WHO WAS IT?—Brown tells us a Vermont story which, he says, is as authentic as the best of The Post anecdotes, and certainly nothing more can be required. A respectable gentleman in Windsor county, many years ago, had an ambition to represent his town in the State Legislature. Though a man of good character, and every way able enough for the office he sought, he happened, as Aunt Peggy used to say, to have "a great many winning ways to make folks hate him," and was, in fact, the most unpopular man in town. Going to 'Squire X., an influential man who happened to be friendly to him, he laid his case before him, and asked his influence, saying that he didn't expect help without paying for it, and declaring that if he could get X's influence he was sure to be elected. The 'Squire "put in his best jumps" for his man, but when the ballot-box was turned, another man was declared elected. The disappointed candidate called out to know how the votes stood, and learned that he had got just three votes! "But I don't understand it," said he, turning to the 'Squire with a chop fallen countenance. "Nor I neither," said the 'Squire, "I put in my vote, you put in another, but who the d—l put in the third is more than I can imagine!"

☞If any one will take the trouble to look around him on an evening walk through our streets, and observe the number of boys running about in many quarters of the town, he will become convinced, as we have, that reform is needed. We appeal to the mothers, fathers and employers, and respectfully urge them to keep their children from the streets at night. If they knew what serious injury they often do to the property of our citizens, and also what evil habits they form when thus set free from parental oversight, it would shock them. We know that the majority of parents would severely punish their children if found doing such things: then why not restrain and prevent? Is not the day sufficient for exercise and recreation? And, moreover, this is the beginning of long, cool evenings, when the time devoted to acquiring knowlege may be the seed time of a glorious harvest of honor, wealth, and real enjoyment, when they have grown to years of maturity. This paragraph, careless parent! is intended for YOU!

Admirable!

[The following note was written in reply to an invitation to a fashionable party:]

My Dear Mrs. T.—My husband and I are tired of evening parties and morning headaches. I must be honest. Jane and Mary Ann say that it is "a horrid bore," but they will "accept with pleasure." I am sorry that they feel obliged to resort to such hypocrisy. Besides, you know you don't want us. You only think you must make a party because you have been invited to others to which you did not want to go. When it is over, you and your guests rejoice equally. Allow me to make a suggestion. Why not confer a favor upon yourself and them, and upon those who would appreciate the kindness, by giving up the party, and by investing the money intended for wine, oysters and low-necked dresses, in solid nourishment for those to whom a biscuit would be a luxury, and whose bare shoulders would no longer shiver were they covered with comfortable shawls? Truly and sincerely yours.

THE HORSE TOM CORWIN RIDES.—At a public meeting in Cincinnati, on Thursday last, Tom Corwin made a speech, in the course of which he said:

"I think I could convince every impartial man that the horse of Popular Sovereignty is a dead horse—blown to atoms by Democratic guns. And as for that wind-broken, spavined pony, the Wilmot Proviso, he was sired by Thomas Jefferson himself, and it's the horse I mean to ride, while there's a hair left in his tail." [Laughter and cheers.]

Farmers! if you wish to keep your sons on the farm, you must put more intellect into your farming. A bright boy wants food for the mind, as well as work for the body. He will be willing to work when mind directs the hand. Otherwise you can not keep him at home. Therefore read and think, about various good things, and work on your farm. Your boys will stay with you, then, becoming good farmers and good citizens.

Some of the Buchanan men are exercised about Forney—they wish he would "join the Abolitionists or the Devil," they don't care which. We hope he'll "renounce the Devil and all his works," which will rid the Loco party of him.

DOES Disease originate in IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD?

This is a question of vital importance, and one which has never been satisfactorily disposed of by the professors who teach the healing art. Some maintain (and especially the old school Physicians) that life lives in the blood, and therefore all diseases originate in it; but modern science avers that ailments have their origin in both the solids and fluids of the body. That the latter proposition, however, is a fixed fact, and medical skill has clearly demonstrated that at least two-thirds of the ills that human flesh is heir to, have their source in an

IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD!

As, for instance, in the long catalogue, such as Scrofula, Tetter, "Barber's Itch," Pimples, Blotches, Erysipelas, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, discharges from the Ear, Fever Sores, or irruptive diseases of any kind—these are ascertained be well known medical laws to arise from bad blood, while the highest medical authorities declare that most forms originate in the same manner, and more particularly Typhoid and Scarlet—the former being an internal, and the latter an external irruptive disease; and in all persons attacked by these maladies, the blood is found to be either coagulated, or of a dark unhealthy color.

To ward off a large majority of diseases, as well as to cure a number which have already seized upon the system, it is necessary to

PURIFY THE BLOOD.

Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher

does not claim to be a

UNIVERSAL PANACEA

for every disease known, but the proprietors claim for it the power not only of ousting out all impurities of the blood, but, by the skilful combination of well-known vegetable remedies, it will cure all diseases arising from a deranged state of the liver, drive out dispepsia, and give a renewed tone and vigor to the stomach. That the Blood Searcher is all that is claimed for it, the proprietors can produce

THE PROOF.

It was only a few years since it was discovered, and yet it has grown into such a business that a large Laboratory has been built expressly for its manufacture—a large number of men employed in putting it up, and still the

SUPPLY DOES NOT EQUAL THE DEMAND!

We ask any candid man, could this be so, if the Medicine did not possess all the virtues claimed for it?

The Proprietors have hundreds of certificates from men of position and standing in the community, showing what the medicine is doing daily for the suffering.

THE purest medicine always on hand direct from the best Laboratories in the country and the Botanical Gardens of the World. No patent medicine prescribed or recommended. Medicines used only which will not break down the constitution, but will renovate the system from all injuries it has sustained from mineral medicines. Chronic and difficult diseases must be treated upon analytical principles, which is to know and act with each disease, according to nature and character required to cure it. Diseases of the solid and fluid of the human body—the changes these solids and fluids are capable of undergoing. In order to adapt medicines to empty to cure diseases, requires a knowledge of the chemical constituents of all agents employed in medicines, and if we are in possession of this knowledge, it is possible to cure any disease—no matter of how long standing—and leave the patient in a healthy and good pecuniary condition.

Melancholy, alteration, that state of alienation and weakness of the mind, which renders persons incapable of enjoying the pleasures or performing the duties of life.

Dyspepsia, that distressing disease and fell destroyer of health and happiness, undermining the constitution, and yearly carrying thousands to untimely graves can most emphatically be cured.

Sworn statement of David M'Creary, of Napier Township, Bedford county:

In April, 1856, or more as I can remember, a small pimple made its appearance on my upper lip, which soon became enlarged and sore. I used poultices of sorrel, and a wash of lime water, without effect. Finding the sore extending, I called on Dr. Ely, of Schellsburg, who pronounced it CANCER, and prescribed a wash of sugar of lead and a decoction of the roots and barks of mullein, all of which I called upon Dr. Shaffer, of Davidsville, Somerset county, who also pronounced the disease Cancer, and gave me internal and external remedies—the latter consisting principally of caustic; but all to no purpose, as the disease continued spreading toward the nose. I next used a preparation of arsenic, in the form of salve. This for a time checked the disease, but the inflamation soon increased. I next called upon Dr. Shafer, of St. Clairsville, Bedford county, who also pronounced the disease Cancer, and applied a salve said to be a never failing remedy, but it had no effect whatever in checking the spread of the sore. In December of the same year, the disease had eaten away a greater part of my upper lip, and had attacked the nose, when I went to Cincinnati, where I consulted Prof. B. S. Newton, of the Eclectic Medical College. He pronounced the disease an cutaneous Cancer, superinduced by an inordinate use of mercury." He applied mild zinc ointment and gave me internal remedies. My face healed up, but the inflamation was not thoroughly removed. In February, 1857, he pronounced me cured, and I left for home. In April the disease again returned and so violent was the pain that I could find no rest at night. Late in May I returned to Cincinnati, and again placed myself under the charge of Dr. Newton, with whom I remained until September, during which time he used every known remedy, and partly succeeded in checking the disease, but when I returned home there were still three discharging ulcers on my face—I continued using Newton's preparations, and also medicine that I got from Dr. Ely, but the Cancer continued growing until it had eat off the left side of my nose, the greater portion of my left cheek, and had attacked my left eye. I had given up all hope of ever being cured, since Dr. Ely said he could only give relief; but that a cure was impossible. I bought a bottle of "Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher," but I must confess that I had no faith in it. I was very weak when I commenced taking it; but I found that I gained strength day by day, and also that the ulcers commenced drying up. I continued, and when the third bottle was taken my face was healed as it by a miracle. I took a fourth bottle, and I have been healthier since than I have been for the last seven years. Although my face is sadly disfigured, I am still grateful to a benign Providence who has spared my life, and which has been done through the instrumentality of Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher. DAVID M'CREARY.

NEW EVIDENCE.

Being afflicted with a grievous tetter on the arms and face—after trying many remedies which utterly failed to cure—I was persuaded by W. M. Harris & Co. to try Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher; and now, six weeks after finishing the second bottle, pronounced myself cured.

The tetter broke out, something over a year ago, on the inside of my arms, extending from the elbows down to the wrists; also, on my face, immediately round the mouth and chin, and continued to be a perfect torment to me until cured by the Blood Searcher. My arms, at times, were almost useless, owing to the cracks and sores on them, liable to bleed at any time on the least exertion to lift or work, and sometimes so itchy that I could scarcely prevent tearing off my flesh. I have now been cured six weeks, and feel it due to Mr. Lindsey, and to the public generally, to make this statement, in hope that others like myself may be benefited by using his valuable medicine.

DENTAL CARD.

THE new method of inserting artificial Teeth, Gums, &c., known as

is, without exception, the best improvement ever made in the art of Dentistry. This work, when properly constructed, is the most beautiful the cleanest, combines the greatest strength with durability, and adds more to a clear and distinct articulation, than any other kind of not only this. By a beautiful discovery in vulcanizing, we are able to fit the most difficult case, without, in the least, interfering with the sensibilities of the teeth in mastication.

I would take this method of informing those interested that I have purchased the Patent Right for this valuable improvement, of the inventor, John Allen, late of New York, (for this and several following years) and that I am now manufacturing an article of Teeth and Gums that will compare favorably with anything in that line that has ever been made in this or any other country. I call all and especially those that need teeth to their mouths to call and see me, and examine the specimens of work I have on hand, and satisfy themselves of the truth of the above statements.
