BE CAREFUL OF YOUR MONEY.

When life is full of health and glee, Work, work, as busy as a bee! And take this gentle bint from me -Be careful of your money! You'll find it true, that friends are few, When you are short of money!

The single grain east in the mould May spring and give a hundred fold More precious than its weight in gold! Be careful of your money! The grain you sow to stacks may grow;

Be careful of your money! But do not shut sweet Mercy's doors, When Sorrow pleads, or Want implores; To help to heal Misfortune's sores,

Be carrful of your money ! To help the poor who seek your doors Be careful of your money!

Would you escape the beggar's lot ! The death-bed of the tippling sot? And live in sweet contentment's cot ! Be careful of your money And if you need a friend indee Be careful of your money !

A gentleman in North Chester, Vermont, two or three weeks since, offered as a prize a copy of Webster's unabridged Dictionary to the one of the scholars in all the public schools in town who should "spell the others down." Seven schools were accordingly represented, and about a dozen teachers and a large crowd of spectators were present when the trial took place on the 25th ult. But one trial was to be had on a word and the unfortunate who missed must take his or her seat. Eighty scholars contested for the boner and the prize, and after five hours' trial, five pupils remained standing, and the enthusiastic audience soon raised the needful to purchase each a copy of the great "Unabridged."
