A Corporation With a Soul.

One of our large hearted merchants is a leading and influential director in one of the Mutual Life Insurance Companies. One day this case came to his knowledge: One of those who had insured for years in his Company died. He had been rich. He was poor in the close of life. It was the old story of fortune and poverty. He paid the premium as long as he could, and when he could not buy bread he could not keep his policy alive. And a month or two before he died he failed to pay, and the benefit of years was lost to his family. This gentleman found the family in want—a mother with several children completely destitute. He took charge of the funeral. He made provisions for the present comfort of those born to wealth and trained to affluence. He took the policy and presented it to the Company. He told the story of the man of fallen fortunes, refered to the books of the Company to show how much he had paid, and told the Directors that he had ceased paying only when he had nothing to give. The corporation was unmoved. "Business was business. A contract was a contract. Had he paid the last premium, all would have been well. The case was hard; but it must take the course of thousands of others." And the request to allow the policy was denied. The gentleman who presented the policy arose and addressed the meeting. He told them if, under the circumstances, the sum mentioned in the policy was not allowed, his connection with that Company would end from that hour. He showed the great wrong to be done and the great principles of right involved—the claims of the widow and the cry of the fatherless. He prevailed. The policy was allowed. The sum of $12,000 was given into his hands. He carried the news to the broken hearted woman—doubly sorrowful for her children's sake. There was a joy in that dwelling that night; and the blessing of those ready to perish came down on the head of that good man, who proved himself to be a friend indeed. For once it seemed a corporation had a soul!

Attention! Loafers.

Your conduct is rendering you the object of harsh animadversions. Some of our citizens complain that your annoyances are becoming intolerable. Take this advice: "Quit loafing. Don't be loafers. Don't call yourselves loafers. Don't keep loafers' company. Don't hang about loafing places. Better work hard for nothing and board yourself, than sit around, day after day, or stand at corners with your hands in your pockets. Better for your own mind, better for your prospects. Bustle about if you mean to have anything to bustle about for. Many a poor physician has obtained a real patient by riding hard to attend an imaginary one. A quire of blank paper tied up with red tape, carried under a lawyer's arm may procure him his first case and make his fortune. Such is the world—to him that hath shall be given. Quit droning and complaining, keep busy, and mind your chances."

Equality of Mississippi Barkeys and Storekeepers.

A requisition has been sent by the Governor of Massachusetts, to the Governor of Mississippi, for a man at Holly Springs, who had obtained goods in Boston on false pretenses. On the arrival of the agent with the writ at Holly Springs, the people of the place got together a public meeting, and resolved, that, as Massachusetts repudiated the rendition of fugitive slaves, she had no right to a requisition of any sort on Mississippi. The agent was therefore notified to leave, or he would be "trotted through." He left, of course, so much wiser, at least, by this: that he now knows that a Mississippi merchant, according to Mississippi estimate, is on the same footing with a "runaway nigger!" As Mississippi long ago repudiated the payment of honest State debts, a Yankee who trusts any of her men ought to lose his debt.

We once heard two boys who were boasting of what their fathers had. "Well," said one, "I'll tell you one thing you havn't got, that we are going to have—we're going to have a cupola on our house!" "Pshaw!" said the other, "I don't care a cent for that, that's nothing. I heard Pa tell Ma, at breakfast table, this morning, that we were going to have a mortgage on our house!"

The following is a copy of a letter picked up in a street at Des Moines:

"des moines iowa nov. 12, 1857—my dear miss—the pleasing prospect I have of taking you out a slaying the first good snow that comes is enough to lift my sole above the sordid vanities of this world with such an intelligent young lady as you are. yours in love purity and fidelity.

Speaking of the way women walk, a newspaper squib writer says, a French woman slides, a Spanish woman glides, an American woman trots, (or racks,) and an English woman tramps.

An exchange says, "the emigrants to Pike's Peak gold diggings appear to be fully as large as had been expected." We presume they were not expected to be over six feet high.

Snooks wonders where all the pillow cases go to. He says he never asked a girl what she was making, while engaged in white sewing, without being told it was a pillow case.

The best cure for trouble is labor—the harder you work, the less you think. Who ever heard of a wood sawyer committing suicide?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proved by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints;—

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the exhaustion of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been enormously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall restore the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are incontrolled by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the last it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

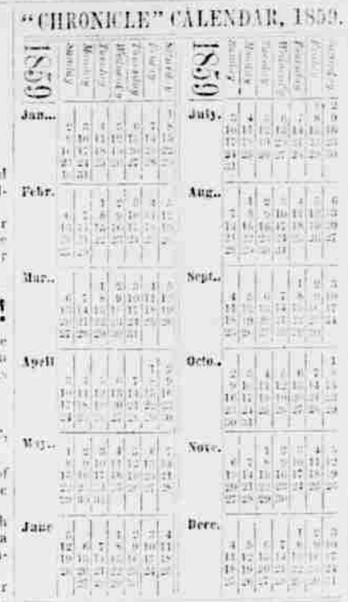
"CHRONICLE" CALENDAR, 1859.



DR. W. H. WITMER,

of Lancaster City, (late of Philadelphia.)

Where he has been in successful practice for a number of years, received his education at the best Medical College in the United States, and had experience and practice in the different Hospitals for several years; a member of the Analytical Medical Institute of New York, and late a Surgeon in the U.S Navy—now offers himself to the public to attend to any professional calls.

THE purest medicine always on hand direct from the best Laboratories in the country and the Botanical Gardens of the World. No patent medicine prescribed or recommended. Medicines used only which will not break down the constitution, but will renovate the system from all impurities it has sustained from mineral medicines. Chronic and difficult diseases must be treated upon analytical principles, which is to know and ascertain what disease is. Its nature and character requires a knowledge of the chemical constituents of every solid and fluid of the human body—the changes these solids and fluids are capable of undergoing. To know what medicines to employ to cure diseases, requires a knowledge of the chemical constituents of all agents employed in medicine, and if we are in possession of this knowledge, it is possible to cure any disease—no matter of how long standing—and restore the patient to a healthy and perfectly cured condition.

Melancholy, alienation, that state of alienation and weakness of the mind, which renders persons incapable of enjoying the pleasures or performing the duties of life.

Inveterate, that distressing disease and foil destroyer of health and happiness, undermining the constitution, and yearly carrying thousands to untimely graves can most emphatically be cured.

Every variety in any form or condition, chronic or acute, warranted curable; Epilepsy, or falling sickness, all chronic and stubborn cases of female diseases, radically removed. Salt Rheum, and every description of Ulcerations; Piles and Scrofulous Diseases, which have baffled all previous medical skill, can be cured by my treatment, when the constitution is not exhausted.

I do say all diseases (yes, Consumption) can be cured.

CANCER CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE OR DRAWING OF BLOOD.

I will remain in my office on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from 9 o'clock A. M. to 5 P. M., to accommodate patients from a distance, and consult in the English and German languages; will receive visits in any distance required, may be addressed by letter, North Prince St., near Fulton Hall, Lancaster city, Pa.

THIS house is located in the very center of the business portion of the town, and the only Hotel in Market Square. The TABLE is spread with every luxury the season affords. The BAR is furnished with pure unadulterated liquors bought by the Proprietor out of the Custom House in Philad. The Proprietor, having gone to a great expense in re-fitting and furnishing his house—employing at large cost a first-rate Cook and other servants who are attentive and obliging—hopes by unremitting attention on his part to receive a share of the public patronage.—The public will please accept the sincere thanks of the Proprietor for the very generous patronage he has received during the four months he has lived in Lewisburg.
