ASSEMBLY.
CAPT. THOMAS CHALFANT, of Montour County. MORDECAI MILLARD, of Centre Twp. JACOB YOHE, of Mifflin Twp. DAVID YEAGER, of Locust Twp.

THOS. J. WELLIVER, of Mt. Pleasant. JACOB HARRIS, of Hemlock Twp. "The Convention" and "Convention Gossip."

The Columbian in its last week's issue in two articles under the above quoted heads. makes some very unwise allusions to the late Democratic County Convention. Notwithstanding it is declared in one of the articles that "the best feeling prevailed," yet the showing dissatisfaction. The contest among candidates had been one of unusual interest and there seemed to be an intense war carried on before the Convention. We were satisfied and so expressed ourself in our pa-,per last week, and we again say, we are pleased with the work of the Convention, and we will give it our support as we have always done. Heretofore no County paper has followed the work of a Convention by personal remarks about individuals, nor has a paper been found to represent so foolish an idea as that the minority of the Convention made a nomination, when it is wellknown that a nomination cannot be made except by a majority. This is sheer folly.

There were a number of individual acts displeased, but we were willing to let those things pass for the present and get redress in the future if possible. We noticed the not appear to advantage. But we would not allow our prejudices to overbalance our common sense, to the extent that we would open the columns of our paper in personal abuse of him, or even speak of his interest and candidates in a disrespectful manner. --The tone of the Columbian was bitter, and showed a fool-hardiness rarely if ever exhibited by editors before. The Berwick Gazette, notwithstanding the editor of that paper was defeated by a small majority for the office of Treasurer, appears in perfect working order, and endorses the Convention and candidates without a single word of complaint. Our paper appears in the same manner. But the Columbian stoops to small things and publishes equivocating articles. This is not less than we had expected from that organ. But we will inform the editors that it is unusual and their better policy is to make apologics.

Remember gentlemen that even though your "ring" is composed in part of Republicans, yet the people have not forgotten nor forgiven the tyrants, desnots and law.brook. ers who made the Fishingcreek raid,-justice will be satisfied by-and-by, -the longer the waiting the sweeter the revenge.

The Union Pacific Railroad.

OPEN 425 MILES.

A few weeks since we noticed the open ing of the Union Pacific Railroad to Julesburg. 377 miles west of Omaha, and we now have to report its completion to Crow Creek a point 48 miles further west, making a total of 425 miles. Fifty miles of track in addition are graded ready for the iron, and there is no doubt of the completion of the road to the base of the Rocky Mountains early in the Fall. The Company are confident that the whole line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870. The Indians have annoyed the surveying parties and ticcutters, who are many hundred miles in advance of the work; but they have a wholesome fear of the population that a railroad carries with it, and all trains run without interruption.

The business of the Company has been most flattering. The estnings for the quarbut as the report for the last week in July pers have not yet been recovered. By referhas not been received, the exact fraction cannot be given. These earnings accrued be seen that Mr. Boyer offers a reward of from operating an average of not more than 350 miles of road, and after deducting operating expenses, the balance is far in excess of the interest obligations of the Company on the amount of bonds they can issue on hat distance. It should be remembered that this result is from a very business alone through a new country, and is not to be compared with the wast through business that must follow the opening of the whole line to the Pacific. The success of the enterprise seems to be thoroughly assured, and we can uee uo reason why the First Mortgage Bonds are not entitled to rank among the best secarities. The daily sales are now so large, that the company already entertain the idea of advancing the price.

idly on the increase, if we may judge from the numerous sandidates already in, or pre-paring to enter, the lists. Chase, Colfax, Wade, Butler the beast, and Sheridan the satrap, are all spoken of as climble candidates by their radical admirers. The big fish, just now, however, lashing into foam the Presidential puddle, is no less a personage than his Serene Highness, Gen. Grant, whose aspirations to the Executive chair of the nation, are no longer sought to be disguised. To catch this sturdy sturgeon, the trimmers of both political parties, who care nothing for issues and are ever ready to ignore principle, so that they secure the loaves HOH. 670 SELZEWOOD. and fishes, are baiting their hooks in such tempting style, that we shall not be at all surprised if one or the other succeed in capturing the prize, conditionally, of course, that his military record shall constitute the platform upon which he is to stand. Gen. Grant may be a very fair military officersuccess being the measure of his abilitybut we venture the assertion, that, wirepullers and political puppets to the contrary, notwithstanding, he will never be President. Thus far his pertinacious silence upon all political questions has constituted his fortress of defence against the enemies ready to attack him, but now, this hitherto strong point seems to turn to weakness. The real working men in the Radical party, those who control its conventions and will dictate who shall be its candidate, are not satisfied with the present General-in-Chief, and writer of these articles makes some remarks they are not at all likely to trust their craft to his steering. On the other hand, the rank and file of the Democratic party do not desire to enter the Presidential canvass under a military leader-that hobby, thank God, was exploded in 1864. A few worn out backs and "property men" are whining after Grant, and endeavoring to trot him out as a sort of quasi, Conservative, Democratic, National Union non-entity; but we opine that those political enerinites will have their labor for their pains, and will find, in due time, that the Democracy mean to have a straight issue and a free fight. We much mistake the temper of the Democratic party if it will submit to any patchwork process in the approaching struggle of '68. It demands an old fashioned, frank and outspowhich we noticed and with which we were ken declaration of principles with candidates fresh from and in sympathy with the people. Not timorous, time-serving, placeseekers, who quailed and trembled when man who "was active as a Secretary of the the storm of radicalism howled and shricked Convention in reading papers and giving in its madness and fury; but brave men, direction to the proceedings," giving direction, in the hour of peril were not found tions, speaking, and voting, in which he did wanting. Any attempt on the part of trimmers and fuglemen to foist upon the Democratic party, as its candidates, uncertain and doubtful men, who neither represent nor harmonize with the sentiment of the party, should be promptly and effectually squelched. While it may be out of place, at so early a day, to indicate an individual choice, it is not inconsistent to demand that our next Presidential candidate shall be the choice of the Domocratic party, and not a bait to catch "gullible gudgeons." Give us a candidate around whom the Democratic masses will rally and recognize as a should have been scaled off, long ago. -

The New System of Nominating Candidates.

Clinton Democrat.

What is known as the "Crawford County System" for nominating local candidates with favor in other districts, as affording a remedy for some of the evils of the delegate view of this tendency the Titusville Herald, won't do, then try cholera and hydrophobia! which is published in Crawford County, where the system has been tried several vears, savs :

"The Crawford County system works mis chief to the party, and creates general dis-satisfaction among the people. The pre-tense that it lessons corruption is all a sham. It quadruples the expenses of office seekers, obliging them to visit every town or haulet, plead their cause and peddle their tickets. There is quite as much bargaining and trickery in our system, as in the delegate system, and just as mean menget office.— There is infinitely more personal defamation and recrimination between rival candidates than under the other system, and the breaches thus made are not often healed, but gives rise to faction and divisions within the ranks of the party.

Harvest Home Celebration at

The Presidential mania seems to be rep-On last Saturday afternoon, according to notice given by handbills, the people of this County without respect to class, sex or party, held a Harvest Home Celebration in Regargell's grove near Orangeville. The ground had been previously prepare with sents and a stand for the speakers; also a very large and convenient plank floor had been laid, by the people of that section, upon which to "trip the light fantastic

About noon the people began to assemble and by two o'clock the grove, with the exception of tents, had the appearance of its former days of an oldfaskioned Campmecting. Farmers, with their wives, children, and friends, came from almost all sections of the County.

The exercises commenced by appointing JOHN ROBBISON, of Scott Township, President; and Henry Hess, of Centre township, Daniel Armstrong, of Heurlock, Chandlee Eves, of Greenwood, William Miller, of Mt. Pleasant, John Megargell and Sam'l Hidler, of Orange, William White, of Scott, Chas-Bachman of Briarcreek, Nath'n. Fleckenstine, of Fishingcreek, Abram Titman, of Pine, and Jacob Girton, of Madison, as Vice Presidents of the meeting; and Dr. W. H. Bradley, of Bloomsburg, as Secretary.

E. R. IKELER, Esq., was first called as peaker. He appeared and addressed the armers as to their abundant crops, their duties and station, and seemed to render to his audience entire satisfaction.

J. BOYD ROBISON, Esq., was next called o the stand, and made some extemporaneous remarks, which were very appropriate. and which exhibited on the speaker's part a thoughtful and vigorous mind.

WM. H. SNYDER, Esq., of Orangeville, was next speaker. He spoke in a fervent and vigorous manner of the rise and progress of our country; embracing in his remarks a vast deal of historical data, which was listened to by the audience with marked atten-

After supper the dancing was resumed in the grove and continued until a late hour in the evening, when the people dispersed, returning to their homes, satisfied with their pleasant associatons, and pleased with the instruction and invigorating exer-

FIRST CLASS QUALIFICATIONS !- Among the various reasons given by the radical candidates in this county why they should be elected to office are mentioned their several silings. BARN BURNT.—The barn owned by Geo. P. Martz, in Point township, North'd county, was burnt on the 24th ult. The barn was insured in the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co., of this place, in the sum of twelve hundred dollars. This amount has already been paid in full by the Company, and Mr. Martz has commenced rebuilding. This certainly speaks well for the Farmers Mutual; which is without question, the safest and best Company in which farmers can insure their property. - Montour Ameri-
