Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1858

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

NEW GOODS.—Some of the Lewisburg merchants have been somewhat tardy in receiving their stock this Spring, but their selections are none the less careful and timely for that. WALLS'—BEAVER & Co.'s—HURSH & GOODMAN—F. S. CALDWELL, and J. L. HAWN announce new stocks this week.

☞ Our young friend T. G. Grier has set up for himself in the room formerly his father's Drug Store. Careful, attentive, and honest, he is worthy and we doubt not will receive a fair support.

—Nevius Cummings & Whitlock announce their Marble establishment to day.

UNION ADJOURNED COURT.—There has been a fair attendance of suitors and lawyers at Court, but Jurors and spectators have not been so numerous. Messrs. Lyon and Hess were appointed tipstaves.

The "gift of continuance" to May Court was very prevalent, and many cases were settled, or judgments obtained by consent. The "baby act" was plead in one case, which plea—Squeers thinks—should always entitle the "infant" to the services and watchcare of a Guardian.

Up to yesterday noon, four Jury trials had been had, as follows:

North, Chase & North vs. C. H. Shriner. The same cause had been tried before, but an appeal having been taken, and the Judge having lost or mislaid the papers, a new trial was required, and resulted in verdict for Piffs as in first trial.

Henry C. Baird vs. H. W. Crotzer. Verdict rendered for Deft.

Geddes, Marsh & Co. vs. James P. Ross. Piffs took non-suit before the Jury retired.

Krick vs. A. Ammons—Jury out all night—ten "stubborn" ones against two—could n't agree, and were discharged by the Court.

—Yesterday at 2 o'clock, P. M. the Court assembled, but having no business ready, the Juries were discharged and the Court adjourned.

"DOWN WITH THE DUST."—Already do the dwellers and walkers on Market street begin to feel the evil of the dust which so annoys in every dry time, and there should be some means devised at once for laying the dust during the coming season. The injury of the dirt and sand carried along the street, is much greater than the cost of preventing it. Goods and wares of all kinds, clothing, and furniture, are much injured by the dust, when a small contribution, from each of the many who are interested, might wholly prevent the evil. The damage to health, and the discomfort caused by the clouds of dust, are other strong reasons for some timely preparation to conquer the evil, as may be effectually done.

☞ Thanks to Hon. Paul Leidy for a copy of his reasons for siding with the Nullifiers and Border Ruffians in enforcing Slavery upon Kansas through the Lecompton Constitution. They may be satisfactory to himself, but we doubt whether they will satisfy the majority in his district. Mr. Leidy "saves the Union," and pleads for the wrong side, lawyer fashion, with an ingenuity worthy of a better case.

☞ Miss Frances E. Watkins, a mulatto lady from Baltimore, lectured on the Slavery question to a large audience in Independent Hall, last Wednesday evening. As an elocutionist, as a good reasoner, and as a person of general information, we presume no one who heard her would pronounce her the inferior of any one who has yet addressed an audience on that platform.

☞ The Administration organ—The Washington Weekly Union—has been enlarged and greatly improved in appearance. It is published by C. WENDELL, at $2 for single copies, $5 for 3 copies, $10 for 15, $25 for 20 copies.

☞ Severe frosts prevailed the fore part of this week. Snow fell at the North, and frosts was seen as far down as Georgia. It is feared that considerable injury has been done to the fruit, and to cotton.

☞ Foreign news announce the triumph of the British in their attack upon Lucknow, where they drove the rebels away with great slaughter. The British loss was not severe.

—The rebels in Peru are vanquished.

☞ Many of our readers, who of yore attended Courts at New Berlin, will recognize in the blank verse portrait on our first page, JAMES CORNELIUS, (father of John H. and Zaccheus Cornelius of our day.)

☞ R. C. Allison late of the Mifflinburg Academy has entered upon the duties of the Gospel Ministry, in connection with the Presbyterian church.

☞ The late farm of James Moore, on the River in Kelly Tp, has been purchased by Geo. F. Miller, Esq, for the sum of Twenty-Three Thousand Dollars.

☞ The Philadelphia Municipal Election takes place on Tuesday next. There does not seem to be much excitement, about it.

☞ An interesting letter from "S. H. F." describing the continuance of the religious reformation in Philad., came too late for this week.

The chopping or grinding of grain, to be fed to stock, operates as a saving of at least twenty-five per cent.

News Items from Other Counties.

The three men taken up in Lycoming county for counterfeiting, were tried the same week, and sent to the Eastern Penitentiary for three years.

Thomas G. Price, editor of the "Workman's Advocate," published at Minersville, who about a month ago was sentenced to the Schuylkill county prison, for four months, for publishing a libel upon Mr. Bast, a coal operator, has been pardoned by Gov. Packer.

REJOICINGS AT LOCKHAVEN AND ERIE.—The news of the passage of the bill for the sale of the State canals to the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company was received at Lockhaven, Pa., on Saturday evening, and much excitement and rejoicing followed. At Erie the intelligence was welcomed by the firing of one hundred guns, and other demonstrations of joy.

In Harrisburg they have a night patrol to guard the town from the depredation of scoundrels.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have declared a semi-annual dividend of three per cent., clear of State tax, payable on and after May 15th. The intelligence will be gratifying to all our readers, showing, as it does, that the road continues to prosper, in spite of the dullness of business.

The Bellefonte Whig announces the death, in that place, the 14th inst., of Dr. Lucian C. Harris, aged 30 years. The deceased was for several years a resident of Harrisburg, where he engaged in the practice of medicine. During the prevalence of the cholera at Columbia, Pa., a few years ago, he was one of the prominent physicians, and did much for the relief of the sufferers—his services being so highly appreciated by the citizens of that place, that they afterwards presented him with a gold headed cane. His disease was consumption.

Dr. U. S. Pott has opened in Peterman's Arcade, Muney, a new Drug Store.

The citizens of Selinsgrove and vicinity are strongly in favor of having the Mission Institute and Classical School for young men located in their midst. Fifteen thousand dollars have been subscribed to be given to the managers of these Institutions if they locate them in this place. Seven thousand dollars have also been subscribed by the citizens of this place and vicinity to erect buildings for a Female College.—Demokrat.

G. K. Swope, late of Muncy, has opened a store in Uniontown.—Matthew Brown has removed his store to a storeroom on his farm, up the Valley.

The Danville Intelligencer says, the Trustees of the Montour Iron Company started another furnace last week. All the Danville Iron works are now in operation except the new wing of the Montour mill and one furnace. The employees are furnished with the necessaries of life, but receive no money for their labor.

Gov. Packer "approved" an act increasing the pay of the Sheriff and Commissioners of Lycoming county.

The Danville Democrat says that the ferry boat sank in the river forty yards from the shore with two loaded lime wagons and two buggies on board. Passengers and horses were rescued frightened and wet, as the river was low.

The Scranton Republican says that Mrs. Mary Gould was sent to Wilkes-Barre for setting fire to the barn of J. A. Moss in Scranton. She is Irish and not on good terms with her husband who occupies part of the barn with his furniture. Fortunately the fire was extinguished and a number of surrounding buildings saved from destruction.

We understand that Wm. R. Maffet, Esq, has charge of the repairs to Johnny Cake Dam on the Junction Canal.

A true bill was found by the Grand Jury of Philad. against Robert Kirkpatrick and wife for conspiracy to poison the family of Edwin Kirkpatrick.

Luther J. Wolf, aged about 35 years, a son of the late ex-Governor Wolf, was killed last Wednesday night by falling from the window of his room in the third story of White's Hotel, at Easton, where he was employed as bar-keeper.

On Thursday, Mr. John Rathmell, one of the oldest citizens of Williamsport, was obliged to undergo the operation of having his left foot amputated, in consequence of a severe frost bite received last winter. The operation was performed by Dr. Lyon, assisted by Drs. Smith and Rothrock.

The specie reserve in the Banks of Philadelphia amounts to nearly seven millions of dollars. The circulation is under two millions and a half.

FUNERAL OF A SLAVE.—The attendance at the funeral of Jake, the colored man to whom we alluded yesterday, was among the largest ever witnessed in our city. The large Baptist Church at the corner of Catherine and Charlotte streets was densely crowded to hear the sermon, which was preached by the Rev. Mr. Allen. About a dozen double carriages, and about 2,000 persons followed the hearse to the grave. We noticed a number of white persons, both in the church and on the sidewalks.—Norfolk Argus.

[Can "the Union" stand that?]

In New York city, they have commenced sending the letters from country fools to "gift" swindles, to the dead letter office at Washington. (No use in returning such people's money to them: they are just bound to be cheated, with eyes opened and ears warned, in one way if not another.)

The steamboat Ocean Spray last week, started from St. Louis for the Illinois trade, and being engaged in a race with a rival boat, caught fire, and 25 or 30 passengers perished.

Missouri Colony from Union Co., Pa.

Among the crowds who are pouring from the Free States into Missouri, we have this week to record a company of five families from our neighborhood, under the lead of Col. JAMES MOORE, many years one of our most active and best esteemed citizens, and whose loss to our community will be doubtless a great gain to any people among whom he may settle. Besides Col. Moore and his family, are those of Edward W. Moore and John Groff of Kelly township, Charles Getzen of Mifflinburg, and James Lafferty of Lewisburg. The four first named intend locating their families together in Western Missouri. There are thousands in this region who wish them well, and will be rejoiced to hear of their future prosperity and happiness.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The bill Mr. Quitman (Miss.) endeavored to introduce in the House to-day, sets forth that it is unwise, impolitic and unjust to the existing States, to premature and hastily admit new States, thereby unduly stimulating the occupation of distant and vacant Territories, by forced and unnatural immigration for political, partisan and speculative purposes. In order to correct these evils and give timely notice of the line of policy which will hereafter be pursued, the Bill provides that no new States shall be admitted into the Union until it is ascertained by a census taken by authority of Congress, that the Territory asking admission contains a population sufficient for a Representative in Congress, nor until the people have been authorized by Congress, to hold a Convention to frame a Constitution and to present the same for admission.—(Right).

ADVERTISE.—The harder the times, and the more scarce the money, the more careful should the people be in buying, and the more necessary is it to win and retain customers. Hence arise the policy and necessity of reading and advertising, that the interests of buyers and sellers may be best promoted.

Rev. L. A. Allerson, of Lewisburg, Va., was among the emigrants who left that place last week for Kansas.

A DONATION—an appeal to the Charitable.—It is desired that a Donation Visit be made to Mr. Henry Poeth at his residence on Friday the 7th day of May. Mr. Poeth is an old citizen, and has not been able to work for a year and is needy and will be thankful for anything that may be donated by his friends and fellow citizens. [By request.]

☞ The new house of worship of the United Brethren, at New Berlin, will be dedicated on Sunday, 16th of May. Bishop Glassbrenner and others are engaged as preachers.

In Chronic Complaints or diseases of long standing superinduced by nervousness, they are exceedingly beneficial.

☞ It is a most undoubted fact that Dr. SANFORD'S Invigorator, or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr., during twenty years' practice, to find what particular organ, when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains; and his conclusion is, that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system, and the most liable to disease; which if kept free from disease, is a preventative of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while, last but far from least, we mention consumption; for our experience is that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver than from all other causes put together.

Taking this to be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventative. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements, it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all diseases of the stomach or bowels, when are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest and most efficacious remedy known.

The Leather Inspector.

Gov. PACKER has appointed JOHN K. GAMBLE, of Germantown, leather inspector for Philadelphia. This appointment is an admirable one in every respect. Mr. G. is a most exemplary citizen, and is greatly esteemed in the community where he resides. He was a delegate to the Harrisburg Convention, and was the only representative from this district who voted against Lecompton, and thus truly represented the sentiment of this great city.—The Press, (Forney.)

Very good. But our neighbor of the Argus, on the other hand, looks daggers at Mr. Gamble, and utters the following most sinister growl at Gov. Packer:

"APPOINTMENT.—Governor Packer, has appointed John K. Gamble of Germantown, a Morrocco dresser! To the office of Leather Inspector! Perhaps the Governor feels rich enough since the passage of the Sunbury and Erie bill, to indulge in morrocco boots, and does not realize the necessity of an Inspector, for leather of a coarser sort."

Now as we wish to "keep peace in the family," we offer the following most disinterested remarks: A party, like a man, has not only a head, but it must have also a stomach and other inferior organs. We advise, therefore, that the fine accomplished morocco gentleman be retained in his present post to indicate the well known fact that the brains, the intellect of the party are dead against Lecompton; and let some thick-headed Lecompton man be appointed Inspector of coarse leather to indicate that the stomach of the party—the sole, if not the upper leather and the calf skin—go with Buchanan, and for the Lecompton swindle. Now, as Paddy said, "this wud be fair and aiqual." The hungry stomach which was so ably represented by the Post Masters and others of that ilk at the Harrisburg Convention would get the fodder which it longs for, and, like insatiable Death, as described by Milton, would

"Grin horribly a ghastly smile."

And at the same time the brains of the prrty, embracing such men as Douglas, Forney, Montgomery, with our neighbors Billmyer, Frick, and many others, would be represented in the State appointments by Mr. Inspector Gamble. But we warn Gov. Packer, that, whatever else he may neglect, he must not neglect to throw some bones into the Boa-Constrictor stomach of the Lecompton Democracy. True, they are mentally as well as numerically insignificant; but their capacity for food is enormous. Besides, as Mr. Gamble is a Free Soiler, we don't see how any Lecomptonite can object to his inspecting all the leather from Africa!

A SAD END.—The Nebraska correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat writes that Governor Cumming's illness was protracted several months, and that no disease is assigned as the cause of his death, "but it is an undeniable fact that he died of 'rot gut' whiskey and licentiousness." In every other respect the Governor was a man of unexceptionable character.

Of the citron, the orange and lime;
They sing of the fragrance in which diffused
By the breeze in each tropical clime,
Let the epicure boast of each high flavored dish,
The flavor of wine or French brandy,
Yet none of the list named above can compare
With Mrs. DENORMANDIE'S Candy.
Rich spices, and fruits, and sweet flowers may legend,
Or dishes for epicures delight;
But the question to this I will not debate,
Yet each have admirers in plenty
Without there is none of them half so much prized,
From the sweet lisping child to the aged,
As the sweetest of sweets, everywhere advised—
I mean Mrs. DENORMANDIE'S Candy.

Mrs. Denormandie takes pleasure in informing her numerous friends that she has recently refitted her parlors, and is now prepared to furnish ICE CREAM, CAKE and CONFECTIONERIES to such as may favor her with their custom.
☞ Parties supplied at the shortest notice and on reasonable terms.
