Freedom, national; Slavery, sectional!

FROM WASHINGTON.

In Senate, Mr. Clay of Alab. reported against the Pension bill, war of 1812.

The Cuban bribery bill was postponed in the Senate—33 to 32.

But one week remains during which the Appropriation and other important bills are to be rushed through—and hardly one in a hundred can tell, when passed, exactly what they are.

Oregon and her Representatives.

With Oregon, the American Union consists of thirty-three States, in eighteen of which slavery has been abolished or prohibited. The relative positions of the Free and Slave States may be shown at a glance, as follows:

	States.	Senators.	Representatives.
Free	18	36	147
Slave	15	30	90
Total	33	66	237
Free St. maj.	3	6	57

But Oregon, California, Indiana, &c. have one or more Representatives in Congress who vote with and for Slavery on every issue, and Senators Douglas of Ill., Bright of Ind., and perhaps others from the Free States, are slaveholders. Were the nominal Free States all really so, they would at once suppress the aggressions of the slave power, which cause all our agitation of that question.

It was only by the votes of fourteen Opposition Members of the House, that Oregon was admitted—they being Messrs. Wood and Foster of Me., Cragin of N. H., Comins and Thayer of Mass., Kunkle of Pa., Horton, Leiter and Nichols of O., Colfax, Kilgore and Pettit of Ind., Billinghurst of Wis., and Curtis of Iowa.

The objections to the Oregon bill were—that the population, to be previously ascertained by a census, required of Kansas, was not required of Oregon; that Oregon, as proved by a recent census, had but about 40,000 population, and, as proved by her votes, has one-third less voters than Kansas; that the Constitution of Oregon was not Republican, but aristocratic and barbarous, in that it trampled upon humanity and justice, and denied rights guaranteed by the U. S. Constitution, in the case of colored persons and others not native born; and that its admission was illegal and improper because unnaturalized foreigners, persons not properly voters, had been allowed to participate in the election. The Delegate, Lane, replied that he "believed" Oregon had 95,000 population! It was also urged that because Kansas was wronged was no reason why Oregon should be wronged; that her Constitution, however infamous, was as good as that of many other States; that irregular voting was a thing quite common, in the organization of new States, which Congress have no right to look into; and that the formation of Free States would reduce Executive patronage and tend in the long run to advance the cause of Free Soil.

—And so fourteen men have admitted two Senators who will doubtless vote against them on every test question between them and the Administration! The two will vote to continue schemes to keep out Kansas, unless she will send Slaveholders or Doughfaces to represent her; they will vote against the Protective Tariff required by Pennsylvania and the Free Labor of the North; they will vote to give Two Hundred Million Dollars for Cuba and her tens of thousands of negroes and stupid Catholics; they will vote for invading the ballot box by unnaturalized foreigners and ballot-stuffers. These one or two votes may carry the worst acts, or defeat the best! Such are the legitimate, palpable, direct results flowing from this act of gratuitous semi suicide by professed Americans and Republicans, who have thus armed the deadly enemies of all their distinctive principles, and helped them perpetuate, and strengthened—in the hands of that branch which can not be changed in many years—their power to do all the harm and prevent all the good they can! We have not yet seen an Opposition paper, or heard a man of the party, approve of this singular act of the fourteen.

Gen. Joseph Lane, one of the Senators, is a North Carolinian, who went from Indiana into the Mexican war, and from thence to Oregon as Governor. His term expires in 1861.....The other Senator, Deizon Smith (commonly called "Delusion" Smith) is a native of New Berlin, Chenango Co., New York. His term expires March 4, 1859.....Lafayette Grover, the Member in the House, was born in Oxford District, Maine, studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Philadelphia, in 1850, and removed the same year to Oregon.

When Gen. Cass seeks to make capital by declaring that no vessel bearing the American flag shall be visited by officers of foreign vessels, he fails in his object, and only succeeds in making himself ridiculous. That pirates, slave traders, and all other classes of outlaws who infest the ocean, can sail with impunity by simply raising the American flag, is an absurdity that would be advanced by no government, unless it was at the very low ebb that now distinguishes the Buchanan Cass apology for an administration.

Emperor Soluque has been driven from his throne by the Black Republicans of Hayti, who have abolished the monarchy and restored the republic. So well managed was the revolution that no one was killed on either side. (Why don't the fillibusters "go in" for Hayti and Jamaica?)

South Carolina—that unanimous Democratic State—requires foreigners to reside ten years in the State, after Naturalization, before they can vote. There is Know Nothingism with a vengeance!

☞We direct particular attention to the subject touched in Mr Kline's Advt.

FROM HARRISBURG.

Mr Hotenstine presented "five petitions numerously signed," from citizens of Northumberland county, praying that that portion of the county above Montours Ridge may be attached to Union county.

The committee on the third contested seat in the House decided that Mr. Mathews, the contestant of Mr. M'Lain, was entitled to the seat. M'L. had been falsely returned by an intentional alteration of the vote actually cast, and in one district one or two hundred illegal votes were notoriously polled. (This ejects another Irish Democrat smuggled in by ballot-stuffing and false returns.)

☞The Jersey Shore Vedette, and all others like minded, may rest assured of the utter erroneousness of their charge, that "Lewisburg is at the bottom" of the annexation movements in Brady township and upper Northumberland. The people most concerned consulted their own interests only in the spontaneous effort which they intend to consummate. We of course would welcome them to our county, for we think they are certainly "good looking"—personally and real estate-ly—"and may come in."

☞The Williamsport Press very pertinently says of the delusive plan to attach Union county to Milton—

"Hope is certainly a desirable virtue, but it is an up-hill business to hope against every chance of success, unless we adopt the words "hope on, hope ever," for our motto. Union county has the finest public buildings in Central Pennsylvania, and we have no idea that they will be so soon vacated."

Gas Works, and Manufacturing.

The introduction of Gas Works into our town, we find noticed as far off as Greenfield, Franklin county, Massachusetts. The Editor of the Franklin Democrat, in his paper of the 14th inst., says:

"Most of our readers will remember the doings, some months ago, about introducing Water into our village, and the estimates made by Mr. Berkenbine, of Phila'a. Mr. B. was desirous at the time to put up Gas Works under our charter. The following paragraph, clipped from the Phila'a Daily News of the 8th inst., shows the estimation people have of him where known:

"The thriving Borough of Lewisburg, on the Susquehanna, was lighted with gas on Friday evening of last week. The works were built by our enterprising townsmen, Messrs. Beckenbine & Mears, who constructed the works, laid about two miles of pipe with services, &c., in the short space of three months. The town of Lewisburg is one of the most flourishing in the centre of our state."

Greenfield we understand to be a village of about 3,000 inhabitants—nearly the same size as our own—and we wonder it has not before now erected Gas Works. Messrs. B. & M. appear to understand their business perfectly, as far as regards the construction of the Works, and although the coal at first used was not the best for the generation of gas, that is a mere temporary accident, which need not prevent the ultimate complete triumph of the effort.

But what we wish particularly to say is, that Greenfield is somewhat noted for its manufactories of cutlery and carpenter's planes, their cutlery works alone consuming daily, ten tons of Pennsylvania Anthracite coal, which costs them $9 50 per ton. Now, with our other advantages, Lewisburg needs the introduction of more manufacturing enterprises to keep her on the highway of prosperity that she has enjoyed for some years past.. And what should hinder her from starting some new branch of industry, like that of Greenfield? The saving in coal would be $70 per day, here; and our vicinity to Buffaloe Valley, for bread and vegetables, and to the iron region, which is so near us, would make provisions, as well coal and iron, much cheaper than where those articles have to be transported such a distance.

We throw out the hint to our unemployed men—men of capital and energy—and invoke a greater infusion of Yankee enterprise and far-sighted liberality among us. Then would our favored locality and vantage ground ensure our rapid growth into a great manufacturing center.

COURT WEEK (concluded.)—In the case of Foster vs. Cummings' Admr, Jury found for Deft.

Locke vs. Hilands—verdict for Deft.

The last and best-contested trial was that of the heirs of C. Seebold and wife, to recover the lot in New Berlin upon which the late Court House and Offices are erected. The Deed to the Union County Commissioners (of whom James Dale, Esq., is the only surviver) conveys to them, in fee simple, for the use of the county, the lots in question, for the sum of 67 cents, under the law for that purpose referred to in deed. The heirs contended, that, the structures being no longer used for Court House and Offices, the grounds reverted back to them. The defence was that the deed was "in fee simple for the use of the county;" that the "fee simple" was absolute, for a consideration, and unconditional; and that the sale and the appropriation of the proceeds to county purposes will be valid under the two acts, one of 1816 and the other of 1857 or '8. The prosecution alleged that the "use" referred to (but not recited) in the Deed, was for Court House only, and every other "use" made the gift void. The application of the word "use" under the acts, seemed to be the turning point with the Jury, which after being out 8 or 10 hours, brought in a verdict for Deft. We hear it intimated that the case will go to the Supreme Court. It may be well that the law for deeding real estate for public uses should be more clearly defined, that all may express in their deeds, unmistakeably, their intentions. Seebold's heirs were represented by Messrs. J. W. Maynard of Williamsport and I. Slenker of New Berlin; Union county employed Ex-Gov. Pollock of Milton and G. F. Miller of Lewisburg; Snyder was represented by Messrs. Weirick and Cronmiller of Middleburg.

—An Argument Court was appointed for Tuesday the 22d of March.

One hundred and four Sheriff Sales are advertised in this week's Lutheran Union. Hard times, indeed.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY.—On Tuesday night, 4th inst., the dwelling of —— Zimmerman, in Clark's Valley, some seven or eight miles from Lykenstown, was destroyed by fire, and three lives were lost. Mr. Zimmerman was employed somewhere near Pinegrove, his wife and family remaining at home; Mrs. Z. and her eldest son left the house to spend the evening at a neighbor's, leaving in bed three children, of which the eldest was about thirteen years old. On their return, at about 10, P. M., the house was found in flames and nearly consumed. A few of the bones of the children were recovered, and interred on Friday.

At an election held at Jersey Shore, 2d inst., by the Stockholders of the West Branch & Susquehanna Canal Company, officers of the Company were chosen as follows: President—John A. Gamble. Managers—Oliver Watson, L. A. Mackey, J. W. Quiggle, A. C. Noyes, James Gamble. Secretary and Treasurer—F. T. Carpenter. General Superintendent—Jas. Diefenbacher. Collectors—Wm. A. Packer, Dunnsburg; John Piatt, Williamsport; M. J. D. Withington, Northumberland; J. A. Blattenberger, Liverpool.

The dwelling of Jacob Venattan, near the Borough of Mill Hall, was destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon, consuming nearly all his furniture, clothing and provisions. The house caught by a spark from the stove pipe, in the attic. His neighbors have kindly made up most of his loss by a subscription.

David Evans is appointed School Superintendent for Lancaster county, in place of Mr. Crumbaugh, dec'd.

Turbutsville, in Northumberland county has become elevated to the dignity of a Borough—S. A Savidge, Burgess.

Important to Farmers & Gardeners.

THE subscriber having recently traveled much in this and adjoining States, and seen the great failures in Grain and Garden Vegetables, has concluded that a CHANGE OF SEEDS is absolutely necessary: this also is the opinion of the best Agriculturists generally. I have therefore imported (or made arrangements for) quite a variety of NEW Seeds, such as have been found best suited to our soil and climate at this time. The following are specimens of new varieties, and their yield per acre, now on hand for sale at my residence in Mifflinburg, Union Co., Pa.:

White English Mediterranean Wheat, very early, per bu. 50
Early English Nyheman Potatoes, 400

Persons wishing either of the above, will please leave their orders as early as possible, that I may be able to supply them all.

Those who wish to procure any of the following varieties, (with directions how to cultivate) will call and examine the specimens which I shall grow the coming season, and leave their orders as soon as may be convenient:

White Egyptian Spring Rye, very early, Bushels 40
Lennan or Winter Rye, 45
Siberian Winter Barley, 50
White Oats, weighing 45 lbs. per bushel, 75
Improved King Philip Corn, long ears, the 100 dys (shell'd) 100
Washington Dutton Corn, 10 days later, do 80
Honey-Locust Hedge, persons 20 to 30 hrs. seed 4 to 10 bus. one boy per acre, moment twice.
Apples, of which make pie like green apple, mixed with sauce, produces 300 bushels per acre.
Strawberry, Hutchenson, very large, 2,000 per acre.

Also other kinds of Garden Vegetables. These seeds have been carefully selected from different places, and it is thought will be found advantageous to Gardeners and Farmers. Call and see First come, first served.
