Freedom, national: Slavery, sectional!

35th Congress...1st Session

We mentioned in part of our last week's edition, that on Wednesday, 14th inst., the House, by the casting vote of Speaker Orr, decided to appoint a committee to confer with the Senate committee in reference to some means of admitting Kansas. English, of Ind., Hall and Pendleton of O., and Owen Jones of Pa., voted with the Lecompton party on this motion, and all those who had heretofore voted against Lecompton, voted against any conference (except a few who "paired off.") Messrs. English, Hall, Pendleton, and Jones, however, protested that in thus voting they did not in the least change their views, and would resist the Lecompton usurpation to the last; but they wished to show to the world that they were not actuated by a factious spirit, but would do anything and everything to bring the Senate to see the truth and to do justice—except to sacrifice right, and the great principle of voluntary government. These members are severely censured by some, as preparing to act the traitor's part, but let them be fairly tried. The Speaker appointed English of Ind., Stephens of Ga., and Howard of Mich. (a tried Republican) the Committee on the part of the House.

The Kansas Conference Committee met on Saturday last. Mr. English, on the part of the House, notified Senator Green that unless a plan of compromise was offered on Monday, he would report that the Committee was unable to agree, and ask that it be discharged.

Monday.—The Joint Committee of Conference on the Kansas bill met this morning, all the members being present for the first time. Mr. Green, on behalf of the majority of the Senate Committee, submitted several propositions amending the Senate bill, none of which proved acceptable to the House Committee. Propositions were then solicited from the House Committee.

Mr. English responded that at the next meeting of the Committee he would submit a new bill. It is understood to be a proposition for a substitute for the Lecompton ordinance, and that the question of admission under the Lecompton Constitution be referred to a fair vote of the people of Kansas, at an early day. If the majority vote for it, Kansas to come into the Union under the President's proclamation, provided the population there equals the number required for a member in the United States House of Representatives. The Committee adjourned till Tuesday.

TUESDAY.—The joint committee of conference on the Kansas bill met this morning. Mr. English substituted a proposition similar to that indicated in yesterday's despatch. The Senate committee asked for time to consider the proposition and the committee adjourned till 2 o'clock, P.M.

Evening.—Mr. English's bill is still under consideration by the joint committee of conference on the Kansas bill, with a fair prospect of ultimate agreement. The several political leaders were this afternoon, and are to night, much interested in privately discussing the measure, of the success of which no definite opinion can yet be formed. It is probable that the committee of conference will report to morrow.

The aversion of faint hearts to "villainous salt peter," of Hebrews to pork, of rogues to hempen nooses, and of the Evil One to holy water, have become proverbial; but the horror of the Lecomptonites at the bare suggestion of a vote by the people of Kansas transcends them all.

SENATE.—Mr. Houston (Texas) spoke in favor of the establishment of a Protectorate over Mexico. After pointing out the difference between the Northern and Southern States of the Union, he went on to define his plan, and show the benefits that would accrue both to the Union and to Mexico. The Protectorate, he said, must be self-supporting, the protected pay the expense, which they could do by assigning her revenue for 10 years.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of John Caldwallader for Judge of the Eastern District Court of Pennsylvania, vice Kane, deceased.

In Congress on Saturday, the SENATE was urged by Mr. Hunter to take up the Deficiency bill. It was finally made the special order for Monday. The Pacific Railroad bill Mr. Benjamin moved to postpone till December. This was earnestly opposed by both the California Senators, Mr. Broderick reminding the opponents of the bill on the Administration side that the vote of California was given to Mr. Buchanan on the promise of a Pacific Railroad, while Mr. Gwin pronounced a vote for postponement to be conclusive against the construction of any road. Messrs. Green, Douglas and Bell also spoke against Mr. Benjamin's motion, while Messrs. Iverson and Johnson of Arkansas supported it on the ground that there was no hope of a route offering "justice to Southern interests." Mr. Benjamin's motion was finally adopted, and the subject postponed until December by a vote of 26 Yeas to 22 Nays, 18 Lecomptonites voting in the affirmative.

The Charter Election in Albany resulted in the election of the entire Republican ticket.

LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature of Pennsylvania was to adjourn yesterday.

April 14, Gov. Packer stated in a message that he had approved and signed "An act changing the venue of a certain action from Union to Northumberland county." [Quinn's, or Seebold's?]

In Senate, April 15, "Mr. Finney called up House bill No. 757, to change the venue of a certain case from Union to Northumberland county. Passed second reading and laid over for the present." [Quinn's, or Seebold's?]

EXPLANATION.—In Senate, Ap. 16, Mr. GREGG, on leave, made a statement—

That, on the 3d inst., a bill came into the Senate (from the House of Representatives) entitled An act to change the venue in a certain case from Union to Northumberland county. A motion was made by the Senator from Perry, (Mr. Fetter,) to proceed to its consideration. He (Mr. Gregg,) objected, because he knew nothing about the case and desired an opportunity to inquire into it; and on his motion it was referred to the Judiciary Committee, and subsequently taken up and defeated by a vote of 13 nays, to 11 yeas. Yesterday the Senator from Crawford, (Mr. Finney,) made a motion to reconsider the vote, and the motion was laid over. To-day the Governor sent in a message, stating the titles of a number of bills he had approved and signed, among which, to his utter astonishment, was this identical bill which has never passed the Senate. How the bill got to the hands of the Governor, he was at a loss to say, except through a mistake of the Clerk. He was opposed to the bill—there was no merit in it—and he did not desire to see a bill of this kind, affecting his district, pass, especially under such circumstances. He desired to correct the error, and with this object read in place a bill to repeal the act in question.

Mr. SHAFFNER moved to lay the bill on the table, with a view to give an opportunity to call it up at an early period.

Mr. WELSH, (Speaker,) being on the floor, moved that it be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. FETTER made a statement in regard to the circumstances of the case, and his connection with it, corresponding substantially as to the facts with that of Mr. Gregg.

The bill to repeal the act was then referred to the Judiciary Committee.

[Still in the dark—was it the Quinn's, or the Seebold's application?]

In House, April 19, Mr. Lovett announced as presented to the Governor (among others) "An act to incorporate the Lewisburg building association."

Kansas Reports.—In the House, April 19, Mr. Calhoun, Chairman of the Special Committee on Kansas, made a report, accompanied by a resolution. The report is Anti-Lecompton in its bearings, and is signed by Messrs. Calhoun, Miller, Jackman, and Lawrence.

Mr. Goepp said he would make a minority report to-morrow, signed by himself and Messrs. Rhodes and Turner.

The House passed an act to repeal an act relative to fishing in Middlecreek, in the county of Snyder. And also, an act relative to running the boundary lines between the counties of Centre, Union, and day afternoon, passed the resolution to purchase the house of Mr. Bovins, in Second street, for $10,000, as a residence for the Governor. It has now gone through both branches.

The bill for the erection of a Monument in honor of the Pennsylvania soldiers who fell in the Mexican War, passed.

A message was transmitted from the Governor, nominating Ellis Lewis, Chas. R. Buckalew and John C. Knox, as commissioners to revise the penal code of Pennsylvania. The nominations were unanimously confirmed.

Judge Wilmot has published a pamphlet handling his jealous accusers without gloves. The attempt is to drive him from the bench for hating oppression and fraud, will probably fail, unless force and cheating are resorted to. The most respectable of his political opponents defend him in his rights—Messrs. Ingram, Randall and Wilkins voting against the bill to oust him by abolishing his district, which passed Senate by 2 maj., but failed in the House!

The bill to sell the remaining State Improvements to the Sunbury & Erie Railroad Company, passed the Senate, 18 to 14, and, having previously passed the House, will doubtless become a law. This is a very important movement. If well managed, the Company will become rich and useful; if badly managed, an engine of corruption and extravagance—perhaps as bad as the State management of the Public Works!

The Militia Bill, we understand, passed. The bill raising rates of interest, failed.

APRIL 20.—Mr. GREGG, on leave read in place a bill relative to the borough of Lewistown, and the Lewistown Gas Company.

The New Liquor Bill.

The Supplement to the Liquor Law of 1856, was passed by both Houses, and from it we extract the following as the main features:

Licenses to be granted in Philadelphia by the Board of Appraisers, in Allegheny county by the Associate Judges and Treasurer, and in other counties by the Judges of the Courts, with a qualified discretionary power over the applications.

The minimum price of licenses with sales of over $1000 to be $25, and under $1000 to be $15. In Philadelphia and Pittsburg, the minimum to be $50. Hotels and taverns to be classified and rated according to the sales. On sales of $10,000, the license to be $100; on sales of $8000, the license to be $250; on sales of $6000, the license to be $150; and on sales of $2000, the license to be $150.

Retail brewers to be rated as eating houses. Appraisers to be appointed to examine and detect adulterated and drugged liquors, and the sale of such liquors prohibited and punished.

No public notice of application to sell liquors is required, and there is no limit as to the number who may sell.

FOR THE LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

As an humble individual, I desire to express my thanks to Mr. F. Billmeyer and Mr. H. Frick for that publication of their opinions as to what constitutes true Democracy. For one, I dissented entirely from the labored arguments of the Union Argus that it was wrong for any Democrat to disagree with Mr. Buchanan and his Cabinet. One would be led to think that the editor deemed them to be as infallible as the Roman Catholics claim their Pope and Cardinals to be. But I don't believe that any man, Pope or President, Captain or private, is infallible. And I believe it is not only the privilege but the duty of every native as well as every adopted Democrat to narrowly scrutinize all public acts of our party or any other, and especially all acts affecting that great question, Slavery.

But now we are told that Kansas must be forced into the Union, and made a Slavery State like South Carolina and Georgia, contrary to the will of her people and to the great doctrine of popular sovereignty. But two years ago only, we were told and assured by Gov. Bigler, Geo. A. Frick, Col. Crotzer, and Mr. Purdy and others, that there was no possible danger of Slavery going into Kansas, and that it was only an electioneering trick of the Opposition. During the Presidential crisis, we were told by them and other gentlemen that Mr. Buchanan was an open, fair man, who would do right, and see that every citizen of Kansas had a right to vote on their Constitution, and keep Slavery out if they wished to. The advertisement for the democratic mass meeting at Mifflinburg claimed that the "Democracy were laboring for freedom for Kansas." But where is "Buchanan and Free Kansas" now? Alas! Slavery is to be forced upon unhappy Kansas; her people are to have no power to vote against Slavery; and Bigler and Mr. Crotzer and Purdy cry out Amen—we will stand by the President!

One thing is certain, these men deceived the people two years ago, and are therefore corrupt and wicked; or else they were themselves deceived, and are therefore unfit and incompetent leaders of honest men. The Opposition told us the intention of the Buchanan party was to make a Slave State at any rate, and at all hazards, and it turns out to be true. But whether we shall longer follow such "blind leaders of the blind," is for every one who loves Liberty and his country, and wants to do right, to say for himself. Those who have thus misled or deceived, can no longer claim the regard or confidence of the people.

A JEFFERSONIAN DEMOCRAT.

The Susquehanna Steamer.

The U.S. Steamship Susquehanna, Capt. Sands, arrived at New York, from Nicaragua, via Port Royal, Jam., where 6 officers and 57 men were landed, sick with [illegible] detained in Quarantine. There had been 150 cases of fever on board the ship. [John A. Grier, of Lewisburg, an Assistant Engineer on board the Susquehanna, was among the sick left at Port Royal. A letter from Mr. Robie, his messmate, to his parents, states that John had an attack of the fever on the 1st inst., but was recovering, and unless he should suffer a relapse was considered as safe from danger.]

NEW YORK, April 16.—There are 21 cases of yellow fever, this morning, at the Marine Hospital, taken from the Susquehanna. Immediately after the Health Commissioners sent her to the Lower Quarantine anchorage to ride out the Quarantine probation. The officers and crew of the Susquehanna, except so many as are necessary for shipkeepers, have been ordered to take quarters at Quarantine grounds. Several of the sick died to-day. The remainder are doing well.

A correspondent of the Herald, at Black River, Jamaica, writing on the 9th inst., says: "I returned from Port Royal yesterday, where the invalids of the steam frigate Susquehanna were progressing in hospital as favorably as could be expected. Not a death has occurred among them, and all are convalescent. The island is very healthy, and business rather better, owing in a great measure to the intercourse of British and foreign vessels.

A fight occurred in the Hall of the House at Washington, between Burton Craige, M. C. from North Carolina, and H. R. Helper, author of "Impending Crisis of the South." Helper demanded Craige's authority for some slanderous assertions, when Craige jumped at Helper's throat, Keitt fashion, but Helper was too much and too quick for him, and Craige suffered heavy blows before they were parted. The slave-holding Justice, however, fined Helper $20, which he paid, and "left."

IMPORTANT LAW.—The act of the 19th of April, 1848, which was in force in Philadelphia and Luzerne counties only commonly called the Sheriff's Interpleader Act, has recently been extended to the whole State, by an act of the Legislature. It is almost verbatim a copy of the British statute, and the Courts of Philadelphia have adopted the English practice under it. This is one of the most important and salutary laws that has been passed by the present Legislature. It applies in all cases were execution is issued against, and levy is made upon the property of A., but which claimed by B., in which case B. gives notice to the Sheriff that the property does not belong to A., but that it belongs to him, B. Whereupon the Sheriff asks for a rule from Court whence the execution was issued, to call before said Court the party issuing the process and the party making the title in the property and that the Court may decide to whom it belongs. This is a much speedier and more satisfactory way, and less hazardous and expensive to both the Sheriff and the parties than the old method of allowing the Sheriff to sell, and then prosecuting him for trespass.

☞ Never have we read such descriptions of popular joy, as have been manifested, in Kansas, on the receipt of the news of the defeat of the Lecompton Constitution in the House. Men and women, boys and girls, were all actuated by one spirit of gratulation and uproariousness in every imaginable manner utterance. A "national Democratic" party is unknown among the intelligent and patriotic freemen of Kansas.

A runaway slave was captured in Blairsville, Pa., last week by a deputy marshal and his master, but the "mudsills of society" just took the fugitive out of the hands of the Marshal et al., and slid him off towards Canada. N. B. The Union is safe, and Sambo is free.

Whereupon the Court directed the Sheriff to give four successive weeks' public notice, previous to next Term, of the facts set forth in said petition, in one newspaper published in this county, to appear and show cause why the Court, on proof of payment, shall not direct satisfaction to be entered, according to Act of Assembly, on said mortgage, so far as the same was given, to said Michael Hoffman.
