Democratic State Conven'n

THE PARTY DIVIDED.

Another Convention to be had.

By orders from Washington, the Penn'a Dem. State Convention was postponed from its usual time—the 4th March—to the 16th—last week—when it met in Harrisburg. By this time, all the officers of the National Administration had concentrated all their available forces to put down in Convention the State Administration. As a specimen of the men who composed the body, we copy the following from the Harrisburg Telegraph:

Occupations of the Members and Leaders of the Democratic Convention.

We have been earnestly requested by several gentlemen to give the names, occupations and standing of the delegates and leaders in the Convention held here yesterday. Some such information is of much value at the present time, we presume, and we therefore give it.

Philadelphia—Hon. Judge M'Allen, well known as an unconscionable owner of the Fourth Ward, and unfortunate tenant.

J. M. Read, Collector of the Port. Public departments under President Buchanan.

Jack Cassidy, Naval ship-keeper at Philadelphia.

Thos. M. Foreyth, late Canal Commissioner, now office-holder at Home.

Wm. Cunningham, Benj. H. Nayes, Jno. A. Morrison, officers in the Navy Yard at Philadelphia.

Jno. J. Bonner, general whipper-in, always ready for a spat.

Henry A. Gilpin, letter carrier in the Philadelphia post-office.

A. L. Snowden, son of the Treasurer of the Philadelphia Mint.

Hugh Clark, well known among the groggeries in Philadelphia.

[The country sends the following distinguished gentlemen:]

James L. Gillis, lately one of the Lecompton Congressmen, has a son in a land office.

Arnold Plumer, late Canal Commissioner and general participant in plunder, has a son in the Land Office at Stillwater, Minnesota.

Wm. Hopkins, ex-Canal Commissioner, having one, if not two sons employed by the National Government.

Col. Sam Slaugh, of Lancaster, well known as the especial Envoy of his Excellency, was in attendance with special despatches.

Franklin Vansant, ex-flour inspector under Gov. Bigler, and disappointed applicant for the same office under Gov. Packer.

Jacob Van Bockirk, also a disappointed applicant for Flour Inspector.

Murray Whallon, Collector of the port of Erie.

Victor E. Piolette, late a Paymaster in the army.

H. A. Borgs, Postmaster at Johnstown, appointed since his election as delegate to the Convention.

R. Bruce Petriken, has brothers in office under the present National Administration.

James A. Gibson, Collector at Pittsburg; H. Sproul, Clerk U. S. Circuit Court at Pittsburg; Jno. H. Baily, Clerk U. S. District Court, same city.

R. J. Haldeman, late lacquey at the Court of France and editor of the official "organ" at Harrisburg, and Geo. W. Bowman, Postmaster at Molter-burg, Dauphin county.

Philip Johnson, has a brother in the Pension Office.

C. D. Brodhead, has a brother an officer under the General Government.

Time will not permit us to-day to give an extended notice of all in attendance, but we have already given enough for the people at large to see how things were managed.

Others on the list we observed who are equally in the interest of the National Administration. Jas. K. Davis of Selinsgrove and E. S. Doty of Juniata represented this Assembly District, and T. M. Hall of Center was the Senatorial Delegate.

From the opening until the close of the session, the above named pensioners of Buchanan and those influenced by them acted in perfect concert and ruled the Convention completely.

Arnold Plumer was chosen President (and it is said has Buchanan's promise that he shall be next Governor of Pennsylvania.)

While the Committee on Platform was gone, the son of the Treasurer of the U.S. Mint was called out:

Mr. Snowden remarked: Everything around me convinces me that nothing I may say will be of any importance to-day, and all I have to say to the members of this Convention is, to go and boldly and broadly upon the great principles enunciated by Jefferson, and although our gallant bark may go down beneath the waves of Black Republicanism and fanaticism, yet it will again come up to the surface. Let us not pause here to-day. Let us not say that the acquisition of Cuba is of no consequence to us. Let them plant themselves beside the Delaware of the land and say the acquisition of Cuba is of great benefit to us, and should be acquired in any way it can be had.

Isaac Hugus, former Senator from the Somerset district, was called out. Mr. Hugus said:

The gentleman who has just took his seat (Mr. Snowden) announced that he was a young man, and if he lives twenty years longer, he will find there are many things he does not know now. Why, sir, had the Democracy of Pennsylvania rolled up, last year, a majority of fifty thousand, there could not have been a bolder front shown by that young gentleman from the city of Philadelphia; but he ought to have been admonished by his own city that a conciliatory spirit would be the one that should be encouraged. Take, for instance, Philadelphia; look at the sadness and gloom there; still there is no conciliation. Gentlemen, you must conciliate or you are nowhere.

Look at the history of the Democratic party of Pennsylvania. A double defeat is a thing that never occurred before, and mark my words, when that takes place, there is a sad hour before us. Always, after a defeat, we have struggled up, but it has only been through kindness and brotherly love. If conciliation is not effected, you had better give your money to the poor, instead of calling this Convention here. You will be laughed to scorn by the men who uphold the Democracy, all over Pennsylvania. They will wait until good sense prevails and better men get into power, and then they will come out. Now, my friend from Philadelphia is in favor of the acquisition of Cuba. So am I; but I tell you what, Mr. President, I think it a bad speculation to give thirty millions of dollars for a country when we have enough territory already. That kind of policy would break up any speculator. What! these free States buy an island you never heard of, and for what? That you might enjoy the blessings of liberty? They would be the worst blessings I ever heard of. The Pennsylvania farmers will not agree to that. No, if Cuba wants to come, let her come in a free and untrammeled State, and then we will give her the right hand of fellowship; but buying her, when we do not want her, is the newest doctrine I ever heard of.

"Prof. Gardner," the New England Soap man, followed in a speech laudatory of his saponaceous compound.

The Committee on Resolutions presented a series, endorsing President Buchanan's views and administration in full—including Lecompton, Cuba, and the Tariff. They also eulogize U.S. Senator Bigler, but make no reference to Gov. Packer. They use the customary unmeaning denunciations of corporations generally, but not of Banks in particular, and call for the establishment of a State Sub-Treasury. They were all allowed to pass without opposition—Whereupon,

Mr. Lamberton submitted the following additional resolution:

Resolved, That we approve the State policy of Gov. Wm F. Packer. His exercise of the veto power has been fearless and democratic; and his administration of the affairs of our Commonwealth, and execution of the laws, demand our commendation."

Mr. Limberton (Dauphin) followed up his resolution in a fervid speech, deprecating the "madness" of Committee in its wanton slur upon Gov. Packer. While his friends were willing, for the sake of harmony and of success, to pass by what they disapproved in the National Administration, its friends should exercise like forbearance and conciliation towards the State Administration. But he had heard on that floor that "there was to be no conciliation—we were to stand firmly up to the resolutions." If this spirit prevails, and we turn our backs upon Gov. Packer and his friends, what is to become of our party in the coming campaign? If we dip next fall, it is a deep dip for the Presidential election of 1860. If we go out of this House having failed to pass this resolution, it requires the pen of no prophet to predict unmistakable defeat.

Mr. Monaghan (Chester) followed in a powerful and bitter attack upon Gov. Packer. He disclaimed any feeling upon the Lecompton issue, yet his first specification against Gov. P. was that his Attorney General, Judge Knox, last fall took the field in the Chester district in favor of Hickman, the Anti-Lecompton Democratic candidate for Congress. He also denounced the Governor's appointments in general. His sale of the Public Works was vehemently condemned as worse than Pollock's course, and is evidently the sore spot with the old pensioners on the State improvements. He predicted that Gov. P. was arranging to make himself next U. S. Senator, and Judge Knox, Governor. He believed it would have been better, when David Wilmot first began to rebel against the party's decisions, if the Democracy had cut him off at once, instead of allowing him to infect his district—and now, he believed it to be policy and duty for the Democracy to throw Gov. Packer overboard.

Others spoke pro and con, when Morgan Gillis called the previous question, and Mr. Lamberton's resolution was rejected—37 Yeas to 84 Nays. The Yeas were mostly from counties where Buchanan has no office holders except Postmasters. The first of the Nays was from a man who Gov. Packer had pardoned for a serious offence!

A resolution complimentary to Jeremiah S. Black, it was moved to amend by adding Sam Black, J. Glancy Jones, J. W. Forney, and others, when it was withdrawn.

Resolved to vote for Auditor General—the present, incumbent Jacob Fry, Jr. wisely declining the risk. The Buchanan candidate, Richard. L. Wright, had 89 votes, Jacob Ziegler 27, James Salisbury 7, and E. C. Hamlin 3.

John Rowe was unanimously nominated for re-election as Surveyor General.

A resolution against the repeal of the tonnage tax was agreed to.

The President of the Convention was authorized to appoint the State Committee for the ensuing year—(and, we see it stated, has since gone on to Washington to obtain assistance in the matter.)

Mr. Collins of Cambria moved that in the opinion of this Convention the Republicans will carry the State next fall by 50,000 majority. (Its second reading was not demanded!)

Sam. Black—Buchanan's Governor of Kansas—was then introduced, and after a long and eloquent defence of Buchanan's Administration by this his appointee, the Convention adjourned.

Mr. Wright, the nominee for Auditor General, has been one of the most active wire-working politicians in Philada. for some years, and as a member of both branches of the Legislature has been noted for his ultra partizan feelings and measures.

Mr. Rowe was three years ago elected by the fraudulent vote in Philad., but we see it asserted will not now consent to be offered up as a sacrifice on the altar of a divided party, but will decline the honor.

—The Opposition in the mean time have only to unite upon proper candidates and sweep the field.

Anti-Buchanan Democratic State Convention.

The Anti-Buchanan Democrats of Pennsylvania contemplate holding a State Convention, at Harrisburg, on the 12th of next month. Forney's Press contains a call, signed by fifty-eight prominent Democrats residing in different sections of the State. The object of the Convention, as set forth in the call, is—

"To resist the high-handed attempt of the Federal Administration to dictate political creeds to the people;

To protest against the war of a consolidated Federal despotism upon State sovreignty and State rights;

To re-assert the great principle of Popular Sovreignty and non-intervention, as well in the Territories as in the States—non-intervention by Congress with Slavery in the Territories, and non-intervention by the Federal Executive with the franchises of the people of the States;

To re-endorse the old-fashioned creed of the Democratic party, repudiated and trampled under feet by men claiming to represent the party;

And, finally, to proclaim our unfaltering confidence in William F. Packer, Governor of Pennsylvania, who has been assailed and proscribed because he refused, at the bidding of Federal dictation, to betray the trust, desert the principles, and falsify the pledges, of the Union-Save Rights Democracy."

—This Convention will represent the independent masses, and not the office-holders under Buchanan.
