

Lewisburg Chronicle.

W. WOODEN & J. R. CORNELIUS. PUBLISHED FOR THE PROPRIETORS BY W. WOODEN & J. R. CORNELIUS, AT THE CHRONICLE OFFICE, CORNER OF 4TH AND BROAD STS., LEWISBURG, PA.

Freedom, national! Slavery, sectional!

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE. With to-day's CHRONICLE we send to such of our subscribers as we suppose have not already received it, the last Annual Message of Gov. POLLOCK to the Legislature—a document treating of important matters of State policy, and worthy of most attentive perusal.

This Extra came to us from Harrisburg without any order or intimation from us. Whether a New Year's Gift to his old acquaintance from ex-Governor HICKS, or the timely present of our HAYES, WITMER, GREEN, NEWMAN, KUNKER, CASBY, or any one else, it is just in season for early perusal by our numerous patrons, and is worthy of our and their sincere thanks.

MISS. HEMMEL, REIK, and LINCOLN, Commissioners—and THOMAS, BOGAR and KESSLER, Attorneys—of Union County, have this week been engaged in making the Annual Settlement of County Finances.

Appointments by the Commissioners. The Commissioners of Union county have made the following appointments for the current year:

CLERK—ANDREW KENNEDY. COUNSEL—JOHN B. LIXX. MORE APPRAISER—SHEM STEIGELMOYER. PRINTERS—WOODEN & CORNELIUS.

The Great Statement of the Lewisburg Bank, as required by the Act, Relief Law, is published to-day. It will be seen that the Specie with the funds in one sound Philadelphia Bank are more than sufficient to redeem all its Circulation. The balance of Liabilities is Stock, &c.

Pennsylvania Legislature. HARRISBURG, Jan. 4.—The Democratic members of both Houses engaged this evening in selecting candidates for the various offices, to be supported to-morrow.

The following were selected for the House: Sergeant-at-Arms, Jacob Glassmeyer, of Philadelphia; Doorkeeper, James Taylor, of Carbon; Messenger, James Brady, of Armstrong; Postmaster, John Smith, of Fayette.

[Jacob Ziegler for Clerk; there being no opposing candidate. The Clerk appointed Wm. H. Picking, Assistant; and Evans R. Brady, George W. Sharrett, John A. Mearns, and General H. Flood, Transcribing Clerks.]

Chief Clerk, Wm. H. Miller of Harrisburg; Assistant, F. M. Hutchinson, of Philadelphia. Transcribers—T. Simpson, Africa of Huntington, Jesse B. Davis, of Montgomery, and Nelson Weiser of Lehigh.

Sergeant-at-Arms, Theophilus Siggler, of Blair; Assistant, Wm. P. Braly, of Clinton; Doorkeeper, Lewis Fank, of Berks; Assistants, Samuel D. Brobst, of Luzerne, and John Farrell, of Philadelphia; Messenger, A. C. Worthington, of Berks; Assistant, David L. Spear, of Fayette.

The Republicans have held no caucus meeting, and will make no nomination for either House. They will vote for the old officers of the Senate.

Jan. 5.—A. Brower Longaker, of Montgomery, was elected Speaker of the House, and W. H. Welsh of the Senate.

The party vote in the House stood 67 to 28 (2 absent, 1 died, 2 scattering). The Republicans stole a march upon the Democrats by nominating Capt. Ziegler—a general favorite, ex-editor, and captain in Mexican war—for clerk.

The Senate party vote was 21 to 12. Wm. H. Welsh, of York, is son of Wm. Welsh, formerly State Printer with Gen. Cameron. Mr. Welsh was Secretary to Mr. Buchanan while the latter was Minister to England.

Wednesday, at noon, the Annual Message of Gov. Pollock, was delivered.

The next State Administration will be inaugurated on Tuesday (19th) of week after next.

Hon. Wm. M. Heister, of Berks, it is said will be Secretary of the Commonwealth under Gen. Packer. All parties agree that this will be a good selection.

It is also stated that Judge John C. Knox will resign his seat in the Supreme Court, and accept the appointment of Attorney General—and that Wm. A. Porter, Esq. will be appointed to succeed him, until the election, next Fall.

Moreover, that H. L. Dieffenbach, Esq. of Lock Haven (formerly of Lewisburg) who was at one time head of the School Department, will be the Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth.

All these rumors may prove true; and if true, we must do Gen. Packer the justice of saying that he will make a good start in the choice of his confidential advisers and agents.

Messrs. Cummings & Ziebach of the Iowa "Western Independent," state that there is great need of female help in schools, houses, and everywhere else where women can do good, in every Western town where they are wanted. They highly approve the Society formed in Philadelphia for aiding a respectable, male, in making and setting Westward.

35th Congress...1st Session

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4. Mr. Clingman, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a resolution that the President be requested— if, in his opinion, not incompatible with public interests—to communicate all information in possession in relation to the seizure of Gen. Walker and his followers in Nicaragua, together with such instructions as have been given to naval officers and other officers.

Mr. Jones (Dem.) should like the gentleman to modify his resolution so as to call for information respecting the fitting out of those expeditions in this country. Passed, 117 to 47.

Gen. Quitman of Miss. asked to offer a resolution for the repeal of all Neutrality Laws. Objected to by Mr. Grov of Pa.

FIGHT ON OSAGE RIVER.

LAWRENCE, K. T., Dec. 19, 1857. Dr. Little, known as one of the most radical and dangerous Pro-Slavery leaders, in company with G. W. Clark, the murderer of Barber, residents of Fort Scott, have been doing all in their power to annoy the Free State citizens in that vicinity.

Dr. Little has been acting as Deputy U. S. Marshal, and with a posse would sail out to collect taxes. His demands were not complied with promptly he would detain property and sell it. Missourians from the adjoining Missouri counties for a mere trifle. They made arrests under the rebellion act, now repealed by the Legislature.

In attempting to make arrests at the Little Osage River, sixteen miles from Fort Scott, they were resisted. They then increased their posse to 100, and surrounded the Free-State men, numbering 55, who confined themselves in a log cabin. On refusing to surrender, Dr. Little said, "If you do not surrender we will blow you to hell." "Blow away," replied Capt. Abbott, who was surrounded by a volley of bullets. Capt. Abbott returned the fire, killing three Missourians and wounding Dr. Little. Both parties then sent for reinforcements. This occurred at 3 o'clock on Wednesday last. Gen. Lane has ordered Captain Abbott to maintain his position at all hazards. The Missourians have several prisoners. Among them is the Rev. Mr. Stewart of Wakerusa, well known as the "fighting parson." Small companies from most of the Free State towns have gone to the relief of their friends. A company of riflemen, with a brass howitzer, will leave this place to-morrow morning at 3 o'clock. Gen. Lane will accompany them. Acting Gov. Stanton has sent a company of 100 dragoons as a posse comitatus.

The Kansas Cause of Freedom has issued an extra stating that "a company of the Slaves, under the leadership of Dr. Little, and other conspirators, fired on the name of M'Veay, shot a Free-State man who was walking near the Doniphan House, not suspecting any danger. He was shot with a gun loaded with buckshot, and immediately fell dead. They then left the town. A company of Free-State men have just left Doniphan in pursuit of them." I believe there was some difficulty existing between them in reference to a claim on which Mr. Latham was living.

Spirit of Kansas Freemen.

IOWA POINT, K. T., Dec. 13, '57. You have heard before this of the causes which have called out all the energy of the Freemen of Kansas; and now at this moment we are daily in the expectation of such a conflict of arms as never yet has been witnessed in this country. In the eye of every man here can be read, in characters not to be mistaken, ceaseless, deadly resistance to the usurpation threatening us. Men tell the Slave Propagandists to their teeth, "We will have liberty or death." And thus stands the matter to-day. Should the corrupt majority of Congress sanction the bogus letters forged at Leecompton, that hour will be baptized in fraternal blood, and the 200 murdered Martyrs of Freedom already gone to their last account will be joined by thousands of others, and Kansas will be as renowned in history as Thermopylae.

The third would say, would you fight the U. S. troops? Hear what the Freemen of Iowa say in the following: "Resolved, that we will send up to Congress the solemn protest of the people against this last great wrong; and if all shall fail to secure justice, we will then resist with the strong arm of a united People, determined on LIBERTY OR DEATH!" I suppose you think strange talk for a peace man. But remember we are far removed from church bells and gilded by violent men; so that if they now smite us on one cheek, we are determined to turn to them thousands of others also.

I attended the Territorial Convention at Lawrence on the 21 inst. Every county was fully represented, and such a body of men was never before seen in Kansas. "Prepare for a conflict," came from every lip, was discernible in the step and every movement of the men who met there. It was but a natural sympathy with the palpitation of the great popular heart which sent them. At that Convention we pledged ourselves, our lives, fortunes and sacred honors in ceaseless hostility to the Leecompton usurpation; and mark you, these are not mere paper resolves.

Returning, I stopped at Okaloosa, and addressed a meeting of all the grown men, amounting to about one hundred. When they voted to induce resistance, every man jumped to his feet in an instant, and shouted "Ay, ay!"

You have heard of that old, McGee and Kickapoo. Well, Buchanan has rewarded

Kickapoo for giving 500 illegal votes by removing the land offices from Doniphan to that place; so that all of us are compelled to travel 60 miles from the centre of the district to the extreme south-west corner to do our business with that office. What he will do for Oxford and McGee remains to be seen.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—The St. Louis Democrat, received here, says that passengers from Kansas furnish the following exciting reports: On Friday, the 25th ult., news reached Leavenworth that an engagement had occurred between the Free-State militia, under Gen. Lane, at Sugar Mound, and the U. S. Dragoons. The officers ordered Gen. Lane to surrender, and upon his refusal they charged, but were repulsed with the loss of three of their number. The dragoons then retired, and sent to Governor Denver for reinforcements. The Governor ordered three companies of dragoons to proceed to the seat of war, and a bloody affray was anticipated. As soon as the news of the engagement was received, the people commenced organizing and hurrying to the assistance of Gen. Lane. It was expected that, before the dragoons could arrive, Lane would be reinforced by 2500 men. There was intense excitement at Lawrence, and the people were preparing to take the field. President Calhoun is said to have left the Territory. [Subsequent tidings discredit the above intelligence.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—A delegation of twelve Chiefs and Braves of the Yoneton and Sioux tribes of Minnesota, representing 4000 Indians arrived to-day, to make a treaty for the sale of their lands and for their concentration on reserved lands, and their condition improved, under the auspices of the Government. Four other Indian delegations are now in the city.

The Navy Department has received despatches from Commodore Armstrong, commanding the squadron in the Chinese Seas, giving an account of the recent thorough search for European and American prisoners on the Island of Formosa. He is satisfied that there are no survivors of the crew of the wrecked American ship Highflyer, nor any European captives.

A Philadelphia correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune assures that paper that Mr. Buchanan's having yielded himself so completely to Southern dictation, is not only seen by the Democracy of Pennsylvania, but is working powerfully. Their new Governor, Packer, sustains Mr. Douglas, and one of the Democratic members of the House of Representatives from this city has declared within a day or two that he will not vote for the Leecompton swindler.

Members from Pennsylvania who will. This is doing well for the holidays, but better things will happen when Congress reassembles. Col. Forney's paper is a sore grievance to the straight-out Buchanan men in this State. They are becoming bewildered, and find the game is nearly up.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Gen. Scott arrived here last night. Messrs. Niblack, Foley, English and Gregg of Indiana, heretofore for the Leecompton Constitution, are backing out since the adoption of the Slavery clause. Messrs. Bright and Fitch stand firm for Leecompton.

Advices from Indiana render it probable that the Democratic State Convention, to be held on the 8th, will repudiate them to save the party at home. The New York Democratic members are all for Leecompton, notwithstanding the Slavery clause. The adoption of the Slavery clause has strengthened the Leecompton Constitution with the South Americans in Congress, and spoiled the plans of the moderate Democrats for compromising the matter.

Mr. Stevens of Ga., Chairman of the Committee on Territories, means to report Kansas and Minnesota in one bill, and try to drive it through by the previous question without going into Committee of the Whole.

JAN. 3.—The Union has a significant article on Paulding and Walker. It reports the declarations of the President's Message on filibustering. Filibustering expeditions are deprecated as unlawful, wrong, intrinsically, and disgraceful to the character of the country. It says: "The breaking up of the Walker expedition was the result contemplated by the instructions of the Government, however much the mode and manner of interruption may have been in conflict with Capt. Paulding's instructions or the strict rules of international law." It alludes to the substantial advantage to the character and lawful objects of the country from Capt. Paulding's act, and indicates that he will not be harshly dealt with.

Stringfellow, of Kansas notoriety, arrived here last night. He denounces the Leecompton Constitution as an imposition. It is too gross an outrage even for him.

THE UTAH EXPEDITION.—The last news from the Utah Expedition was to the 7th Nov. Col. Johnston had effected a junction with Col. Alexander, and assumed command of the expedition on the 3d, and the little army was immediately ordered to march upon Fort Bridger. This post is only about 115 miles from Salt Lake at once. The Mormons were determined to prevent him entering the city, if possible, and do all they can to annoy him by burning the grass, stealing cattle, destroying provisions, everything except bloodshed.

THE PUZZLER.

"What's in a shop mystery, But by 22 Pearl St find the bottom of it."

This department has lately attracted much interest, by winning the attention of those who otherwise might have been doing nothing or worse than nothing. Several have expressed to us their thanks for its beneficial influence in stimulating individuals of their acquaintance to the study of History, Geography, &c., by way of mastering the Enigmas, &c., proposed.

We have before us a few which we think not fair, and therefore decline, unless amended. One, for example, refers to "streets" in various towns or cities; but how are the vast majority of our readers to know the names of streets, &c? We think it hardly fair, therefore, but ask the writer to try again. Another gives the name of "the man that comes to see our Kate." Dear girl! would it be right to expose Kate and her beau, by an Enigma? No, no. Remember, you may have a sweetheart, some day. Another is so lengthy that we shall wait for the day to grow longer before we set it up.

"Try, try again." Do not be discouraged. Be careful to make a full fair statement, including every figure used. And send us the answer, in every part, for our own safety, and that we may see if there are any errors, (as there often is in the manuscripts, and sometimes in the type.)

No answer received to the first Enigma in last Chronicle.

ANS. to Biblical Enigma, Jan. 1.—"Saw of man, but felt a riddle." Ans. by F. R. Fox, Buffalo.

ANS. to Charade, Jan. 1.—"Letter 'H'." Ans. by M. D. Lewisburg.

THE ANSWERS TO ENIGMAS. ARITHMETICAL PROBLEM. I made a sausage, I over eight of an inch thick, which exactly covered the bottom of a tub 164 inches in diameter when cooled else without squeezing. What was the length of the sausage? P. H. B., Lewisburg.

GRAMMATICAL ENIGMA. I am composed of 22 letters. My 1st is a noun. 2, 5, 13, 14 a transitive verb. 4, 3 a pronoun. 8, 9, 6 a noun. 10, 11, 14, 15 an adverb. 17, 12 a pronoun. 19, 22, 21, 11, 16 a perfect participle. 20, 18 an interjection. My whole is what all should do. F. R. Fox, Buffalo.

RIDDLE. Formed long ago, yet made to-day. I'm not an eye, while others sleep—What none would wish to give away, And none I'm sure would wish to keep. DELTA.

Anagrams. An anagram is the dissolution of any word or sentence in letters as its elements, and then making some other word or sentence from it, applicable to persons or things named in such original word or sentence. There are words of this description, that exhibit coincidences that are truly surprising, and afford a very peculiar fund of amusement. The following is a selection of some of the best transpositions:

Radical reform—Rare mad frolic. Democratic—Comical trade. Encyclopaedia—A nice cold pie.
