

THE CHRONICLE.

MONDAY, MARCH 29, 1858.

Be not Deceived.

We last week published the passage of the Leecompton Kansas bill through the U.S. Senate. The amendment relative to the "right of the people of Kansas..."

In the House, now, seemingly, remains the last hope of the Freemen of Kansas to be saved from Slavery without resorting to the extreme right of Revolution!

Another Attempt to Deceit. John Calhoun recently wrote, to an editor in Washington, that he should be obliged—solely against his wishes—to give certificates of election for a majority of the Legislature of Kansas to the Free State men!

Give him his Rôle! "The Legislature addressed the Governor in favor of the removal of Judge Loring, for acting as a Fugitive Slave Commissioner, contrary to a law of that State."

Be Men, not Slaves. "Another Mistake"—Last week's Argosy says, "Full grown men will hardly feel like getting on their knees before the Chronicle and acknowledging that they are penitents at the altar of sectionalism."
