LEWISBURG CHRONICLE & WEST BRANCH FARMER .--- JAN. 21, 1859.

Good Financial Operation.

The Boston correspondent of the Nashus Register was somewhat amused at a colored meeting in that city a fow evenings since. The minister, a mouse-colored gentleman from abroad, said he should like to say a few words before he begun. " Perhaps you want to know who I are." He then proceeded to say, that, some three years ago, he was in that city, trying to Dr Livingstone" Travels & Explorations raise fifteen hundred dollars to buy his during a residence of 16 years in the wilds of wife and children, then in slavery. "1 physician's bill, was forthcoming. He it the most saleable book published. The most then went to Chicago, fell in with friends, and returned to St. Louis with the whole amount. WASH THE HEAD -The Norfolk Herald says : "We know an old gentleman, now seventy, who says, that, until he was thirty years old, he was of rather a weakly constitution, and particularly liable to attacks of bilious fever, violent colds, and heidache ; but, having heard that the This is a question of vital importance, and heidache; cut, having beard that wash best preventive of headache was to wash the head in cold water, every morning, immediately after rising, he then com-menced the practice, and has continued it to the present time, and during the interval of forty years, has never had the bilious fever ; hardly knows what the headache is; and though sometimes taking cold, has never had a cold that hindered him from attending to his ordinary offairs; add to this, he passed unscathed through the terrible epidemic of 1857. In other respects, he has lived, ate and drank as other people do, and has rather been in attentive to matters of hygiene."
