He answered all the questions put to him, but he could give no information in opposition to the admission of Kanaga as a longer Democrats, others are openly and regard to the means adopted to preseare the passage of the Tariff of 1857.

He informed the Committee, however, crowd it through. Witness the following that he could show that the Tariff of 1846 was carried by bribing Congressmen, and that Two Millions of Dollars of British money, and Eighty Thousand francs from France were used for that purpose. The Democratic members of the Committee did'nt wish to hear anything about that Tariff, declaring that they had no power to investigate it !

Williamson was discharged by the Committee, and the Sergeant-at-Arms was ordered to give him his liberty.
