There were two stories commenced in the CHRONICLE, for the conclusion of which our readers were referred to the N. Y. Ledger. As many may not just now have the money to spare for that journal, we have thought it best to make a short addition to them, so that their unity and completeness may not be destroyed. The "cuts" illustrative are authentic, and have been obtained at an ennormous expense. These concluding chapters are "copy-right secured," and we warn everybody not to copy them without giving us credit.]

RICHARD HOFFMAN.

Early the following morning, Richard was taken before the Alderman, who happened to be the very old gentleman who had been robbed, and from whom therefore the despairing yet brave boy could all removed when that dignitary fiercely demanded, "what is your name?"

"Richard Hoffman," was the prompt

"Son of George Hoffman?"

"The same."

"The one who married Rachel Bently?"

"The very man !" "Come to my arms, my grandson-my

-It is hardly necessary to follow out any further this most astonishingly interesting and thrilling narrative. Suffice it to say that the aged Mr. Bently went home with his grandson Richard, when a reconciliation was negotiated between the noble and affectionate old gentleman and his erring but repentant children. George Hoffman immediately quit drinking-the happy grandsire bought up the old groggery, emptied out the vile liquor, and set up Hoffman, Wife, Son & Daughter in the Grand Gift Prize Lottery Enterprise business-and all survived numerously to a good old age, when they, having

CHAP. III .- THE END ON'T. So they adjourned and took a hearty supper, such as only the gentlemen and ladies of color in Virginia can get up, when the distinguished company all went their several ways. Mr. Dalanie and Miss Paule, by some inexplicable enchantment, were drawn homeward all alone-together.

While the proud Dulanie was thus escorting the levely Miss Paule to her ancestral balls, each thinking of the Egyptian's fatal predictions and of the dark Sybillitic responses, the oppression became too enormous for their overburdened spirits, and Mr. Dulanie, quivering with excitement, asked, "what is best to do about it ?"

Miss Paule had been thinking the matter all over, and "allowed" it was best to obtain from the gentleman from Egypt a reconsideration of the case ... which, for a valid consideration, no doubt could be made to result more favorably.

"Just my mind, by'r Lady !" said the excited Dulanie; and after safely depositing his fair charge, he put spurs to his blooded steed, and pursued his course straight onward, notwithstanding a terrible thunder storm raged fiercely all around him. After fording swollen streams and crossing rugged mountains for forty-eight hours without resting, he dashed up to the "rooms" of the profound Astrologer, whose daguerreotype we have obtained for A NEW HOTEL, this paper-only :

Portrait of the Ecoptian Dervis Achbad, in his Guessing Cap.

After stating the desperate case, Achbad scowled worse than ever, until the pure minded Dulanie crossed his palm with a half-eagle gold piece, when his grim features relaxed, he dropped the money with a heavy chink into a wellfilled keg, and told the quaking Dulanie "perhaps be could do something better" for him. And again arranging his tools, drawing over his emaciated form the wizar1 robe, and waiting for the most auspihe exclaimed, in shrill tones that shook the very marrow in the bonce of the as |

THRILLING TAILS ... FINISHED tounded Dulanie, and with eyes widely glaring-

Ha! what is that I see? A REPRIEVE FROM THE GALLOWS-A REPRIEVE! It was by false evidence he was convicted! Old Hugh Hawes takes a liking to Dulanie, and, his liberality overflowing towards Governor Sterne, that virtuous old gentleman grants him a full pardon ! I see the youth wed the adorable Honora. Dulanic gets back his homestead, and 'all goes merry as a marriage bell,' interrupted only by those little accidents which follow such alliances. THE VISION CLOSES!"

"Good !" said Dulanie, giving Achbad another $5 gold piece-"that's the sort! That's auguring and horroscoping to some purpose, old fellow! Now I'll take a nap, then light a prime Havana, and ride home at my leisure !"

-Which be did. And in due course hope for no mercy. Nor were his fears at of time became the happy paternal progenitor of a long line of spouting, tobaccochewing, office-hunting, fillibustering, seedy "F. F. V's."

Gen. Havelock is a wit as well as a warrior. The following is the despatch by which he conveyed the intelligence of his grandson-MY GRANDSON-MY GRAND- last success in India to the Governor Gen-

> "Dear General: Let all our past misfortunes be forgotten, for we are in Luck Now. Yours, HAVELOCK."

This is nearly as good as Sir Sidney Smith's famous despatch announcing the capture of Scinde : "Peccavi." ("I have sinned.") They both doubtless, at some time served in the Panjob.

FEARFUL WARNING .- The St. Louis (Mo.) Republican says :- "A young lady, twenty five years of age, of elegant accomplishments and fascinating qualities of many kinds, arrived in this city a few weeks ago, from Chilicothe, Ohio, on a visit. She had for some time been in the babit of taking smal! quantities of arsenic, for the purpose of beautifying her complexion, and on Friday last she took an over-dose, fell sick, and died the next day."

FARMERS' PROMOTION BOOK. A NEW and scientific manuring system, for the cultivation and increase of all kinds of grain, grasses, folder kinds of grain, grasses, fodder and pasture, upon all kinds of soil, proved by actual experiments and based upon evident truths, designed to improve agriculture in all its branches; represented by upwards of one hundred and fifty engravings of the most valuable grasses and plants connected with the system, by DR.

C. G. REINHOLD, of Boalsburg, Centre Co., In this treatise it will be seen that the object has been to give the farmer that kind of information which enables him to make practical application to fertilize his land and increase his grain, folder and pastureage. The doctrines, a taught by this manuring, and fodder, and pasture coltivation system, are rational, clear and swident, and suggest an improvement in the mode of agriculture hitherto unknown to our farmers, and which, if adopted, and carefully practiced can not fail to advance the interests of the farming community. Such a work has been junch wanted, as it files a void which has long been felt, but which there has hitherto been no attempt to supply. And as farmers of Centre and Huntingdon counties we recommend the work to every farmer, as they will respite greatest possible benefit from it.

IRON! IRON!! IRON!!!

THE RECENT TRIALS at Rending have endorsed the current of public opinion, and contrared the vertilet of more than 200 accidental fires, proving conclusively that "Herring's" is the ONLY SAFE TRAY WALL NOT SHEET.

"On the 26th of February all the members of the Committee met to witness the Safes and beeks and papers, (placed in them) and were perfectly satisfied that all was right. The day following, the burning took place, under the superintendence of the Committee. After a fair and impartial burning for five hours, the Safe of Messus Evans & Waten was first opened, the Safe being on five inside, and the contents partially consumed, while the contents in the Safe of Messus Farrels & Harring were in good condition, and no five inside." 23,478 LBS. just received at the HARDWARE STORE of JO. SEPH MCFADDEN. Farmers and hot as smiths, call and see the largest and best as-sortment of Iron ever offered on the West Branch. Having the exclusive control of the celebrated VALENTINE'S Centre county Iron. Resaling, March 2, 1867.

at Wainut Street, Philadelphia.

Only makers in this State of Herring's Patent Champion Sifes.

The attempt made by other perties to bolster up the reputation of a Safe which has failed so signally in occidental fires in Philadelphia, (Kanstead Flaces,) by taking one out of an agant's atore, (II. A. Lantz.) made double thickness, (different from those they soil,) to "barn up" one of Herring's, that is a thick) has met with its true reward. Herring's Safe could not be barnt, proving cancinitely that the only robable Safe new made is: "Herring's," of which over 15,000 are now in actual use, and more than 200 have been tried by fire unifolds a single loss. of the Sexual Organs arising from warrelve and impred-ensite in 116, and removing all Improper Discharges from the Hindings, Kalmeys or Sexual Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have

Reading, Respectively, and the committee, do respectfully report, that we saw the two Safes originally agreed upon by Farrels & Herring and Evans & Watson, placed wide by side in a furnace, vir. The Safe in use by the Paymaster of the Philadelphia and Reeding Ratiroad Company, in his office at Reading, manufactured by Farrels & Herring, and the Safe in use by H. A. Lantz, in his store, manufactured by Evans & Watson, and pat in books and papers precisely allike.

The fire was started at $15 o'clock, A. M., and kept up until four cords of green hiskory, two ceris dry cak and half cherinut top wood were entirely consumed, the whole under the superintendence of the subscribers, members of the Committee. The Safes were then couled off with water, after which they were opened, and the books and papers taken cut by the Committee and taken to H. A. Lantz is store for public examination, after they were first examined and marked by the Committee. The books and papers taken from the Safe manufactured by Evans & Watson were, for our judgment, damaged fally fifteen per cent more than those taken from Evans & Watson were, for our judgment, damaged fally fifteen per cent more than those taken from Evans & Watson were, so our judgment, damaged fally fifteen per cent more than those taken from Evans & Watson were Safe. Try it and be convinced of its efficacy.
