill his place. A large accession has also been made to the department of Medicine in its various schools.

Among those whose ADVERTISEMENTS appear in the first No's under our charge, but few remain. Changes of fortune have fairly illustrated the mutability of all things earthly.

The Lewisburg Bridge is one of the most permanent institutions among us, having completed forty years of business on the same spot, with not a suspension of specie's receipts, and having now the same President (Wm. Cameron Esq.) Treasurer and Clerk (the elder James Goddes) and Tollkeeper (Alex's Lewis) it has had since we have known it.

The Lewisburg Academy maintains its former good standing, and Mr. Randolph, an Assistant in his morality to Rev. S. Shearer, has continued, first as an Associate with R. C. Ross, but most of the time as sole Principal, until this day.

Recognized by many in Lewisburg and vicinity as those who in good old age have fallen asleep, we recall the names of Messrs. Metzgar, Montgomery, Shafer, Dentler, Gen. Green, Banks, Moores, Deratt, Patterson, Rhoads, Stearns, Watsons, Reber, Sanderson, Dye, Stahls, R.G.H. Hayes, Dieffenbarger, Dale, Conroy, Hummel, Foreman, Troxel, McClure, Wallis, Seebold, Platt, Roush, Johnson, Mason, Sprual, Scott, Rogers, Raser, Funk, McCormick, Young, Miller, Mackey, House, Armstrong, Mages, Foster, Bed, Dr. Vanvalzah (also his son and grandson, both Dr's) &c. &c.

From the ranks of the Gospel Ministry were Thomas Hall, Mensch, Shindel, Eyer, Mathias, the two Brysons, Rittenhouse, Elliott, Worden, Dawson, Foster, &c.

Among those who have represented us in Congress, a Snyder and a Kremer—and of our State Legislators a Yearick, a Reber, a Malten, a Vanvalzah, a Hall, a Fank and an Adams—are no more.

The names and forms of many venerable mothers—fond wives—blooming maidens and passionately beloved children are also often recalled to memory, and the silent tear for their loss, will unbidden start. Although less known beyond the sacred precincts of home, their imperishable "record is on high," and their love is sweetly cherished.

But why recall this dismal record of the triumphs of the grave, in these days of festivity? Dear Reader! each name here given, with ten thousand that might be added, is a special call upon you to be wise in time and prepare for the great change which awaits each one. It should chasten our ambition—moderate our desires for wealth—temper our prejudices and animosities—stimulate us to every good word and work—and make us every day the friends and blessings given us by the All-wise Judge.

Often, also, have marriage alliances been recorded in our columns. Some who are there named, have been since called away by death. Others have moved from our knowledge. Some are suffering from adverse fortune, or from ill-assorted unions with their unspeakable sorrows. Others rejoice in their choice and the smiles of Providence. Some have children who already express more or less of gratification—with an occasional criticism, we presume more reflected than original) on the weekly arrival of the Chronicle.

Turning the thousand broad leaves we have printed, we find many local issues, which extort now a smile and then a sigh. There was the Market house controversy, (half over);—Credit System, (statu quo); Half Century, (postponed); Inflexible, (wilted out); Chamberlin's Journal (concluded, but more wanted); the Railroad and the New Berlin Know Nothing imbrolios, (which came off a good deal "tangled"); the Battle of Gundy's Lane (a drawn battle); the Division question (all right by "45"); the Contesting frolic (decided, by the Judge, "no cause of further action—county for costs"); the County Seat location (O. K. again by about 200); and the Location No. 2, (vide the Court House, page 2.) All these, and a more or two more of other ardent contraversers, were they not discussed, more or less pro and con (especially pro) in the Lewisburg Chronicle?

The FUTURE—the next ten years—will they come to us? and what will be their memories? There may be many we shall greet with the compliments of a New Year, in another decennial period.

Among those whose ADVERTISEMENTS appear in the first No's under our charge, but few remain. Changes of fortune have fairly illustrated the mutability of all things earthly.

The Lewisburg Bridge is one of the most permanent institutions among us, having completed forty years of business on the same spot, with not a suspension of specie's receipts, and having now the same President (Wm. Cameron Esq.) Treasurer and Clerk (the elder James Goddes) and Tollkeeper (Alex's Lewis) it has had since we have known it.

The Lewisburg Academy maintains its former good standing, and Mr. Randolph, an Assistant in his morality to Rev. S. Shearer, has continued, first as an Associate with R. C. Ross, but most of the time as sole Principal, until this day.

Recognized by many in Lewisburg and vicinity as those who in good old age have fallen asleep, we recall the names of Messrs. Metzgar, Montgomery, Shafer, Dentler, Gen. Green, Banks, Moores, Deratt, Patterson, Rhoads, Stearns, Watsons, Reber, Sanderson, Dye, Stahls, R.G.H. Hayes, Dieffenbarger, Dale, Conroy, Hummel, Foreman, Troxel, McClure, Wallis, Seebold, Platt, Roush, Johnson, Mason, Sprual, Scott, Rogers, Raser, Funk, McCormick, Young, Miller, Mackey, House, Armstrong, Mages, Foster, Bed, Dr. Vanvalzah (also his son and grandson, both Dr's) &c. &c.

From the ranks of the Gospel Ministry were Thomas Hall, Mensch, Shindel, Eyer, Mathias, the two Brysons, Rittenhouse, Elliott, Worden, Dawson, Foster, &c.

Among those who have represented us in Congress, a Snyder and a Kremer—and of our State Legislators a Yearick, a Reber, a Malten, a Vanvalzah, a Hall, a Fank and an Adams—are no more.

The names and forms of many venerable mothers—fond wives—blooming maidens and passionately beloved children are also often recalled to memory, and the silent tear for their loss, will unbidden start. Although less known beyond the sacred precincts of home, their imperishable "record is on high," and their love is sweetly cherished.

But why recall this dismal record of the triumphs of the grave, in these days of festivity? Dear Reader! each name here given, with ten thousand that might be added, is a special call upon you to be wise in time and prepare for the great change which awaits each one. It should chasten our ambition—moderate our desires for wealth—temper our prejudices and animosities—stimulate us to every good word and work—and make us every day the friends and blessings given us by the All-wise Judge.

Often, also, have marriage alliances been recorded in our columns. Some who are there named, have been since called away by death. Others have moved from our knowledge. Some are suffering from adverse fortune, or from ill-assorted unions with their unspeakable sorrows. Others rejoice in their choice and the smiles of Providence. Some have children who already express more or less of gratification—with an occasional criticism, we presume more reflected than original) on the weekly arrival of the Chronicle.

Turning the thousand broad leaves we have printed, we find many local issues, which extort now a smile and then a sigh. There was the Market house controversy, (half over);—Credit System, (statu quo); Half Century, (postponed); Inflexible, (wilted out); Chamberlin's Journal (concluded, but more wanted); the Railroad and the New Berlin Know Nothing imbrolios, (which came off a good deal "tangled"); the Battle of Gundy's Lane (a drawn battle); the Division question (all right by "45"); the Contesting frolic (decided, by the Judge, "no cause of further action—county for costs"); the County Seat location (O. K. again by about 200); and the Location No. 2, (vide the Court House, page 2.) All these, and a

John B. Linn, ATTORNEY AT LAW, in Frick's Block, North 3d St., near Market, Lewisburg, Pa.

MORE GOODS AT WEST MILTON! J. B. Datesman, At the well known Old Stand in Kelly township (west end of Milton Bridge) respectfully informs his usual customers and the public in general that he has just received a fresh stock of FALL & WINTER GOODS at reduced prices for Cash or Provisions. Just call and see and save travel and trouble till Nov. 2, 1857. DATESMAN.

Administrators' Notice. WHEREAS, Letters of Administration were granted to the estate of JOHN S. FRICK, late of Kelly township, and the public notice is hereby given that all persons claiming themselves indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims upon it will present them for settlement to me.

JACOB BEHLM, Administrator. Kelly Tp., Nov. 23, 1857. pd.

THE WETTERED BEART, BY T. B. ARTHUR. THIS is a large 12mo. volume, Price $1.00, with a large superlative engraving, and is one of the most thrilling tales ever written by the author. It shows a man's journey to the world, all that is good and noble, and yet he is a man of his family, and finally meets his wife, a noble and virtuous woman.

NEW FLOUR AND FEED STORE. Just opened on Third st., a few doors north of Market, Lewisburg.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made to import a large quantity of the best Extra Family Flour, from the Mills of the West, at a low price.

Still Another Opportunity. McCarty, the Cheap Printer Man, RICK A. H. M.

Rich and Rare. IS the large and choice assortment of new FALL & WINTER GOODS.

Jet Goods! Black Diamonds! &c. Buy Early, and Save your Money!

WINFIELD FACTORY! THE subscriber, thankful for past patronage, and desiring to meet the public in general, that he continues to manufacture all kinds of Woolen Goods, such as

Real Estate. FOR SALE. My Residence, on North Third street, Lewisburg, 30 ft. front, and including back building 32 ft. deep. Basement, and Attic finished. Every convenience in the way of out-buildings.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. THE subscriber offers for sale his Residence on the west side of South Second street in the Borough of Lewisburg, between Market and St. Louis streets, consisting of a neat lot and a half of ground, making a front of 80 feet on said street, and a length of 157 feet, 6 inches.

PETER HURSH having received his first goods for '57, he would invite the attention of both Town and Country to his carefully selected stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, &c. &c.

Particular Notice! EVERY person having any unsettled account with JOHN HONORUS, of Lewisburg, is hereby notified to call upon the subscriber, and make settlement, forthwith, or legal measures will be resorted to without distinction of persons.

William Jones, Attorney at Law. Collections promptly attended to. Office on South 3d street, next to H. Hickok, Pa.

Ho! Farmers—Chance for a Bargain! FOR SALE, near Lewisburg, a Tract of almost 100 Acres of good Farming Land, limestone soil. It will be sold on reasonable terms of private sale for Cash. Inquire at the Office of the Chronicle.—June 10, '57.

More than 500,000 Bottles sold in the New England States—in an year.

THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—

Warrant, Mass. Feb. 5, 1857. THE public notice of Frick & Co. is hereby given that they have received a large stock of the best quality of the following articles:—