

BY O. N. WORDEN & J. R. CORNELIUS. AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY NEWS JOURNAL.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, MARCH 26, 1858.

most powerful in New York, where a theatre has been converted into a prayer house, and has been converted into a prayer house, and has been converted into a prayer house, and monormal provided his words, to show that he cither did not understand language, influence of the reformation. (The first Baptist church in Albany, the Broadway Congre occupied for a faily prayer meeting, in the middle of the day, and attended by two or three thousand persons. Not only preachers. ces, which are expected to be short and disthe U.S. and of others in anthonity, as well as for private individuals in different stitute in life. Praying, reading the Bible, and ex. enough to stoop to aid in such an assault

GOOD NEWS. Whene'er von meet, yon always sny-"What's the nues? What's the mees? Peag, what's the order of the day? Woot's the news ! What's the news? O, I have good news to tell. My Savior has done sij things well. And triamphed over death suct hell.-That's the news? That's the news!

The Lamb was slain on Caivary-That's the news ! That's the news! That's the news! To set a world of sinners free-That's the news! That's the news!

Twas there His precious blood was shed Twas there His precious blood was shed Twas there His based His sacred head; But now He's risen from the dead— That's the news ! That's the news !

To Heaven above the Conquerer's gone-That's the news ! That's the news ! He's pass'd triumphant to His throns-That's the news ! That's the news ! And on that throne He will remain, Until, as Judge, He comes again, Attended by a dazzling train-That's the news! That's the news!

The Lord has pardoned all my sin-That's the news ! That's the news ! I feel the witness now within-That's the news! That's the news! And since He took my sins away, And taught me how to watch and pray, I'm happy now from day to day-That's the news ! That's the news !

His work's reviving all around-That's the news! That's the news! And many have redemption found-That's the news! That's the news! And since their souls have caught the flame. They shout he cannot be a name : And all around they spread His fame— That's the news ! That's the news !

And Christ the Lord can save you too-That's the news! That's the news! Your sinful heart he can tenew-That's the news! That's the news: This moment, if for sins you grieve, This moment if you do believe, A full acquittal you'll receive— That's the news! That's the news!

And now if any one should say, What's the news ! What's the news ! O tell them you've began to pray-That's the news! That's the news!

The Religious Awakening, smaller ones. To all those with money or you ought to be, much less of such as you which "cance not with observation," but most other means, the present may be the most claim to be. We did not condemn the which "came not with observation. but means, the present may be the most evidently is the fruit of the direct operations favorable senson to build, as provisions Cabinet (as we are charged to have done;) of the Spirit of God upon the hearts of and materials will doutless be lower than what we said of them was a literal quotamen, is still precaiting in the great cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia. It is be so hurried.

some of the most natorious profligates, male and females, have professed the regenerating VID WILMOT, are trying to legislate him. It is really ridiculous for him to say that out of effice, by abolishing the judicial dis- we condemn the Cabinet when the only tist church in Albany, the Brondway Congre-gational Talernacle church, and the Tremant trict over which he presides, and attaching his own. church in Boston, all focated their houses up- the counties to adjoining districts. They As to our condemnation of Senator and why, if he is so, not wait until next tion upon the people of Kansas against Hall to hold counsel, and not to drill. but others lead and participate in the serve. Judge, and then let the people-those most carnest protestations. When Senator Bi-Judge, and then let the people-those most concerned, and best informed-oust him? gler took the old Democratic ground that we all took in the campaign of 1856, and rectly to the great object ; and remarkable But the plotters fear to go before the peo- that is still adhered to by such life long sulfaess and solemnity prevail. Prayers are ple with him. We do not think party Democrats as our own Gov. Packer, Gov. depravity is yet low enough for such a Wise of Va., Douglas, Stuart, Broderick, thing, or that Gov. Packer would be mean Walker, Bancroft, and many thousand horitations, are interminagled with singles, gen- upon an honorable but unsuccessful rival shatt ne permittee to choose them. erally conducted by a leader, in which hun- -but, if they should thrust him from the OWN FORM OF GOVERNMENT, we with all trady contained and point with thriling for-twor. Among the songs, the following is said of being cooped up, year after year, in If Mr. Bigler has abandoned that great, assembling at the call of the drum. Court Houses, listening to dry legal con-trate his finder and the work of the the serves to better fate than any other man tests, his friends would keep WILMOT on who in an evil hour has proved recreant

> The movement was begun in an under. from you and your friend the P. M. We handed manner; but the people have got have never thought it the great mission of the Democratic party, to be a mere appenwind of it, and are remonstrating without distinction of party. And the judges tail to follow them wherever they may burg Star, and Ed. pro tem of the Colum- croment by the people, not or the people; sible attack on the town, a no less formidbia Democrat, (all Administration papers) that the people are too that rulers may let it once be understood that rulers may with many of the wiser party leaders, de- change their principles at pleasure, and nounce the scheme as unjust and impolitic; that, unless the people will blindly change walls, ditches, weapons and courage are they know the power of the free tongue of with them, they must be denounced as of no avail. Do you ask the name of this Wilmot ; they see the outrage of prevent- traitors to Democracy, and must be sneer- fearful foe? Look yonder, and you will ing two large counties from electing their ed out of the party, then our Democracy, not require that I should tell you." own Judge, and they see that in an elec nay our liberty itself is crushed out.

in New York, called the "Golden Prize," presumption is fair that they will not fulfill others .- Lewistown Gazette.

coin the whole, would not printers ments f

Lewisness, March 22, 1858. To the Editors of the Chronicle .- The followhe that said they were men of "qualified others who have been recognized as lights of the party, namely, THAT THE PEOPLE the stump in Pennsylvania from now un-til next Presidential election. Blaze away, my keerties!

that the people are the sovereign; but

We remember that our party, up to a tion, Judge Wilmot or some other man very recent date, was unanimously in fa-As Beeket & Co., proprietors of a paper Philad. Press boldly aunounced that a New York, called the "Golden Frize," doctrine, it was hailed by all of us as nents predicted would be the course Mr. Buchanan's administration. Our P. black death !" M. himself, in an eestacy of delight over the sentiments uttered to be true Democ-

ing communication was handed to the Editor

the Triumphs of Meckness.

CHAPTER II. "Stein is drumming again, already !" gether to be drilled."

Stein drums, as he is doing now-'dow men?" church in Boston, all located merinauses up on the ruines of the research and unpepular. Well, revivals.) Jame's Hatt, in Philadelphia, is the why punish the district for his sins? As to our condemnation of Senator now is endcavoring to thrust a Constitufall, when there is to be a new election for their consent, and even against their most Look, father is putting on his hat, and alone ensued upon his speech. going without his sword and spear."

> Ulriea. "Nothing good, you may be sure," sighed his mother, again exhorting her chil- and death ; who is capable of aiding the throwing my shuttle ; and I have, there- fast, Mr. Hackenburg, with the assistance dren to industry whilst their father was sick with head and hand, better than any fore, been silent until now, and have not of a few friends, compelled him to "ground called away from his loom. Without other amongst us; and consequently per- offered myself to fill a post which should arms," and then let him off, after which grumbling at this fresh hindrance to his feetly qualified to undertake this difficult be occupied by a very different man than he made tracks towards Lowistown. No work, Wolf betook himself to the Town office. We mean you, burgher Schelle," myself. As, however, no one else seems doubt he is a consummate scoundrel-Hall, in front of which the burghers were continued Herr Adler, approaching the willing to take it, and as your loss to the Middleturg Teibune.

The burgher-master of Naumburg, Herr Pankratz Adler, now came forward, fol- understand the care and management of services to the sick of the plague. My lowed by the other councillers. His fine countenance wore a troubled and anxious expression.

"My friends and brothers," he said gravely, "we have called you here together on weighty, and important business. Whilst we have repaired and heightened upon whom the sorcheads want to pile this load. It has been the boast of the walls of our town, deepened the meat, Bradford and Susquebanna, don't want this land of freedom, and especially so of and exercised ourselves in the profession the walts of our town, deepened the most, the job. The Sullivan Democrat, Blooms- the Democratic party, that this is a gov- of arms, in order to be prepared for a pos- to which the plague has entered should, pale, thin, but benevolent countenances able enemy has secretly and unbindered stolen in amongst us ; against which,

The eyes of the assembly anxiously followed the burgher-master's hand, as he of his party could overcome their majori- vor of letting the people in Kansas decide pointed to a house in the market place, ties if joined together in a district. Alto- upon their own local institutions. That and every face turned pale as they gazed gether, it is as unfortunate a scheme as was our position before the Presidential in silent horror upon the high pole, with a ed in his car. The burgher-master turn-would make her a widow, and them fath- Forney's opinion of the recent Democratelection; and when, in the commencement of Fres. Bachanan's administration, the of internally exclaimed-"The plague ! the your wife and youngest child. The dan- dearest earthly treasures; but the happi-The burgher-master's voice broke in and make a beginning by burning down the Lord of all lords, gave his precious on public opinion so far as its Kansas secheating the public by "gifts" and lotteries, racy, and at once got up a club for the sure and terrible follower of war and would as soon cheat a printer as anybody paper. It was not until it was discovered scarcity," he said, "has stolen in upon us; your house with all who are in it." would as soon cheat a printer as anybody - and as subscribers who see such imposi-tions practiced by the printer on them, may be mind otherwise, that a change crept over tions practiced by the printer on them, may be mind otherwise, that a change crept over the mind otherwise of some who had innocently the mind o the minds of some, who had innocently keep the destroying angel from our thresh- bath-master. His knees shook under him, Should it be demanded of me, I shall die tion agree to support the Lecompton olds. It remains for us to exercise the and he all but fell senseless to the ground. in the firm persuasion that you will not fraud, or accept that part of the platform have ho settice, wen grounded convertors solves up to too great anxiety; to take voice, he cried: "Ob, worshipful Herr "They shall be the care of the whole tion, nothing will save them from an overjudgiffe.... "They shall be the care of the whole ments unless they by to utter their senti-spreading of the evil; and to do all we to them that rule, freedom of speephaney to them that rule, freedom of speephaney to the whole wife and family! The advice I gave was To the Editors of the Chronick.—The follow, To the Editors of the Chronick.—The follow, ing communication was handed to the Editor, of the Argue for publication, and was hydra, thined attempt of himself and the Post Master to misrepresent our former article, and their to them that rule, freedom of specarally spreading of the evil, and to do and we spreading of the evil, and to do and we spreading of the evil, and to do and we spreading of the evil, and to do and we to praise, but not to condemn, a public conscience so pliable as to stretch and think to the thick, but to the threefore carefully keep films and to do and we thinking, from to misrepresent our former article, and their to misrepresent our former article, and their to the the to the disk, but to the first year of American to misrepresent our former article, and their to the the to the disk, but to the first year of American to misrepresent our former article, and their to the to the to the disk, but to the first year of admerican to misrepresent our former article, and their to the to the to the disk of the first year of the evil, and to do and we therefore carefully keep films at any impious. I was not in ear-to misrepresent our former article, and their to the to the to the disk of the first year of the evil, and to do and from to meeting fears; must to the misses composing to the evil, and to do and we the disk to be to meeting fears; must to the misses composing to the to the disk to be to the to the disk to be the the people—let the misses composing to the to the to the disk to be the the people—let the misses composing to the to the disk to be the the people let the misses composing to the to the to the disk to the to the to the to the tothe disk to the the to the to the to the to the to the to the tot to instrepresent our tormet article upon us, we feel that we have a right to a hearing, and, having failed to get it in our own party press, will you have the goodness to insert our commu-Schelle, the command "tipely forgotten, over to him the important office of over- opinion, and assert their blood hought years ago. We are happy to report to his bin as glad hearted and companionable as ever—not a bit clated by promotion— weighing 103 lbs, full—and with very lence has spared your house. Will you ed man, who received so many vigorous government is sometimes last before the now, however, undertake the Christian shakes of the hand, that his arm uched. people are aware of it ! So History shows office which we have offered to you, in the Every one extelled the formerly muchname and with the sanction of our coun- despised weaver, as the most generous and TARIFF IRISHMAN .- We have a commay purify the air. And, finally, we require a man, a second Joseph in Egypt, cil?" "Forgive me, your worship !" answered muster was looked upon with deserved who is "A Tariff Man," and regret that who will take upon himself the care of the sick, with fearlessness, prudence, and selfhis panie : "I have a wife and three chil- After the assembly had dispersed. One thing a "Tariff man" must remember: the bath-master, quickly recovering from contempt. renouncing fidelity. With the help of dren, to whom I might carry the infection, Wolf turned his steps homeward ; and, the party which is trying to force Slavery others who will be appointed to assist him, if I were to take the charge proposed to foreseeing what a hard struggle awaited and a Know Nothing Constitution on he will have the oversight of all the houme ; and besides, my services to the town him there, he, by the way, sought for Kansas, is the same pro-slavery party that ses visited by the plague, and must see can not be dispensed with. Who shall strength in silent, carnest prayer. that they are strictly kept separate from cup, bleed, bind up wounds, and attend to THE WORKINGS OF FREE TRADE. - A the bathing establishment, whilst a peril-correspondent of the New York Tribune, of employment at the power of the You must light against the power of the ous occupation separates me from all in- writing from Philadelphia, furnishes the tereourse with others? Consider this following, which presents a sad picture North and South and keep poer white men must receive the last will of the dying, well, sir, and choose a man who stands for contemplation : alone, and whose loss would not be so inand see that it is properly carried out. reparable as mine. I would far rather face the dreaded enemy than have to do free-trade dogmas of the Administration, the Second Methodist Church at Lancesmunication between the infected and the with the pestilence." "Well, we can not force you, against your will, to undertake this dangerous with the pestilence." "Well, we can not force you, against thirty miles below the city. Here the Sheriff advertises more than 5,000 acres of land, with glass works, mills, and the plw with his request (to kneel during uninfected, between death and life. We are quite aware that such an office will be most trying and difficult to fulfil; an office which no one would be tempted to unbut highly honorable office," said Herr entire village of Malaga, embracing some prayer,) to leave." Henry Miller, of that dertake by any pecuniary reward which Adler. "Nothing, then, remains for us, forty dwelling houses. The curse of free city, refused to do either, whereupon Mr. we could offer. The man who is willing but that I, the chief and father of my trade has blasted the prospects of this Walter instituted a suit against Mr Milburghers, take the care of the sick upon myself. I would at first have proposed to to take it upon him must be actuated by the pure disinterested impulse of a benevmyself. I would at first nave proposed to do so, had I not believed it of more im-portance for me to attend to my present who with their families constituted the testifying that it was not computery with olent heart, to devote his whole powers mocracy of this county was for Lecomp- willing to take any more testimony. The yea, even life itself, to the good of the portance for me to attend to my present duties than to these. Friend Schiefer"- utterly desolate. The whole scene is one when judgment was given in favor of de-We stated, further, that no meet- case has been closed after full notice. The community. Which amongst you, my While stealing a few hours from our ing of the county Committee was called; verdict has been rendered, the judgment brothren, feels within him a call to this Herr Adler turned to the senior council- of destitution and abandonment, so com- fendant. the crude offspring of three men of the Common fellows as the people, it publication was a frand men the Darrest, are no longer of any account. honorable office ? Let him come forward, lor-"to you I make over my authority plete and thorough as to be rarely exceehim. A deep silence of some minutes faithful burghers, to yield the same obe-same folly was enacted in a thousand place affected with the Scotch succeeded his impressive address. Each dience to my friend and representative other localities, the very men who have plague aforesaid. Awfal ! Gov. Wise against forcing the Lecompton man looked at his neighbor, but no one which you have always shown to myself. been thrown out of employment and fore The wise Lechman, being on his death Constitution on the people of Kausas against their known and expressed will. The prettiest lining for a bennet is a smilling for a bennet is a smilling for a bennet is a "Is there not one among my burghers will seen forget my less. Fellow citizens, call have

THE WEAVER OF NAUMBURG : to be found, who for the general good, will you are domined. Go in peace, and God undertake this hazardous office? Shall be with you?"

than that heathen Roman who threw him- the assembly whilst Herr Adler spoke, off by the name of Hoffman, fleering the self unasked into the yawning gulf which was now broken by a mingled hum of re- tender lambs, of several congregations, of an earthquake had opened in the market- grot, approval, indignation, and contempt, some of their hard earnings. He professexclaimed Siegbert, two days after. "The place of Rome, and which, according to called forth by the decision of the noble- ed to be a Lutheran clargyman, and had enemy must be coming very soon, or the the oracle, could only again be closed by minded burgher-master, and Schelle's cow- a good address. He represented himself burghers would not be called so often to- the free will offering of a human life? ardly selfishness. Although, however, ma- as having but one arm, the other having Will no one resolve to follow in his Sa. ny of those present warmly pressed the been cut off by a train of cars ; but this "That proves that you do not know the vior's footsteps, who yielded up his pre- hand of their generous chief, and with wolf in sheep's clothing, during a few days'

feigned coughings, and embarrassed looks, drens Wolf stepped forward out of the and, wearing a clovely buttoned overcoat

"What can be the matter now ?" asked more began, "that we have in our eye the he said in a calm quiet voice, "you know side, so nicely was the dress managed that right man, whom his calling has already that I am a plain simple linen weaver, the deception was complete. But after brought into contact with danger, disease, with no capacity for anything beyond the "Rev. gentleman" was called to breakbath-master, and laying his hand on his town would be irreparable, I have, in shoulder. "You are a brave man; you God's name, decided to devote my poor the sick ; and you fear no danger."

ready tongue was for the moment silenced. ness, will, I hope, youchsufe me the nee-At length he stammered out : "Forgive essary judgment and ability. Take me, me, worshipful Herr Burgher-master! If therefore, as I am, Herr Burgher-master. an ordinary death is formidable, how much God will, I doubt not, bestow his blessmore the black death ! There all hope of ings upon me in the work-Amen." cure is vain. If I might presume to offer The usually bent figure of the weaver with all its inmates, be burnt to ashes. there was an expression of deep humility This is, I acknowledge, a desperate reme. and pious zeal, whilst a murmur of surdy, but it is the surest under the sup." prise and approbation ran through the The burgher-master thought that his crowd.

mur of indignation from the assembled emotion in the honest weaver's face. Afcrowd convinced him to the contrary, ter a momentary pause, he said with cur-He was on the point of giving the bath. nestness : "Wolf, my good, disinterested master a stern reproof for his unchristian fellow! must I remind you that you have proposal, when one of the councillors a faithful wife and eight affectionate, obetouched him on the shoulder and whisper- dient children; that by your death you -In the Press of the Sth inst, we find sergeant was at that moment planting be- "Schelle, Herr Kunath has just brought them with the plague?" fore the house pointed out to them. Not me the dreadful intelligence that the black "I have not forgotten it," replied Wolf the Democracy of Pennsylvania, has just Naumburg's citizens show less patriotism | The deep silence which had reigned in upan in our neighborhood, passing himself different heats," said Erwin. "When visit at the house of Mr. Hackenhorg, in heart will be in the work, and our God, Schelle turned pale, and his generally whose strength is made perfect in weak-ears deceived him, but a universal mur. The burgher-master looked with deep 2.7 Just.

ger, it seems, advances with giant steps ; ness of individuals must yield to the gen- votes in favor of the programme of the life upon the cross for us poor worms of

ESTABLISHED IN 1843 WHOLE NO., 728. AT $1,50 PER YEAR, ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

Imposter in Snyder County.

There was for the last might or two a

Ione ensued upon his speech. "We believe," the burgher-master once "Worshipfal Herr Bargher master," for the lost arm loosely daugling by his

THE CONVENTION -- On to morrow, the Pemperatic Delegates from the counties of the State will assemble at Harrrisburg. No Democrat will object to an endorsement of Mr. Buchanan's views, on all questions much that of the Lecomaton outrage. If a majority of the Delegates will force through the Convention an endorsement of the Calhoun swindle, the responsibility of hazarding the success of their nominees must and will rest with them. A large majority of our party, the honest masses, honestly differ with the President on the Kansas question ; they are men--freemon--and will not be forced to endorse a wrong, an outrage upon their follow eitizens in Kansas. We can be successful npon no other platform than that upon which Pres Buchanau and Gov. Packer were elected - Huntingdon Globe (Dem.)

FORNEY ON THE STATE CONVENTION.

"The darkest chapter in the history of es of Pennsylvania had been truly represented, there would not have been ten tion was concerned, and its declarations on this subject are cutified to no respect adopted by the majority of the Conven-

That you have joined the conquering b And now with joy, at God's command, You're marching to the better land-That's the news! That's the news!

THE CHRONICLE.

Ber The whileme Editor Mr. HIUKOK, ever-not a bit elated by promotion-weighing 103 lbs, full-and with very the action of a minority of the Democrat-Hickok called in to pay his respects to counteracted in the then assembled State ces. several of our District Schools, on Tuesday Convention-all this we regarded as an -visited Milton and Northumberland on outrage upon the Democracy, and upon Wednesday-and on Thursday returned ta Harrishurg-We here he were principle of honor. The object of our communication was to to Harrisburg-We hope he may soon endemn any and all such sneaking pro-its feelings in the following characteristic find time to pay us a visit, and find a few ceedings, on the part of a few, to bind the language : days' rest from his official labors and re-many. We stated that it was not true "We don't care machine or dislike the Constitution. We are un-supersibilities." "We don't care machine or dislike the Constitution. We are un-attention-including some good brick the erude onspring of the birth, and Committee; their conception, birth, and dwellings, as well as some of wood-(a publication was a fraud upon the Democing did not cease for a week, during the were without authority from the commitwinter, and already it has begun to expand tee, and not sanctioned by the party. rapidly and vigorously. We know not of fair, manly way, you and the Post-Master against their known and expressed will. any very large buildings contemplated, but and many way, you from them by low of the Argus for publication, and was by him traced - process his paper. And an com-bined attempt of himself and the Post Master MONDAY, MARCH 22, 1858. we have a right to a hearing, and, having our fathers taught it to mean,) a Governyou have the goodness to insert our commu- lodged in the hands of the people, the duty little more frost on his "honored pow" is county Committee on the Kanese ques- -that would disdain to throw its bread tor. In the neighborhood of the infected the more trost on his "honored pow" is county committee on the issues quest that would distant to the we have been misunderstood, mantle over any who are mere slaves of houses, we shall daily light fires of junithan when he left. The greetings of the many former acquaintances he found time we complained of, was, that every effort, servile tests of fealty to party, but meas-may partify the air. And, finally, we reto call upon during his day's visit, were made by the Anti-Lecompton men, to get ures men by their manhood, and their most cordial. A few hours around town up a meeting for the Democracy of the devotion to right, instead of dealing out revealed improvements that rather surpri- county to discuss that question fairly and favor to them who "bend the suple knee, sed him, and certainly strongly impressed openly, was thwarted, by you and the Le- that thrift may follow fawning"..... If sed him, and certainly strongly impressed him with the idea that Lewisburg was still prospering as substantially as any mere country towns in agricultural districts. One Country towns in agricultural districts. Our Court House he pronounced decidedly the most elegant, best finished, well adap-ted, and economical for its size, of any in ted, and economical for its size, of any in ted, and economical for its size, of any in the State; and to judge of his ability to decide, we may mention that his engagements have called him to nearly every have three men to assume to themselves we want to hold you. And because we county in the State, causing him to tra- the prerogative to speak for the county, have said what we have thought, no imverse thousands of miles to reach voluntary and through the Democratic organ foist becile jeers intended to make us odious in meetings of friends of Education, and resolutions on the Democracy of the count the eyes of the party can do us harm. In short, he must be the medium of com ton."

Building in Lewisburg.

our town, we were made aware of improve- to resolutions were formally passed ; that hands of the officers." ments that had heretofore escaped our what appeared in print as such were but This is "democracy" with a vengeance! material which in our best towns is gen-erally disallowed.)..... The work of build. be regular and efficial, when in fact they paper of Philadelphia, takes ground with good dwellings will be crected, and fings that are unworthy of such men as smilling face meetings of Fiducation, and bringing most of the new Court Houses under his personal observation. Mr. It that were oblighted by that were oblighted by the set of the best is to be the best is to be the set of the best is to be the best is P. BILLMEYER. HENRY FRICK.

MODERN DEMOCRACY .- Buchanan's or-

"editorial den" last week to ramble over that no such meeting was held; and that entered up, and the execution is now in the bravest of men ; whilst the vaunting bath. munication from an Irishman in Pittston it came too late for insertion this week. repealed our Protective Tariff of 1842,and has thrown him and his countrymen out of employment at the very first panie. aristoeracy which would own slaves both

COPY CREASEd