

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE

BY O. N. WORDEN & J. R. CORNELIUS.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, JAN. 28, 1859.

ESTABLISHED IN 1843...WHOLE NO. 772.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

The Lewisburg Chronicle

AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY NEWS PAPER.

Published every Friday, except on public holidays, at the office of the publishers, No. 111 North Third Street, Lewisburg, Pa.

TERMS:—$1.50 per year in advance... If not paid in advance, the subscription will be discontinued at the expiration of the term for which it was paid.

THE CHRONICLE

MONDAY, JAN. 28, 1859.

THE DOY I LOST IN HIS INFANCY.

Three little cherubs, darling of my heart, My vision oft, and we are called to part, The world who pass thee, He has 'tis thou "Come,"

THE HARD TIMES.

"The Times Improving" is a Cash becoming more plentiful.

"These with similar anxious inquiries are often propounded, by word of mouth and by letter, and we have thought a short chapter on the subject may perhaps be useful to very many.

In a Bad Way.

The present owner and occupier of Mount Vernon, who proposes to sell for $200,000 what, independent of the fact that it was the residence of the great and good WASHINGTON, is not worth one tenth of that sum.

Conditional Department.

The Report of Hon. H. C. HICKOK, Superintendent of Common Schools in Pennsylvania, for 1858, is over 100 pages less than that of the previous year.

ARE WE RICH? MOTHER.

"Mother, are we rich?" "Yes, darling, very rich," answered Mrs. Lawrence, quietly, as she leaned forward toward the window.

Chinese Agriculture.

The Pungtungian, referring to a narrative of travels in China, published by a Russian officer, says this author, like every other who has visited China, bears testimony to the high development of agriculture in that mysterious country.

The Silver Rule.

"The Silver Rule" does not necessarily include a payment—although that is always very advisable and desirable.

Successful.

William Hodges, of Rochester, New York, says in the Rural New Yorker, that his sugar cane this year produced him syrup at the rate of 300 gallons per acre, which he estimates to be worth $150—

Improvement of School Houses and Furniture.

In Hartley district, seven of the school houses have been improved within the last year, and the seats and desks altered to suit the age or size of the pupils.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

THE TOWN HALL SCHOOL HOUSE.

The Town Hall school house, in Lewisburg, stands in a spacious enclosure. I believe the directors had designed the yard in front of the building to be appropriated to shrubbery.

PERMANENT TEACHERS.

Number who intend to make teaching a permanent business, 43; those who do not, 28.

GENERAL REMARKS.

In my first visit to the schools of this county I devoted the greater part of my time to searching for real or apparent defects in their machinery.

CONCLUSION.

The friends of education are beginning to see the importance of electing intelligent directors—men, too, who feel an interest in the education of the rising generation.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

In a Bad Way.

The present owner and occupier of Mount Vernon, who proposes to sell for $200,000 what, independent of the fact that it was the residence of the great and good WASHINGTON, is not worth one tenth of that sum.

Conditional Department.

The Report of Hon. H. C. HICKOK, Superintendent of Common Schools in Pennsylvania, for 1858, is over 100 pages less than that of the previous year.

ARE WE RICH? MOTHER.

"Mother, are we rich?" "Yes, darling, very rich," answered Mrs. Lawrence, quietly, as she leaned forward toward the window.

Chinese Agriculture.

The Pungtungian, referring to a narrative of travels in China, published by a Russian officer, says this author, like every other who has visited China, bears testimony to the high development of agriculture in that mysterious country.

The Silver Rule.

"The Silver Rule" does not necessarily include a payment—although that is always very advisable and desirable.

Successful.

William Hodges, of Rochester, New York, says in the Rural New Yorker, that his sugar cane this year produced him syrup at the rate of 300 gallons per acre, which he estimates to be worth $150—

Improvement of School Houses and Furniture.

In Hartley district, seven of the school houses have been improved within the last year, and the seats and desks altered to suit the age or size of the pupils.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

In a Bad Way.

The present owner and occupier of Mount Vernon, who proposes to sell for $200,000 what, independent of the fact that it was the residence of the great and good WASHINGTON, is not worth one tenth of that sum.

Conditional Department.

The Report of Hon. H. C. HICKOK, Superintendent of Common Schools in Pennsylvania, for 1858, is over 100 pages less than that of the previous year.

ARE WE RICH? MOTHER.

"Mother, are we rich?" "Yes, darling, very rich," answered Mrs. Lawrence, quietly, as she leaned forward toward the window.

Chinese Agriculture.

The Pungtungian, referring to a narrative of travels in China, published by a Russian officer, says this author, like every other who has visited China, bears testimony to the high development of agriculture in that mysterious country.

The Silver Rule.

"The Silver Rule" does not necessarily include a payment—although that is always very advisable and desirable.

Successful.

William Hodges, of Rochester, New York, says in the Rural New Yorker, that his sugar cane this year produced him syrup at the rate of 300 gallons per acre, which he estimates to be worth $150—

Improvement of School Houses and Furniture.

In Hartley district, seven of the school houses have been improved within the last year, and the seats and desks altered to suit the age or size of the pupils.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

In a Bad Way.

The present owner and occupier of Mount Vernon, who proposes to sell for $200,000 what, independent of the fact that it was the residence of the great and good WASHINGTON, is not worth one tenth of that sum.

Conditional Department.

The Report of Hon. H. C. HICKOK, Superintendent of Common Schools in Pennsylvania, for 1858, is over 100 pages less than that of the previous year.

ARE WE RICH? MOTHER.

"Mother, are we rich?" "Yes, darling, very rich," answered Mrs. Lawrence, quietly, as she leaned forward toward the window.

Chinese Agriculture.

The Pungtungian, referring to a narrative of travels in China, published by a Russian officer, says this author, like every other who has visited China, bears testimony to the high development of agriculture in that mysterious country.

The Silver Rule.

"The Silver Rule" does not necessarily include a payment—although that is always very advisable and desirable.

Successful.

William Hodges, of Rochester, New York, says in the Rural New Yorker, that his sugar cane this year produced him syrup at the rate of 300 gallons per acre, which he estimates to be worth $150—

Improvement of School Houses and Furniture.

In Hartley district, seven of the school houses have been improved within the last year, and the seats and desks altered to suit the age or size of the pupils.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

In a Bad Way.

The present owner and occupier of Mount Vernon, who proposes to sell for $200,000 what, independent of the fact that it was the residence of the great and good WASHINGTON, is not worth one tenth of that sum.

Conditional Department.

The Report of Hon. H. C. HICKOK, Superintendent of Common Schools in Pennsylvania, for 1858, is over 100 pages less than that of the previous year.

ARE WE RICH? MOTHER.

"Mother, are we rich?" "Yes, darling, very rich," answered Mrs. Lawrence, quietly, as she leaned forward toward the window.

Chinese Agriculture.

The Pungtungian, referring to a narrative of travels in China, published by a Russian officer, says this author, like every other who has visited China, bears testimony to the high development of agriculture in that mysterious country.

The Silver Rule.

"The Silver Rule" does not necessarily include a payment—although that is always very advisable and desirable.

Successful.

William Hodges, of Rochester, New York, says in the Rural New Yorker, that his sugar cane this year produced him syrup at the rate of 300 gallons per acre, which he estimates to be worth $150—

Improvement of School Houses and Furniture.

In Hartley district, seven of the school houses have been improved within the last year, and the seats and desks altered to suit the age or size of the pupils.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.

IRON.

A once famous British minister, Mr. Horner, said that iron was the machinery of civilized society.