Correspondence of the Lewisburg Chronicle. MIFFLINBURG March 30, 1858.

The "Union Legislature" is still flourishing. The last few evenings have been taken up with the discussion of a resolution endorsing "popular Sovreignty in the Territories of the United States."

On last Wednesday evening, our citizens were very agreeably entertained by a lecture delivered before the Mifflinburg Academical Lyceum by Prof. Joseph Kimball, on the subject of "Social and Intellectual Culture."

As usual at this time of year, a great moving is now going on. Notwithstanding the care and labor a moving occasions, it is generally regarded and enjoyed as a "jollification." So you may take it for granted we are at present moving along happily. Our landlords all move-yet all stay in town. Mr. Inhoff, leaves Deckard's Hotel for the "Columbia House."
