Democratic State Nominations.

For Judge of the Supreme Court, HON. GEO. SHARWOOD, OF PHILADELPHIA.

Who is Benefited by the War?

The Republican asks the question, who was benefited by the war? and then answers by saying, "not the Democratic Party."

But to recur to the question, who was benefited by the war? The Doctor does not answer, and we will try to indicate the class of people who were so benefited.

The war brought upon us most horrid experiences, such as were predicted in the Sacred Book—the turning of the son from the father, the husband from the wife.

In the selection of candidates for the various offices, then, let our cardinal principle be observed. Let no man be selected who would be cut throats who put their foot upon our necks four years ago.

It was a copperhead prediction that to free the slaves was to incite to murder and every other crime. But the prediction has not yet been verified.

Has not been verified? Look at the case of Mrs. Long, who was brutally ravished and then murdered, in her own house, last month, in North Carolina, by three negroes.

Who is President of the United States? Certainly not Andrew Johnson. Because: 1st—The July session of Congress is convened, not by the President, in the White House at Washington, but by Thaddeus Stevens, in Pennsylvania.

2d. Others think it must be Secretary Stanton, seeing that it is to him, and not to Andrew Johnson, that some of the Southern Caliphs are addressing their edicts, rescripts and communications.

3d. Possibly, however, both of these classes of persons may be mistaken. The Express inclines to the conviction that Gen. Sheridan is President.

4. It may be, though, that instead of being but one President as prescribed by the Constitution, we have now three or four,—the one having the least power and the least respect paid to him being the one who occupies the chair in which Washington sat.

5. The Cincinnati Enquirer keeps it before the people that 2,000,000 Radical votes have 216 members of Congress, while 3,500,000 Democratic votes have but sixty members.

6. It is pretty conclusive evidence that our government, as at present administered—though nominally a government of the majority—it is a big swindle, managed by and for the benefit of the few, at the cost of the many.

7. The Clinton Democrat came to hand last week in an enlarged form. It is now a thirty-two column paper and presents a fine typographical appearance.

8. The time was fixed for holding the next Convention on the first Monday of August, 1868.

9. Judge Sharswood, of the Harrisburg correspondent of the Chambersburg Repository (Radical) pays the following handsome and just compliment to the Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge:

Democratic Candidates.

*As most of our people know, there will be elected this fall a Sheriff, County Treasurer, County Commissioner, County Auditor, and two Jury Commissioners.

But the special necessity for careful action on the part of the Democracy, in the selection of a County ticket is the thing to which we desire to call the attention of all good men and true.

The war brought upon us most horrid experiences, such as were predicted in the Sacred Book—the turning of the son from the father, the husband from the wife.

Of the nominee, George Sharswood, now President Judge of the District Court for the city and county of Philadelphia, I can but say, that while he is not regarded by the profession as the equal of the present Chief Justice as a jurist, yet he enjoys the respect and confidence of the people of Philadelphia, regardless of politics, and is known throughout the State as a gentleman of fine legal talent, spotless integrity, and dignity of character.

SURRATT'S TRIAL.

The evidence for the prosecution in this case has closed. To the minds of unprejudiced, thinking men, there is no evidence to connect this young man with the killing of Lincoln.

Let the people of Pennsylvania bear in mind that the Republican State Convention recently held in Williamsport, dodged the question of Negro Suffrage.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, July 7. It is expected that the President will tomorrow send to the Senate, in answer to a resolution of that body, copies of all orders, opinions, &c., transmitted to commanders of military districts in the South, for their guidance in the execution of the so-called reconstruction act.

The statement contained in the Washington correspondence of the New York Tribune and Baltimore Sun, to the effect that the Kentucky members are sanguine of being admitted to their seats to-morrow, is regarded here as rather premature.

The opening argument of Mr. J. H. Bradley, Jr., yesterday, in behalf of Suratt, took the counsel for the government very much by surprise.

How CHARLES DENNISON, member of Congress from the Twelfth District of this State, died at Wilkesbarre on Thursday morning, at the age of 59 years.
