Freedom, national: Slavery, sectional!

The State Elections of 1858

Have now terminated, and we may sum up the results.

In a word, every Slave State (that has held a State Election) has gone for the Slave or Buchanan Administration party.

Every Free State elected officers opposed to that Administration.

We do not count California either Free or Slave, but her Congressmen are Anti-Buchanan Democrats.

Both South and North, some local matters caused adverse results, but in general the tendency is for the Slave Power in the one, and against it in the other.

MAINE, VERMONT, NEW HAMPSHIRE, MASSACHUSETTS, IOWA, NEW JERSEY—these States choose entire Opposition Congressmen and State Officers, and the Opposition will gain a U. S. Senator in New Jersey.

CONNECTICUT and RHODE ISLAND chose Opposition Governor, &c., by increased majorities. (Congressmen next year.)

NEW YORK elects the entire Republican State Ticket, with 28 or 29 out of 33 Congressmen, Opposition—one or two of the 4 or 5 Buchanan men's seats to be contested. Out of New York city, Buchanan has not a Member, unless Governeur Morris succeeds in his close contest with John B. Haskin in West Chester.

PENNSYLVANIA'S condemnation of her own trusted son, is most remarkable and significant.

OHIO gives over 20,000 majority on the Congressional Ticket—a gain of 18,000 over last year, and some thousands over her Fremont majority.

In INDIANA, the friends of Pilate and Herod (Douglas and Buchanan) united on a State Ticket, which they elected by about 2,000 maj. But on the Congressional test, there is 9,000 maj. against the National Administration. The Legislature also is hostile to Buchanan, and will probably elect two Northern Senators in place of the usurpers, Bright and Fitch.

In MICHIGAN, the contest was only between the Republicans and Douglas men. The Republicans carry Governor, State Ticket, and all except one Congressman.

MINNESOTA elected a Legislature in which the Republicans have 20 to 25 maj., upon whom properly devolves the choice of a U.S. Senator in place of Gen. Shields, Douglas Dem. Two Congressmen are yet to be chosen, and the Republicans will probably gain a Member or two.

WISCONSIN is decidedly Republican, and yet a Douglas man beats Billinghurst for Congress in a close district with a floating population.

ILLINOIS was the hottest field, and the result there is the most withering and exterminating rebuke to the Administration. Douglas was the man who engineered the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise, thus opening the floodgates of dissension; he is a slave-holder; he stood by the South, and the Border Ruffians, in their raid upon Kansas; he lauded the Dred Scott infamy; he was the very leader in the Administration crusade against Constitutional Liberty....until a point was reached where Douglas saw the North could go no further. Then it was—at the critical moment when the Administration sought to realize the fruit of all its toil and bloodshed—at that point, Douglas proved a traitor, deserted the Administration, and aided Republicans in killing Lecompton. It was for this cruel betrayal that Pres. Buchanan issued an edict that Illinois should not re-elect Senator Douglas. This order did not suit the people of Illinois, and many Republicans enlisted in Douglas's support—not that they liked him, but they did not wish him defeated for the only good deed he ever did—not that they hated him less, but Buchanan more. Others of the Republicans thought Lincoln, his opponent, not entirely orthodox, and declined voting. Douglas got the "regular" organization. Such sagacious Southerners as Wise, Hammond, Breckinridge, &c., satisfied that Douglas was as devoted a Slavite as they could find in the North for President, and viewing it impolitic to let him be defeated, deserted Buchanan, openly enlisted for Douglas, and it is stated raised a fund of $50,000 to aid him. His own means were all expended in the contest. By such gigantic efforts—aided by the Senators holding over from last year—Douglas has secured a small majority of the Legislature; and yet there is a rumor that several of them are secret tools of the Administration, which we doubt. It is in effect a splendid personal victory for Stephen Arnold Douglas, and makes him a most available candidate for a Locofoco nomination for President by the Charleston Convention, with his Anti-Lecompton face for the North, and a long Pro-Slavery record for the South....There is but a small maj. on the State Ticket, either way; and the Congressional Delegation is unchanged—5 Douglas Dem. to 4 Republicans. ....The Administration vote is but about 3,000: they have more Post Masters and other office-holders, doubtless, there, but seeing their ticket stood no chance they mostly left it for either Lincoln or Douglas, as their preferences lay. There is, therefore, hardly a Buchanan or Administration party in that great State!

—Such is the general result in the mighty North, which has spoken; Philadelphia alone the votes and the power of the Nation. Of this Administration it may well be said—

> "How are the mighty fallen!
> And by the People's hand. Low lie the proud,
> And smitten by the weapons of the poor—
> The workman's hammer and the woodman's axe!
> And for that they were rich, and robbed the poor;
> And for that they were strong, and scourged the weak;
> And for that they made laws which turned
> The sweat of Labor's brow to blood—
> For these their sins the Nation casts them out!"

"Will Mr. Buchanan resign? or will he change his policy?" If he "had a drop of Democratic blood in his veins"—if he was the SERVANT instead of the would-be RULER of the People, he would do as the public voice demands—Admit Kansas as a Free State at once; stop Extravagant Expenditures; and enact a Protective Tariff. We hope he may; and yet we fear he will obstinately obey his tyrannical masters, in all their bad schemes, to the bitter and yet unforeseen end.

More Agitation!

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, 1858.—Hints are thrown out that the President has in contemplation a grand scheme of territorial and commercial aggrandizement which, when proposed, is likely to occupy the public mind so as to overshadow the slavery question. Central America and the Isthmus are indicated as the field of labor.

The project, whatever it is, has been long contemplated, though nothing has hitherto been said about it publicly. The States this evening declares that whoever makes war on William Walker makes war on the best interests of the South and on the perpetuity of the Union.

George M. Dallas, U. S. Minister to England, has at last obliged Pres. Buchanan by intimating his intention of returning home in the Spring. It is said the President will fill the desired vacancy by appointing Mr. Hughes, of Ind., a defeated Lecomptonite Congressman, to the office. (For the People to condemn, is for the President to approve.)

"SECTIONALISM," as now defined by the Locofocos, is a sentiment which embraces Liberty as the right and ultimate state of all God's children. "Nationalism," by the same authority, is the rule of 340,000 slaveholders over 3,000,000 slaves and 20,000,000 free whites.

"The Sectional party," by the same authority, is the party which regards Liberty as a great universal boon—the best interest of the masses in all the States—and composing the overwhelming majority of the Nation. "The National party" is a miserable minority, having power only in the lesser section of the Nation, and ruling by means of a combined aristocracy.

The true "National" party is the North or Republican—the majority. The true "Sectional" party is the South or Locofoco—the minority.

PROVED.—We recently called upon the people to wait and see what reward Ex Gov. Denver of Kansas would get for his Letter upholding Buchanan and abusing the people of Kansas. A Washington correspondent, of Nov. 9th, lets the cat out of the bag, by quietly remarking "Gov. Denver has resumed the appointment of Commissioner of Indian Affairs." He is first kicked out, and then provided a good office again if he would write a false and scurilous letter against the Free State men of Kansas! Would Reeder, or Shannon, or Geary, or Walker, or Stanton, stoop so low to get an office? Not they!

Stephenson county, Illinois, gives an increased majority of 250 or 300 for the whole Republican ticket. Geo. Reitzell (independent) for Sheriff is beaten out of sight—Taggart, regular Republican, having 200 maj. over both his opponents. Bright is 9,000 behind Washburne in the Congressional race, and Strockey is beaten 1000 by Addams for Senator.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. George Whiteneck, residing up Little Fishingcreek, in this county, met with a fearful, and it is tho't, a fatal accident sometime since. He was chopping off a log along the hill side, and in endeavoring to roll it down, by some misstep he slipped and fell; unluckily he was caught by the rolling piece of timber and horribly crushed. His spine is so severely injured from the middle of his body down to his extremeties, that there is apparently no life or sensation. His recovery is exceedingly doubtful.—Bloomsburg Star.

New Castle county, Delaware, is comparatively a Free county, and is nearly as prosperous as the adjoining counties in Pennsylvania. This gave a good majority for the Opposition ticket this year; but Kent and Sussex (slave) counties—miserable, slow, and poor counties—gave Buchanan majorities, electing Congress, Governor, and Legislature, by very small majorities—about 400 where Buchanan had 1500.

U. S. Senator Hammond, S. C., (of "mudsill" memory) recently made a political address near home, in which he spoke desparingly of Kansas, and of re-opening the Slave Trade; but said that the true friends of the South should look to Cuba, Mexico, and Central America, for conquests, hereafter.

The officers whose duty it was to count the votes in York county, Pennsylvania, decided that lead pencil marks in "scratching" tickets were not lawful, so that the names of candidates stricken out with pencil strokes were counted as though no "scratching" had occurred.

Last Sunday evening, the large double Coal Breaker at Middle Creek, Schuylkill Co., belonging to the Donaldson Coal Co., was destroyed by fire. This is the eighth breaker burned in that region within the last six months. It was insured in four Philadelphia offices.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Leonard Allen, a respectable inhabitant of Friendsville, Susquehanna county, left his residence and family on the 13th day of September, on a business visit to Towanda, Binghampton, and the adjacent country; his family, being much distressed on account of his absence, are apprehensive that some serious calamity must have happened to him, or that he is laid up with sickness in some remote or secluded place, from which he can not communicate with them. Any communication from him, if living, or from any other person having seen him or knowing where he is, will be gratefully received by his afflicted family.

SINGULAR AND SOLEMN CASE.—The following instance is noticed in the last Lewistown Gazette, among the proceedings of the Mifflin county court:

"Commonwealth, vs. Levi Saltzbaugh, indicted for selling liquor without license. A true bill. Nov. 2d, 1858, case referred to jury, and the defendant found guilty in manner and form as indicted. The defendant in the above case was unexpectedly called to the Bar of the Great Judge, (on yesterday morning,) since his trial, and before the sentence of the Court was pronounced. Mr. S. was an aged man, a Jew, and lived at Lilley's Mills, in this county, where he had been engaged in mercantile pursuits.

The Mayor of Philadelphia, we see it stated, has resolved to suppress street begging. The Lancaster Guardian has an amusing article, showing the manner of living—by regular circuits—of some of the street country beggars in that region. Judge Pearson, of Dauphin, decided that Constables should take up and commit all public beggars. It is everywhere desired that a system be devised to stop all kinds of alms begging, by supplying the needy with a comfortable home, making all work who can, and absolutely suppressing vagrancy.

Jacob Leidy, a son of John Leidy, of Turbut township, Northumberland county, aged about 21 years, was shot on White Deer Mountains on Wednesday of last week, while hunting deer. There were five in the party, and while walking down the mountains one of the party, in attempting to fix the cap on his gun accidentally discharged it, the contents lodging in the side of Mr. Leidy. The only words he uttered were, "I'm shot dead," and immediately expired.—Miltonian.

ROBBERY.—On Friday night last a robbery was committed in Smith's Tavern, Northumberland county, opposite Fisher's Ferry. Five men, all sleeping in one room, were robbed out of different sums of money, amounting to over two hundred dollars. Charles Kleckner, of Centreville, was one of the number. Joseph Kessler, of New Berlin, had from $20 to $25 taken. No trace could be got as to the villain!

The Phila. Ledger notices as a remarkable fact, that never in the history of the world did Religious Sermons sell so well as now. Spurgeon, Caird, Wayland, &c., are especially noticed. Even in California, 12,000 volumes of Spurgeon have been sold!

John Deed, whom we mentioned in our last paper as having had his legs crushed under a lime car, died of his injuries on Thursday night.—Danville American.

There are a great many counterfeit quarters, of 1856, said to be afloat. The Jersey Shore Republican hints that they were made not a thousand miles from that place.

Fremont for President, and Forney for Vice President, is the latest "ticket" proposed for 1860.

The extension of the Bloomsburg railroad to Danville, and thence to Sunbury, is urged, as the next step.

York, Pa., this year, polled 1129 votes—the largest of any borough in the State.

The Princess and the Physician.

Few foreigners who were sojourning in Rome during the Autumn of 18—, can fail to remember the violent illness of the beautiful Princess C——, which suddenly withdrew from the brilliant social circles of that city their fairest ornament. The means by which that illustrious lady was restored to health, when given over by all the faculty in Rome, is not however so generally known. She owes her life, and is ever prompted to acknowledge the obligation, to the most distinguished physician of the age, Dr. Thomas Holloway. That extraordinary man happened to arrive in the "Seven-hilled City" just as the crisis of her disorder, and was immediately summoned to her palace. He found the Princess in a sad condition. During an evening drive through the Campagna she had been smitten by the fearful malaria which sometime arises in poisonous clouds from the adjacent marshes. The consequence was a virulent bilious attack, terminating in jaundice. The lovely face which had dazzled all eyes, and eclipsed all rivalry at ball and banquet, was yellow as saffron, and the eyes which had kindled love and admiration in a thousand hearts were duller than lead. In a feeble voice she inquired of the doctor what could be done for her, at the same time protesting that if the hue that now tinged her skin were to remain after her recovery she would rather die than live. Smiling at the pardonable vanity of one whose queenly beauty was the theme of every traveler who visited Rome, he told her cheerfully that her life and her loveliness were both safe. His prediction proved true. Under the influence of his irresistable Pills, the suffusion began to pass off; and day by day, like a star bursting through a cloud, her beauty was re-developed. Within six weeks it was announced that the Princess would soon gladden the eyes of her admirers at an evening festival to take place at her chateau at Tivoli in honor of her recovery.

It may well be supposed that the Princess would willingly have displayed her gratitude on a magnificent scale, but this Dr. H. would not permit. He refused to receive anything, save a mere souvenir; and she presented him with a most appropriate one. It was a double miniature, set in emeralds and diamonds, one case representing the Princess as she lay upon her sick bed, despoiled by disease of all her charms, and the other containing her likeness as she appeared at the fete in the full bloom of restored health and beauty. The momento was accompanied by a note in which were these words, "Whenever you look at the two pictures, imagine if you can, my boundless gratitude.' It may well be supposed that Dr. Holloway treasures this delicate tribute to his skill, among his choicest souvenirs.—Courier Del Popolo," Rome.
