Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1859

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers, in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to read the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, intelligent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞Two or three columns of New Advertisements in our columns to-day, to which we direct the reader's attention. These matters are paid for, and every one will find something in them to interest or benefit him. Have not time to recapitulate.

☞Miss L. A. ZOLLER, from Danville, is opening a Millinery establishment in Porter's block, N. 3rd st.—adv't next week.

☞New Goods on the way for the Post Office, J. & J. Wales, and T. G. Evans & Co.

☞Mr. Houghton's Shoe Store is removed to the 2d door west of the P. O.

☞Our citizens can rely on being supplied with Meat every market morning, by Isaac S. Sterner, at his depot, Market st.

☞See change in R. R. and P. O. time.

☞Maj. John W. Simonton, we understand is Captain of the Troop whose first meeting is advertised in another column. They now number about 33 in number, and we suppose deserve more.

☞The Summer Session of the Lewisburg University and Female Institute, opened yesterday. We see a large number of students already arrived.

The Lewisburg Academy re-opens on Monday next, with some improvement on the premises.

Private Schools have been opened in town by Mr. Walker and by Misses Stocker, Frear, Dale, Musser, Miller, and perhaps others of whom we are not informed.

☞The Policeman of Lewisburg has thus far been very successful in preserving order and checking the exposure by themselves of drunkards along the streets.

☞Sickles' trial progresses slowly. The Court were at the last date receiving the evidence of the secret meetings of Key and Mrs. Sickles.

☞The Sunbury American states that there is $25,000 per year earned on the Railroad at that place—the junction of the Shamokin road. A large portion of it is on coal, which we suppose was not taken into consideration by those who claimed Lewisburg as the most profitable station between Williamsport and Harrisburg.

☞Books for the Clergyman, the Doctor, the Merchant, the Laborer, the Mechanic, the Student, the Sunday School, for everybody, on all subjects can be had of William Murray, at as cheap rates as they can be bought at any establishment in this town. Mr. M. has an almost endless variety of Stationery, which he is also selling at reduced rates.

☞We are indebted to the talented young author, Mr. J. M. M. GERRETSON, of Muncy, for four sheets of piano music, entitled "Moonlight Waltz," "Monadnock Schottisch," "Chihuahua Waltz," and "Winona Waltz." These pieces are all graceful and pleasing, and so easy that almost any pianist can perform them "at sight." Thos. G. Grier has Mr. Gerneri's works for sale. (See adv't.)

☞GEO. B. AYERS has purchased the American of Danville and changed its name to the Herald. He has had some experience in the profession, appears to be very competent, and we wish him success—although we can't help thinking he and Br. COOK should hitch teams.

The Berwick Gazette has been received since our last issue—all right.

GOLDEN WEDDING.—On the 11th inst. at the residence of S. B. Harris, in Freeport, Ill., John Vandyke and Margaret Adams his wife, regarded the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage, by a celebration, speeches, reception of a gold-headed cane for the "lad," and a pair of gold spectacles for the "lass" of half a century ago. The couple are aged 76 and 71 respectively, and count 49 descendants, all of whom were present except their daughter Mary, wife of David Ramsey, of Union Co., Pa. Sam'l B. Harris (late of Union Co.) is married to one of their grand children. Mr. and Mrs. Vandyke removed west from Union county, Pa.

FROM HARRISBURG.

The Legislature adjourned on Thursday, making a session of just 100 days.

The Quinn change of venue bill was tried through.

Our Railroad Bills failed for want of agreement along the line.

A new License Bill passed, allowing and requiring the Judges of the courts to hear petitions and remonstrances for and against the granting of license, and to refuse the grants in cases where they do not consider taverns necessary. This is a just and reasonable law, and will enable judges who are so disposed to do much to stop the multiplication of mere drinking houses and unnecessary taverns.

JASON TURNEY, of Westmoreland Co., was chosen Speaker of the Senate, by a strict party vote—the Republican vote being cast for CH. GILPIN.

The Legislature has not accomplished much of a public nature, but it deserves credit for two things—it has granted no divorces, and created no banks.

Many acts which passed one house were lost or neglected in other. The efforts to attach parts of Lycoming and Northumberland to Union county, were smothered in the House committee by the silence of the Members from the two former counties.

The course of our Senator and Representatives, on all public questions, we have endeavored to give as events transpired; and, as far as we remember, we think they have fairly and faithfully reflected the will of their constituents.

As a whole, the body of 133 Legislators has compared favorably with former bodies. Philadelphia, by all accounts, takes the least pains to select the best men for Harrisburg: this year, as heretofore, with some superior and excellent men, she has sent some of the most arbitrary and unwholesome characters. If they fairly "represent" her, she needs a moral and intellectual reformation truly.

We have not yet received the Appropriation Bill, nor the Summary of the bills enacted into Laws.

A bill which was rushed through the House for buying at a large price a lot adjoining the Executive Mansion," was killed in the Senate. This "Executive Mansion" is intended to be the entering wedge for the depleting of the State Treasury of $10 or $12,000 a year for the benefit of Harrisburg, (or la Washington) under various pretences.

The Harrisburg Telegraph and the Patriot will notice that our friend Mr. MCLEAN retains his position as Superintendent of Public Grounds, &c., and credit some remarks about "bleeding" and the "hungry crew about Harrisburg" to the Chronicle, via themselves.

The Douglas Movement.

As a matter of news to readers of all parties, we copy at length the main proceedings of the recent Democratic State Convention at Harrisburg. It looks to an organization of the States of the Union in favor of Douglas, on his interpretation of the "squatter sovereignty" humbug (which assumes a new form every new moon.) We permit the speech of Buckman and the Resolutions to speak for themselves. Persons who were present assure us that there were 300 to 400 bona fide delegates in attendance, from other counties; and they comprised very many of the best, boldest, and most influential men of the party in other days, but were now actuated by an intense desire to kill the Lecompton ticket formed last month. They are men who will not submit on any terms to the Pro-Slavery monarchy. Their defection, in such spirit and number, and in such decided terms, leaves no doubt of the utter overthrow of the Wright and Rowe ticket, by a majority larger than that which made PORTER to stagger, and proved an "untimely FROST." Read the proceedings and show to your Democratic neighbor.

☞The Buchanan men are sadly troubled about the second Democratic convention, and seek to break its influence by personal attacks upon Buckman, Forney, and others who were prominent in its progress, and also by wilfully misrepresenting the number present. But these efforts will mislead a few, only. The Buchanan men know that their party is for the present killed.

"Lecompton Democrats and Anti Lecompton Democrats, can all sail together in the same boat—no use in dividing on a dead issue," is now the soothing cry of the Buchanan leaders, trying to coax back the bolters. But it does not avail. All or nearly all who voted against them last fall, will so vote again; and they will have many recruits.

Even Mr. Rowe is so anxious to be re-elected, that he repeats the parrot-like falsehood that Lecomptonism is no longer a test. The very Convention that nominated him, applauded the whole career of Buchanan, without any reservation. The abominable Lecompton issue is of course endorsed, and is so regarded, everywhere. Should Wright and Rowe be elected, their success will be heralded as a complete triumph of Lecompton and the overthrow of the Anti-Lecompton Democracy of Pennsylvania. The opposition to Gov. Packer, is because he is Anti-Lecompton.

ROBBED.—The hotel of Mrs. Ginter, in New Columbia, Union Co., was robbed on Friday week of $350 and a gold watch, belonging to some of the inmates of the hotel. A pedler who deals in rat poison stopped at the hotel the night previous, and during that day asked permission to go up stairs to change his clothing, which was given him, after which he departed. The same day the money and watch, which were in a trunk up stairs, were missing, and the pedler was suspected of committing the robbery. He was pursued, but could not be found.—Mercantile.

Citizens of Perry, West Perry, Chapman, Shingletown, Washington, Middlecreek, Jackson and Union, have formed a "Snyder County Horse Protection Association," designed to guard against the evils of horse stealing.

A "Ladies' Southern Equestrienne Convention" was advertised with a great flourish, last month, in New Orleans. Every woman who appeared on horseback was a brazen faced, undoubted prostitute—not a virtuous woman among them.

The Salamander Safes of Philadelphia against the World!

EVANS & WATSON

Have had the surest demonstration in the following certificate that their manufacture of Salamander Safes has at last, (which we warranted the representations that have been made of them as rendering an undoubted security against the terrific element.)

PITTSBURG, April 12, 1856.

MESSRS. EVANS & WATSON—Gentlemen: It affords us the highest satisfaction to state to you, that owing to the very great intensity and fury of the Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some few months since, we saved a large portion of our jewelry, and all our books, papers, &c., exposed to the calamitous fire in Rankin's Place, on the morning of the 11th instant.

When we reflect that these Safes were located in the fourth story of the building we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a heap of burning ruins, where the most concentration of heat consequently issues, to melt, we could but regard the preservation of their valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your Safes.

We shall take much pleasure in recommending them to those of business as a sure reliance against fire.
