Queen Victoria's Message.

London, August 16, 1858. To the President of the United States: Her Majesty desires to congratulate the President upon the successful completion of this great international work, in which the Queen has taken the greatest interest.
VICTORIA R.

New York, Aug 16—Evening—I am assu red by Mr. M Kay, the Superintendent of the Newfoundland Telegraph Lone, that the message as sent is wholly complete, and also that the line is now in good working order from herets London. It is held-upon for the recep-tion of the President's reply to the Queen. (signed) D. H. CRAIG.
